BENTLEY (6-3, 5-1 NE10)
FALCONS

THE FIRST LOOK

Both teams enter with one loss in conference play - both at the hands of Saint Anselm - but only one will leave on Saturday with one loss and be crowned the 2023 Northeast-10 Conference Championship. New Haven welcomes the Bentley Falcons for a rematch of a meeting earlier this season where the Chargers came away with the win after a 31-yd FG attempt with 1:14 remaining that would have given the Falcons the lead was no good. However, the meeting is history as the only thing on the Chargers mind on Saturday will be the NE10 Championships, which would be the second in three seasons.

INSIDE THE SERIES

- New Haven and Bentley meet for the 16th time in the history of the two programs.
- The Chargers hold a 12-3 record in the previous 15 meetings, all since football returned to West Haven in 2009.
- Prior to an overtime loss in 2017, the Blue and Gold had won seven straight, with the lone loss in the initial matchup in 2009, a 25-18 decision in West Haven.

- All but six of the games between New Haven and Bentley has been decided by one possession or less, including a 14-13 decision earlier this season in Waltham.

A WIN OVER BENTLEY WOULD...

- give New Haven its fifth NE10 Championship, second under head coach Chris Pincince and second in the last three seasons for the Blue and Gold.
- be the fifth straight win over Bentley, all since the return to the field following the CoVID-19 pandemic, with two wins in 2019, one last season and one earlier this season in Waltham.
- keep the Chargers in the hunt for an NCAA Super Region 1 bid as they enter this weekend currently 10th in the most recent, and final before the official bracket announcement, rankings

BY THE NUMBERS

1 New Haven is currently second in all of NCAA Division II with its 18 total interceptions on the season, including four against Franklin Pierce.

6 Yet another national ranking for the Chargers this time around in tackles for loss allowed with an average of 3.89 per game which leads the NE10 and is fifth in the country.

6 Special teams has been a big piece for New Haven this season and one way to see how important on paper is the six blocked punts with Chima Opara the biggest culprit with four. The six blocked kicks is the most by a single team in NCAA D2, while Opara is second in the nation with his four blocked kicks.

7 Another top-10 ranking for the Chargers defense as they currently rank seventh in the nation in scoring defense, allowing just 12.9 points per game.

50 Years since the inception of football at the University of New Haven, while 2023 marks the 45th season the Chargers will take the field. The inaugural season was in 1973 at the Division III level, with the Chargers making the transition to D2 in 1982.

- announce this past Monday
- be the 282nd overall victory in the 44 plus year history of Charger Football.
 - be the 252nd victory since the Chargers began playing at the Division II level - first DII season was 1982.

GAME DAY FORECAST
It will be an ideal afternoon for a battle on the gridiron as the Chargers and Falcons will meet under partley sunny skies with a high temperature of 51 degrees with winds out of the northwest at 10-15 miles per hour. With the change back to eastern standard time this past week-end, daylight will be at a premium as sunset on Saturday is slated for 4:36 p.m. There is a very low chance of precipitation at only three percent while the humidity level will be relatively low at 56%.

SCOUTING THE CHARGERS
The Chargers defense has been the highlight of the season for the Blue and Gold and the national stats reflect that success. Entering this weekend against Bentley, New Haven is seventh in all of NCAA Division II in scoring defense, surrendering just 12.9 points per game. One of the most efficient parts of the Chargers defense has been its ability to seek out opponents passes where they currently rank No. 1 in the nation with 18 interceptions, including at least one in every game this season. Nine different players have at least one interception to their credit, with Giye Jenkins leading the team with five of the 18. Overall, Devin O'Malley leads the Chargers with 55 tackles, while Joe Vitale follows him with 49 tackles, including a team-best 10 TFL and five sacks. Leading New Haven's offense throughout the year has been transfer quarterback Daelen Menard who has 1,231 yards on 97 completions with 15 touchdowns. He also has four touchdowns on the ground among 72 yards rushing. The Chargers ground game has been strong throughout the season, with three Chargers all over 200 rushing yards led by Christian Ais who has 442 yards. Hunter Cobb follows with 371 yards and four TD's and Zaon Laney completes the trio with 248 yards.

