THE FIRST LOOK

Both New Haven and Bentley enter Saturday night looking for their first wins of the year following week 1 losses in Super Region 1 action. The Chargers look to solidify their offense under new quarterback Daelen Menard, while defensively looking to rebound from allowing 27 points, the most surrendered since the opening game last season against Bowie State.

INSIDE THE SERIES

- New Haven and Bentley meet for the 15th time in the history of the two pro-
- The Chargers hold an 11-3 record in the previous 14 meetings, all since football returned to West Haven in 2009.
- Prior to an overtime loss in 2017, the Blue and Gold had won seven straight, with the lone loss in the initial matchup in 2009, a 25-18 decision in West Haven.
- All but six of the games between New Haven and Bentley has been decided by one possession or less, including a 22-21 nail biter in 2015 with Danny Stock cementing the victory with a 34yard FG with two seconds remaining in regulation.

A WIN OVER BENTLEY WOULD...

- be the third straight win against the Falcons, with their most recent victory dating back to 9/27/19 on their own home
- be the 275th overall victory in the 44 plus year history of Charger Football.
- be the 245th victory since the Chargers began playing at the Division II level first DII season was 1982.

GAME DAY FORECAST

Tomorrow's forecast remains a bit unsettled with the prediction calling for mostly cloudy, warm and humid with a thunderstorm possible in parts of the area. The high temperature for the day will be 85 with a low of 70 with a 55% probability of precipitation and a 33% chance of thunderstorms. Sunset on

BY THE NUMBERS

For the fourth straight season, New Haven entered the season as the preseason No. 1 pick to win the Northeast-10 Conference title in a poll of the league's head coach.

the number of interceptions by returning LB Damon Burton, Jr., which led the NE10 and his 0.5 per game was 9th best in NCAA D2

Othe national ranking of now junior running back Christian Ais in total rushing yards last season with 1,10, just the 8th player in school history to rush for 1,000+ yards.

New Haven has always been a hot bed 35 New Haven has always been a not bed for graduate students looking to continue their education and play the extent of their eligibility. This season is no different as the Chargers boast 35 grad students on the active roster.

Years since the inception of football at the University of New Haven, while 2023 marks the 45th season the Chargers will take the field. The inaugural season was in 1973 at the Division III level, with the Chargers making the transition to D2 in 1982.

SCOUTING THE CHARGERS

For the second straight season, New Haven dropped its season-opening non-conference game, surrendering 27 points to Frostburg State after allowing 27 points to Bowie State in the opener a year ago. The Chargers will also need to regroup on offense after Frostburg State finished with more than 200 yards than the Chargers who registered 89 yards on the ground and 134 yards in the air. Frostburg also finished with 15 minutes more in possession time. In his debut as a Charger, transfer quarterback Daelen Menard connected on 11-of-31 pass attempts for 134 yards with a pair of touchdowns, both of which found the hands of graduate receiver Dev Holmes who finished with five catches for 54 yards. On the ground, returning leader Christopher Ais led the team with 61 yards on 17 attempts for an average of 3.6 yards per carry. Defensively, graduate defensive back Devon Williams led the Chargers with 10 tackles, the only player in the game to reach double figures, with one of those tackles a TFL for six yards. Senior defensive lineman Jack Quander led the Charger with three TFL part of his five total tackles.

SCOUTING THE FALCONS

Bentley opened the season with a one-point loss, dropping a 20-19 decision to West Chester last weekend on its home turf. Quarterback Mark Waid opened up the season connecting on 14-of-25 pass attempts for 84 yards and two touchdowns, while also running for a game-high 98 yards on 20 carries for an average of 4.9 per carry. As a team, the Falcons outgained West Chester on the ground 145-127, however the Golden Rams easily won the passing game with 284 yards compared to Bentley's 84 yards. Defensively, Bentley was led by graduate cornerback Mathieu Severance who finished with nine tackles. including a half tackle for loss. Returning tackles leader Salvatore Lupoli, Jr. finished just behind him with eight total tackles. Severance also forced a fumble, the lone turnover forced by the Falcons.

NEXT ON TAP

When the Chargers take the field next there will be a trophy on the line, the Elm City Trophy as New Haven will meet its crosstown rival Southern Connecticut State University when they next take the field. The annual Battle of the Elm City will take place on Saturday, September 16 with kickoff scheduled for 1:00 p.m. New Haven has won the last 12 Elm City match-ups and the last 14 straight games against its rival. All of the action from DellaCamera Stadium will be available live on NE10NOW.TV.