SCOUTING THE FALCONS
After dropping its first two games of the season, Bentley has won six of its last seven games with the lone loss also their only NE10 loss of the season, which came at the hands of Saint Anselm back on October 7. Winners of its last four games by an average of 24 points per game, Bentley has split its offense evenly with 174.7 yards per game rushing and 181.1 yards per game passing, with their total offense over 120 yards per game better than its opponents. Graduate quarterback Mark Waid leads the Falcons offense into Saturday's game, collecting nearly 2,000 total yards on the year with 1,339 passing yards and 643 rushing yards. Under center, he has completed 135-of-240 passes with 14 touchdowns, while out of the backfield he has rushed the ball 143 times, scoring five touchdowns. Leading the running game is senior Vinnie Holmes who has 746 yards in 154 attempts with an average just shy of 100 yards per game. Defensively, the Falcons are led by graduate linebacker Salvatore Lupoli, Jr. who not only leads the team and the Northeast-10, but is No. 1 in NCAA Division II with 110 tackles, including 12.5 tackles for loss and 5.5 sacks. Also among the defensive leaders is graduate cornerback Trajon Vassar who enters the weekend with five of the Falcons 11 total interceptions.

NEXT ON TAP
With this afternoon's game serving as the final regular season contest on the 2023 schedule, New Haven will now await the official announcement from the NCAA of the 2023 Division II Football Championship bracket. Seven teams from each of the four Super Region's that make up D2 football nationally will advance to the championship bracket with the top seed in each region earning a first-round bye. Seeds 2-4 will host first round games on Saturday, November 18, with the title game scheduled for Saturday, December 16 in McKinney, Texas. The official bracket announcement will take place Sunday at 5:00 p.m. live on NCAA.com.

HONOR ROLL
After racking up 223 all-purpose yards, including 141 on four punt returns, New Haven specialist Dev Holmes picked up Northeast-10 Special Teams Player of the Week. Two of his four punt returns set up short-field scoring opportunities that resulted in 10 points, including the first of the day on a field goal from Vincent DeSimone. The two returns that led to scoring both went for more than 50 yards, with the longest of the day netting 62 yards to set up the field goal. His second longest of the day came late in the fourth quarter and went for 54 yards to set the Chargers up inside the 10 yard line and eventually lead to the game-winning touchdown from Daelan Menard. In addition to his 141 yards on punt returns, Holmes also added 82 receiving yards on three catches. Including a 76-yard touchdown haul.

GAME 10: NEW HAVEN VS BENTLEY

RUNNING THROUGH THE AWARDS

Coming off his first 100+ rushing game of the season, graduate Hunter Cobb picked up Northeast-10 Offensive Player of the Week accolades, the second-straight week New Haven has earned the distinction and third-straight week a Charger has been honored by the league office. Overall, Cobb finished the week with 113 yards on 25 carries with just one for loss and a season-high for all players of three rushing touchdowns. His three scores came from six, 16 and six yards, respectively, while he was the lone rusher to top 100 yards.

DYNAMIC DUO

Three straight weeks, three straight awards for the New Haven football team, this time around as a pair of Chargers garnered Offensive and Defensive Player of the Week honors from the Northeast-10. Offensively it was transfer quarterback Daelan Menard whose 258 yards, four touchdown performance at Franklin Pierce earned the distinction. On the other side of the ball it was Devin O'Malley's 80-yard interception TD leading to his first collegiate honor. In addition to the INT, O'Malley finished with five tackles, including one for loss, a pass breakup and a QB hurry.

HONOR ROLL SQUARED

For the second straight week, JR DB Giye Jenkins has taken home the NE10's Defensive Player of the Week, once again adding an interception to go along with his game-high 10 tackles against the crosstown rival Owls. For the season, Jenkins has now picked off on pass in all three games and is tied for second in the country in INT per game. With his 10 tackles he also vaulted himself into the number two slot on the team with 19 tackles.

WE'VE GOT AN EYE ON YOU

Ahead of the 2023 season, D2Football.com released its annual Division II Elite 100 Watch List and the Chargers Dev Holmes is among those to keep an eye on in 2023, one of eight wide receivers to make the cut. A First Team All-Conference and All-New England choice last season, Holmes Led the team and the Northeast-10 Conference in total yards with 825 which came on 40 receptions for an average of 20.6 yards per catch and 75.0 yards per game. He also led all league receivers with nine touchdowns, three more than any other player. His 825 yards and 75 ypg ranked him 36th best in all of NCAA Division II, while his 20.62 yards per catch was the 14th best in the nation.

OFF TO THE RACES

Graduate wide receiver Dev Holmes was off to the races at American International when he returned a Yellow Jackets punt 45 yards to the house for the first punt return TD since Springfield native Ju'an Williams did so against Franklin Pierce (62 yards) on November 2, 2019. Holmes is one of four players in the Northeast-10 who have returned a punt for six points.

20/20 VISION

The Chargers defense has proven there is no need to bring in an ophthalmologist as they are seeing the ball with 20/20 vision, picking off 18 passes on the year which is currently tied for the most in all of NCAA Division II. Leading the way is JR DB Giye Jenkins who has five interceptions, including one in each of the first three games of the year. Jenkins also returned one of his INT's for a TD. Overall, three of the 18 INTs have been returned for touchdowns with Jalen Fisher (30 yards) and Devin O'Malley (80 yards) also returning one to the house. O'Malley's 80 yard return was one of a season-high four TD's in the road win at Franklin Pierce.

LEAVE IT ALL ON THE LINE

The offensive line has always been a key piece of the equation for the Chargers and 2023 should prove to be no different. Four of the Chargers five starters on the O-Line are returning, including graduate right guard Xavier Bryson and sophomore left tackle who are both coming off of NE10 All-Conference honors last season. As a unit in 2022, the Chargers O-Line led the offense to an average of 34.5 points per game, and a total offense (380.7 yards pe game) that was top-60 in the nation. In addition, the Chargers were eighth in the nation for fewest interceptions allowed with just five total on the year, while the Chargers rushing offense was once again in the top-50 at 171.0 yards per game. So far this season, the O-Line hasn't let up and to their credit, the Chargers are currently sixth in the nation in tackles for loss allowed, surrendering just 3.89 per game. Harding currently leads the nation at 2.30 TFL allowed per game.

BEAT THE FLASH

Junior running back Christopher Ais returns to the backfield after one of the most successful seasons in recent memory, racking up 1,105 rushing yards which makes him just the eighth player in school history to run for 1,000+ yards in a single season. The Stoughton, Mass. native earned First Team All-Conference after leading all NE10 backs on the ground. For the season, Ais averaged 100.5 yards per game, 5.8 yards per carry and led the Chargers run game with seven touchdowns.

RETURNING ROYALTY

Seven Chargers returned to the gridiron after racking up postseason honors after the 2022 campaign. Highlighting the group is junior running back Christopher Ais who in addition to earning First Team All-NE10 was an All-New England and All-Super Region 1 selection. Joining him on the All-New England roster was graduate receiver Dev Holmes. In addition to Ais and Holmes, four additional players were NE10 First Team Selections - tight end Kevin Foelsch, offensive lineman Xavier Bryson, defensive lineman Jack Quander and defensive back Damon Burton, Jr. Rounding out the returning award winners is offensive lineman Justin Cesaire who earned a spot on the All-Rookie squad.

ONE DEGREE ISN'T ENOUGH

With a master's program in sport management, an MBA program and a renowned school of criminal justice it is no wonder so many students call New Haven home when it comes to postgraduate degrees. This season is no different, as 35 Chargers who have already earned an undergraduate degree are among the active roster for this weekend, while there are 36 total players on the roster who are pursuing a postgraduate degree. With the recent release from the National Football Foundation, the Chargers are officially No. 1 in the nation with its 35 graduate student-athletes among the 2,949 total players across all divisions who are playing this season with an undergrad degree already secured.

ON THE RADAR

Following a third appearance, in the last four seasons, in the NCAA Division II playoffs last year, the Chargers are garnering attention right out of the gates as one of 38 teams listed among those receiving votes in the preseason coaches poll presented by the American Football Coaches Association. The AFCA poll is voted on by select coaches representing each of Division II's eight Super Regions and is updated weekly.

LEADERSHIP TRIO

Following the Chargers three-week pre-season, head coach Chris Pincince announced a trio of players that will make up the leadership corps for 2023; defensive lineman Jack Quander, wide receiver Dev Holmes and tight end Kevin Foelsch. All three played incredibly important roles last season and will be looked on to continue that success while also leading the next generation of Chargers to another NE10 Championship and deep run into the postseason.

THE SCHEDULE

The New Haven football team will play six home games as part of a 10-game schedule in 2023. Included in that slate are three non-conference games, the first also the first ever game under the lights at Ralph F. DellaCamera Stadium as the Chargers host Frostburg for a rare Thursday night match-up. Following that will be the first of two meetings against conference foe Bentley, with the first serving as a non-conference match-up. Finally, the Chargers will welcome another newbie to the D2 scene in Lincoln University (Calif.) to West Haven to start the month of October. The seven-game Northeast-10 Conference schedule will kick off with the annual Battle for the Elm City against Crosstown rival Southern Connecticut State University and will be the first time on the year that the Charger look to defend a home-turf streak that includes 18-straight wins against a conference opponent. NCAA postseason play kicks off on November 18 with the top seven teams in Super Region 1 battling for a spot in the national semifinals.