WE'VE GOT AN EYE ON YOU

Ahead of the 2023 season, D2Football. com released its annual Division II Elite 100 Watch List and the Chargers Dev Holmes is among those to keep an eye on in 2023, one of eight wide receivers to make the cut. A First Team All-Conference and All-New England choice last season, Holmes Led the team and the Northeast-10 Conference in total yards with 825 which came on 40 receptions for an average of 20.6 yards per catch and 75.0 yards per game. He also led all league receivers with nine touchdowns, three more than any other player. His 825 yards and 75 ypg ranked him 36th best in all of NCAA Division II, while his 20.62 yards per catch was the 14th best in the nation.

BEAT THE FLASH

Junior running back Christopher Ais returns to the backfield after one of the most successful seasons in recent memory, racking up 1,105 rushing yards which makes him just the eighth player in school history to run for 1,000+ yards in a single season. The Stoughton, Mass. native earned First Team All-Conference after leading all NE10 backs on the ground. For the season, Ais averaged 100.5 yards per game, 5.8 yards per carry and led the Chargers run game with seven touchdowns.

ON THE LINE

Entering 2023, the Chargers have won 18-straight games against another NE10 team, regular or postseason. Last year the Chargers were 4-0 at home against an NE10 opponent, while in 2021 they were 6-0 with two of those wins against Bentley. The most recent loss at home against an NE10 team came on November 11, 2017, the final game of the season, a 31-21 loss to Merrimack who is one of two teams to have left the conference in recent years.

RETURNING ROYALTY

Seven Chargers will return to the gridiron after racking up postseason honors after the 2022 campaign. Highlighting the group is junior running back Christopher Ais who in addition to earning First Team All-NE10 was an All-New England and All-Super Region 1 selection. Joining him on the All-New England roster was graduate receiver Dev Holmes. In addition to Ais and Holmes, four additional players were NE10 First Team Selections tight end Kevin Foelsch, offensive lineman Xavier Bryson, defensive lineman Jack Quander and defensive back Damon Burton, Jr. Rounding out the returning award winners is offensive lineman Justin Cesaire who earned a spot on the All-Rookie squad.

sented by the American Football Coaches Association. The AFCA poll is voted on by select coaches representing each of Division II's eight Super Regions and is updated weekly.

LEAVE IT ALL ON THE LINE

The offensive line has always been a key piece of the equation for the Chargers and 2023 should prove to be no different. Four of the Chargers five starters on the O-Line are returning, including graduate right guard Xavier Bryson and sophomore left tackle who are both coming off of NE10 All-Conference honors last season. As a unit in 2022, the Chargers O-Line led the offence to an average of 34.5 points per game, and a total offense (380.7 yards pe game) that was top-60 in the nation. In addition, the Chargers were eighth in the nation for fewest interceptions

ONE	DEGREE	ISN'T	ENOUGH

With a master's program in sport management, an MBA program and a renowned school of criminal justice it is no wonder so many students call New Haven home when it comes to postgraduate degrees. This season is no different, as 35 Chargers who have already earned an undergraduate degree are among the active roster for this weekend, while there are 36 total players on the roster who are pursuing a postgraduate degree. With the recent release from the National Football Foundation, the Chargers are officially No. 1 in the nation with its 36 graduate student-athletes among the 2,949 total players across all divisions who are playing this season with an undergrad degree already secured.

ON THE RADAR

Following a third appearance, in the last four seasons, in the NCAA Division II playoffs last year, the Chargers are garnering attention right out of the gates as one of 38 teams listed among those receiving votes in the preseason coaches poll pre-

LEADERSHIP TRIO

Following the Chargers three-week preseason, head coach Chris Pincince announced a trio of players that will make up the leadership corps for 2023; defensive lineman Jack Quander, wide receiver Dev Holmes and tight end Kevin Foelsch. All three played incredibly important roles last season and will be looked on to continue that success while also leading the next generation of Chargers to another NE10 Championship and deep run into the postseason.

THE SCHEDULE

The New Haven football team will play six home games as part of a 10-game schedule in 2023. Included in that slate are three non-conference games, the first also the first ever game under the lights at Ralph F. DellaCamera Stadium as the Chargers host Frostburg for a rare Thursday night match-up. Following that will be the first of two meetings against conference foe Bentley, with the first serving as a non-conference match-up. Finally, the Chargers will welcome another newbie to the D2 scene in Lincoln University (Calif.) to West Haven to start the month of October. The seven-game Northeast-10 Conference schedule will kick off with the annual Battle for the Elm City against Crosstown rival Southern Connecticut State University and will be the first time on the year that the Charger look to defend a home-turf streak that includes 18-straight wins against a conference opponent. NCAA postseason play kicks off on November 18 with the top seven teams in Super Region 1 battling for a spot in the national semifinals.

PRESEASON PROPS

For the fourth straight season, the New Haven football team will enter the year as the team to beat according to a poll of the Northeast-10 Conference's eight head coaches. New Haven racked up a total of 48 points and six of the eight possible first place votes in the poll, finishing five points ahead of the Assumption Greyhounds who garnered the two remaining first place votes after earning the league title last season with a head-to-head win over the Chargers.

CHRIS PINCINCE HEAD COACH NINTH SEASON BOSTON UNIVERSITY '94

The 2021 Northeast-10 Conference Coach of the year, Chris Pincince was named the 10th head coach at the University of New Haven in February 2014, bringing more than 20 years of collegiate coaching experience to the sidelines, including many at the NCAA Division I level.

In eight seasons leading the Chargers, Pincince has collected 60 wins passing Mark Whipple as the all-time winningest coach in the storied history of the program, while leading the Blue and Gold to the NCAA Championship in three of the last four seasons and advancing to the Second Round in two of those appearances (2018 & 2021).

Overall in eight seasons, 13 players have received All-American accolades while offensive lineman Zach Voytek was a three-time NE10 Offensive Lineman of the Year and signed as an undrafted free agent with the Buffalo Bills. Additionally, 59 different players have been named All-Conference, while 12 have garnered All-Region honors.

This past season, Pincince led the Blue and Gold to an 8-3 overall record

This past season, Pincince led the Blue and Gold to an 8-3 overall record (6-1 in the NE10) and its second-straight appearance in the NCAA playoffs and third in the last four seasons. Highlighting the individual accolades was graduate quarterback Connor Degenhardt who was named the NE10's Offensive Player of the Year, one of 14 players to earn postseason honors from the league office. In addition to Degenhardt, 11 players earned First Team All-Conference distinction, the most among any conference team, with seven on offense and five on defense.

Beyond Degehnardt's major conference honor, the Chargers had three players (RB Christopher Ais, WR Dev Holmes, RS Terrell Ford) earn All-New England status from the New England Football Writers Association and a trio pick up D2CCA All-Region distinction; Ais, OL William Ayers and LB David Onyemem. Rounding out all the postseason honors was Ford who picked up American Football Coaches Association All-America honors as a return specialist after picking off a pair of individual game records with 229 kick return yards against American International and a record 100-yard kickoff return against Franklin Pierce.

After missing the 2020 season due to the CoVID-19 shutdown, the Chargers finished the 2021 campaign 10-2 overall, including an undefeated 8-0 record in Northeast-10 Conference play, securing the first NE10 Conference Championship since the 2012 season and earning the program's eighth trip to the NCAA Division II Championship. The Blue and Gold went on to defeat Bentley in the opening round of the national tournament, advancing to the regional semifinals for the second time in as many appearances. In addition to Pincince earning NE10 Coach of the Year accolades, he was also named the New England Football Writers Coach of the Year while graduate offensive lineman Mike Zecchin joined him with a major award as he was tabbed the NE10's Offensive Lineman of the Year.

After finishing among the best defensive programs in the country, the Chargers were highlighted by junior defensive back Khyon Fitzpatrick who was named a second team All-American by the American Football Coaches of America. Overall, Fitzpatrick and Zecchin were part of 14 players who earned NE10 All-Conference honors while as a team, the Chargers finished 2021 ranked No.14 in the AFCA Coaches Poll.

The Chargers closed out the 2019 season finished tied with Bentley with a 6-2 record in Northeast-10 Conference play. Among the highlights for Pincince's squad was Shamar Logan garnering NE10 Rookie of the Year accolades as he was one of 16 Chargers to earn NE10 postseason distinction. Logan would go on to earn All-Region honors along with Markel Johnson and Ju'an Williams, the latter of which was named the regions Special Teams Player of the Year. In 2018, Pincince coached a pair of record breakers in quarterback Ajee Patterson and Williams. Patterson graduated as arguably the best quarterback in New Haven history, the first to throw for more than 10,000 yards while racking up 80 touchdowns, second most in program history. The NE10 MVP and First Team All-Conference selection, Patterson closed out his collegiate campaign with a career-high 2.878 yards and 29 touchdowns, leading his squad to the NCAA Championship for the first time since 2012. Williams, a Don Hanson Honorable Mention All-American, registered a single season school record 1,171 receiving yards which came on 65 catches while completing 11 for touchdowns. Joining Williams in earning All-American accolades was Dan lannone who anchored an offensive line that contributed to 4,827 total yards on offense, the most in the NE10, which included just shy of 2,000 yards rushing. In addition, the O-Line protection was impeccable, allowing Patterson to be sacked just three times through the 10-game regular season.