GAME 10: NEW HAVEN VS BENTLEY

CHRIS PINCINCE
HEAD COACH
NINTH SEASON
BOSTON UNIVERSITY '94

NCAA Division I level.

In eight seasons leading the Chargers, Pincince has collected 60 wins passing Mark Whipple as the all-time winningest coach in the storied history of the program, while leading the Blue and Gold to the NCAA Championship in three of the last four seasons and advancing to the Second Round in two of those appearances (2018 & 2021).

Overall in eight seasons, 13 players have received All-American accolades while offensive lineman Zach Voytek was a three-time NE10 Offensive Lineman of the Year and signed as an undrafted free agent with the Buffalo Bills. Additionally, 59 different players have been named All-Conference, while 12 have garnered All-Region honors.

This past season, Pincince led the Blue and Gold to an 8-3 overall record (6-1 in the NE10) and its second-straight appearance in the NCAA playoffs and third in the last four seasons. Highlighting the individual accolades was graduate quarterback Connor Degenhardt who was named the NE10's Offensive Player of the Year, one of 14 players to earn postseason honors from the league office. In addition to Degenhardt, 11 players earned First Team All-Conference distinction, the most among any conference team, with seven on offense and five on defense.

Beyond Degenhardt's major conference honor, the Chargers had three players (RB Christopher Ais, WR Dev Holmes, RS Terrell Ford) earn All-New England status from the New England Football Writers Association and a trio pick up D2CCA All-Region distinction; Ais, OL William Ayers and LB David Onyemem. Rounding out all the postseason honors was Ford who picked up American Football Coaches Association All-America honors as a return specialist after picking off a pair of individual game records with 229 kick return yards against American International and a record 100-yard kickoff return against Franklin Pierce.

After missing the 2020 season due to the CoVID-19 shutdown, the Chargers finished the 2021 campaign 10-2 overall, including an undefeated 8-0 record in Northeast-10 Conference play, securing the first NE10 Conference Championship since the 2012 season and earning the program's eighth trip to the NCAA Division II Championship. The Blue and Gold went on to defeat Bentley in the opening round of the national tournament, advancing to the regional semifinals for the second time in as many appearances. In addition to Pincince earning NE10 Coach of the Year accolades, he was also named the New England Football Writers Coach of the Year while graduate offensive lineman Mike Zecchin joined him with a major award as he was tabbed the NE10's Offensive Lineman of the Year.

After finishing among the best defensive programs in the country, the Chargers were highlighted by junior defensive back Khyon Fitzpatrick who was named a second team All-American by the American Football Coaches of America. Overall, Fitzpatrick and Zecchin were part of 14 players who earned NE10 All-Conference honors while as a team, the Chargers finished 2021 ranked No.14 in the AFCA Coaches Poll.

The Chargers closed out the 2019 season finished tied with Bentley with a 6-2 record in Northeast-10 Conference play. Among the highlights for Pincince's squad was Shamar Logan garnering NE10 Rookie of the Year accolades as he was one of 16 Chargers to earn NE10 postseason distinction. Logan would go on to earn All-Region honors along with Markel Johnson and Ju'an Williams, the latter of which was named the regions Special Teams Player of the Year.

In 2018, Pincince coached a pair of record breakers in quarterback Ajee Patterson and Williams. Patterson graduated as arguably the best quarterback in New Haven history, the first to throw for more than 10,000 yards while racking up 80 touchdowns, second most in program history. The NE10 MVP and First Team All-Conference selection, Patterson closed out his collegiate campaign with a career-high 2,878 yards and 29 touchdowns, leading his squad to the NCAA Championship for the first time since 2012. Williams, a Don Hanson Honorable Mention All-American, registered a single season school record 1,171 receiving yards which came on 65 catches while completing 11 for touchdowns. Joining Williams in earning All-American accolades was Dan Iannone who anchored an offensive line that contributed to 4,827 total yards on offense, the most in the NE10, which included just shy of 2,000 yards rushing. In addition, the O-Line protection was impeccable, allowing Patterson to be sacked just three times through the 10-game regular season.

Voytek was one of two Chargers named All-American in 2016, joining linebacker Tyler Condit. Together, the pair were part of nine total players who received NE10 All-Conference honors following a 7-4 season that included a pair of wins over crosstown rival Southern Connecticut State University, representing eight straight season New Haven has maintained the Elm City Trophy. On the field, Condit set a pair of records, becoming the all-time leading tackler at New Haven as well as in the Northeast-10. He finished his collegiate career with 117 tackles as a senior, becoming just the second player in school history to finish with at least 100 stops in three seasons.

In just his second season leading the Chargers, Pincince led the Blue and Gold to the N10 Championship game, finishing the year with a 7-4 record. Among the highlights were a pair of record setting performances from junior running back Andre Anderson and Condit. Anderson broke a 22 year old record set by Roger Graham when he rushed for 319 yards in the regular season finale against Saint Anselm. In that same game, Condit shattered a 29 year old record when he finished with 25 tackles, giving him 153 for the season, which surpassed the previous record of 134 by Erik Lesinski. Anderson and Condit were two of four Chargers who received NE10 Player of the Year accolades at their respective positions, with Anderson earning Most Valuable Player accolades.

In his first season strolling the sideline at New Haven, Pincince led the Chargers to a 6-5 overall record, including a string of six straight victories in Northeast-10 Conference action. Among the highlights from Pincince's first season was Condit who was named a USA College Football All-America Honorable Mention. A pair of Chargers were also honored among the major awards from the Northeast-10 Conference with Voytek named co-Offensive Lineman of the Year and freshman running back Lemar Thomas named Rookie of the Year. In total, 10 players were named to NE10 All-Conference squads.

With two previous stints as an assistant at New Haven, Pincince began his career with the Chargers in 1995 as an assistant for UNH Athletics Hall of Famer and current Minnesota Vikings offensive line coach Tony Sparano. He spent three additional seasons with the Chargers from 1999 to 2001 under Darren Rizzi, current Assistant Head Coach and special teams' coordinator for the Miami Dolphins.

Prior to his most recent position as offensive coordinator at NCAA Division I Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) member Elon University in North Carolina, Pincince was the offensive coordinator at the University of Rhode Island and the College of the Holy Cross.

At Elon, Pincince was the offensive coordinator as well as the quarterbacks and running backs coach for three seasons. In his first year Elon's offense led the Southern Conference and ranked 14th nationally with 281 passing yards per game. Pincince's offensive scheme was anchored by All-America wide receiver Aaron Mellette, who led all of FCS in receptions per game (10.27) and receiving yards per game (149). His season totals also set new school and conference records in 2011. Quarterback Thomas Wilson also led the conference and ranked 14th nationally in total offense. In his second season at Elon, the offense ranked 12th in the FCS in passing yards per game (296), with Mellette again earning All-America honors. The receiver became the first Elon player invited to the Senior Bowl and was later selected in the seventh round of the NFL draft by the Baltimore Ravens. In Pincince's final season at Elon, the Phoenix ranked second in the conference in passing yards per game (231) and averaged over 350 total yards per contest.

During the three seasons prior to arriving at Elon, Pincince was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Rhode Island. While at URI, Pincince installed the spread offense, and the Rams ranked fifth in the Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) in passing offense in his first season. Pincince also spent four years at the College of the Holy Cross, including two seasons as the Crusaders' offensive coordinator. In 2007, the Holy Cross offense led the Patriot League in scoring (35.9 ppg), passing (335 ypg), total offense (463 ypg) and first downs (272). Crusaders quarterback Dominic Randolph led the league in passing (3,604 yards), touchdown passes (30) and total offense (340 ypg) and finished 12th in the balloting for the Walter Payton Award. Pincince's first two seasons at Holy Cross were spent as the wide receivers coach.

Prior to his tenure at Holy Cross, Pincince served as the offensive coordinator at Ursinus College in 2003. The season before, Pincince was the quarterbacks coach at Brown University. He also spent two seasons at Fairfield University. During his five previous seasons at New Haven, the Chargers combined for a 32-18-1 record and advanced to the NCAA Division II quarterfinal round in 1995. The Chargers finished the regular season undefeated and earned a 27-12 victory over Edinboro in the opening round of the NCAA playoffs. In his second stint, the Chargers averaged over 30 points and 350 yards per game during his three-season stretch.

A native of Woonsocket, R.I., Pincince earned his bachelor's degree from Boston University in 1994. He was a member of the Terriers' 1993 Yankee Conference Championship team and played on two NCAA Division I-AA (now FCS) playoff teams. He and his wife, Jennifer, have two sons, Zachary and Owen, and a daughter, Emma.