Voytek was one of two Chargers named All-American in 2016, joining linebacker Tyler Condit. Together, the pair were part of nine total players who received NE10 All-Conference honors following a 7-4 season that included a pair of wins over crosstown rival Southern Connecticut State University, representing eight straight season New Haven has maintained the Elm City Trophy. On the field, Condit set a pair of records, becoming the all-time leading tackler at New Haven as well as in the Northeast-10. He finished his collegiate career with 117 tackles as a senior, becoming just the second player in school history to finish with at least 100 stops in three seasons. In just his second season leading the Chargers, Pincince led the Blue and

In just his second season leading the Chargers, Pincince led the Blue and Gold to the N10 Championship game, finishing the year with a 7-4 record. Among the highlights were a pair of record setting performances from junior running back Andre Anderson and Condit. Anderson broke a 22 year old record set by Roger Graham when he rushed for 319 yards in the regular season finale against Saint Anselm. In that same game, Condit shattered a 29 year old record when he finished with 25 tackles, giving him 153 for the season, which surpassed the previous record of 134 by Erik Lesinski. Anderson and Condit were two of four Chargers who received NE10 Player of the Year accolades at their respective positions, with Anderson earning Most Valuable Player accolades.

In his first season strolling the sideline at New Haven, Pincince led the Chargers to a 6-5 overall record, including a string of six straight victories in Northeast-10 Conference action. Among the highlights from Pincince's first season was Condit who was named a USA College Football All-America Honorable Mention. A pair of Chargers were also honored among the major awards from the Northeast-10 Conference with Voytek named co-Offensive Lineman of the Year and freshman running back Lemar Thomas named Rookie of the Year. In total, 10 players were named to NE10 All-Conference squads.

With two previous stints as an assistant at New Haven, Pincince began his career with the Chargers in 1995 as an assistant for UNH Athletics Hall of Famer and current Minnesota Vikings offensive line coach Tony Sparano. He spent three additional seasons with the Chargers from 1999 to 2001 under Darren Rizzi, current Assistant Head Coach and special teams' coordinator for the Miami Dolphins.

Prior to his most recent position as offensive coordinator at NCAA Division I Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) member Elon University in North Carolina, Pincince was the offensive coordinator at the University of Rhode Island and the College of the Holy Cross.

At Elon, Pincince was the offensive coordinator as well as the quarterbacks and running backs coach for three seasons. In his first year Elon's offense led the Southern Conference and ranked 14th nationally with 281 passing yards per game. Pincince's offensive scheme was anchored by All-America wide receiver Aaron Mellette, who led all of FCS in receptions per game (10.27) and receiving yards per game (149). His season totals also set new school and conference records in 2011. Quarterback Thomas Wilson also led the conference and ranked 14th nationally in total offense. In his second season at Elon, the offense ranked 12th in the FCS in passing yards per game (296), with Mellette again earning All-America honors. The receiver became the first Elon player invited to the Senior Bowl and was later selected in the seventh round of the NFL draft by the Baltimore Ravens. In Pincince's final season at Elon, the Phoenix ranked second in the conference in passing yards per game (231) and averaged over 350 total yards per contest.

During the three seasons prior to arriving at Elon, Pincince was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Rhode Island. While at URI, Pincince installed the spread offense, and the Rams ranked fifth in the Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) in passing offense in his first season. Pincince also spent four years at the College of the Holy Cross, including two seasons as the Crusaders' offensive coordinator. In 2007, the Holy Cross offense led the Patriot League in scoring (35.9 ppg), passing (335 ypg), total offense (463 ypg) and first downs (272). Crusaders quarterback Dominic Randolph led the league in passing (3,604 yards), touchdown passes (30) and total offense (340 ypg) and finished 12th in the balloting for the Walter Payton Award. Pincince's first two seasons at Holy Cross were spent as the wide receivers coach.

Prior to his tenure at Holy Cross, Pincince served as the offensive coordinator at Ursinus College in 2003. The season before, Pincince was the quarterbacks coach at Brown University. He also spent two seasons at Fairfield University. During his five previous seasons at New Haven, the Chargers combined for a 32-18-1 record and advanced to the NCAA Division II quarterfinal round in 1995. The Chargers finished the regular season undefeated and earned a 27-12 victory over Edinboro in the opening round of the NCAA playoffs. In his second stint, the Chargers averaged over 30 points and 350 yards per game during his three-season stretch.

A native of Woonsocket, R.I., Pincince earned his bachelor's degree from Boston University in 1994. He was a member of the Terriers' 1993 Yankee Conference Championship team and played on two NCAA Division I-AA (now FCS) playoff teams. He and his wife, Jennifer, have two sons, Zachary and Owen, and a daughter, Emma.
