SAINT ANSELM (3-3, 2-1 NE10)
HAWKS

THE FIRST LOOK

After a break in Northeast-10 action last week, the Blue and Gold return to league play this weekend when they host the Saint Anselm Hawks who are coming off a big 24-17 home win coming from behind with a pair of fourth quarter scores for the victory. New Haven looks to remain unbeaten in NE10 play after opening up the conference schedule 3-0.

INSIDE THE SERIES

- New Haven and Saint Anselm meet for the 13th time in a series that dates back to the Chargers first season in the Northeast-10, 2009.
- Overall, the Chargers lead the Hawks 9-3 in the all-time series.
- Saint Anselm broke a four-game streak in the Chargers favor in 2021 with a 37-31 victory.
- In the four-game streak prior to that win, the Chargers outscored Saint Anselm by an average of 24.5 points.
- Last season, New Haven posted a 21-10 victory at Grappone Stadium.

A WIN OVER SAINT ANSELM WOULD...

- be the sixth straight win for the Chargers after dropping their season opener to Frostburg State
- be the third straight win against Saint Anselm, outscoring the Hawks 77-17 in the last two wins
- be the 280th overall victory in the 44 plus year history of Charger Football.
- be the 250th victory since the Chargers began playing at the Division II level - first DII season was 1982.

GAME DAY FORECAST

Will the rain hold off or will the Chargers be playing under wet conditions for a fourth straight week, that is the question that everyone is looking to get an answer to. Currently there is an 86% chance of rain predicted for Saturday, however hourly predictions have the rain holding off until approximately 4:00 p.m. The high temperature for the day will be 56 degrees with a low of 47 degrees.

BY THE NUMBERS

1 For the fourth straight season, New Haven entered the year as the preseason No. 1 pick to win the Northeast-10 Conference title in a poll of the league's head coach.

1 New Haven is currently tied for No. 1 in all of NCAA Division II with its 13 total interceptions on the season, including four against Franklin Pierce.

6 Another top-10 ranking for the Chargers this time around in total tackles for loss allowed with an average of 3.5 per game which leads the NE10 and is sixth in the country.

34 New Haven has always been a hot bed for graduate students looking to continue their education and play the extent of their eligibility. This season is no different as the Chargers boast 34 grad students on the active roster.

50 Years since the inception of football at the University of New Haven, while 2023 marks the 45th season the Chargers will take the field. The inaugural season was in 1973 at the Division III level, with the Chargers making the transition to D2 in 1982.

SCOUTING THE CHARGERS

New Haven enters the weekend winners of its last five games, including the first three in NE10 play. During that three-game conference stretch, the Chargers are outscoring their opponents 36.0 to 11.7 and for the season by more than 18 points overall. The Blue and Gold have evenly balanced their offense between the running and passing game, racking up 749 yards and seven touchdown on the ground and amassing 993 yards and 14 touchdowns in the air. Leading the rushing efforts of late has been graduate running back Hunter Cobb who is coming off of a 100+ performance two weeks ago at American International. Cobb has a team-high 301 rushing yards and four touchdowns. With weather not looking promising again this weekend, look for Cobb to once again lead the attack against the Hawks. Defensively, New Haven hasn't let an opponent get comfortable in its passing game, picking off 13 passes in the first six weeks of the season, which is tied for the most in all of NCAA Division II. Among those 13 interceptions, three have been returned for touchdowns. Leading the defensive unit individually is junior defensive back Giye Jenkins who has collected 31 tackles and has three of the 13 interceptions to his credit.

SCOUTING THE HAWKS

After scoring twice in the fourth quarter to upset Bentley last weekend, the Hawks are one of three teams with a pair of NE10 wins on the season, with their other coming in their NE10 opener against American International (24-14). For the season, Saint Anselm is being out scored by just shy of five points per game, averaging 17.8 points on offense. Leading the way for Saint Anselm is the reigning NE10 Rookie of the Week, a two-time time honoree, quarterback Drew Forkner who has connected on 59-of-99 attempts for 591 yards and seven touchdowns. His primary target downfield has been Carson Goda who has 29 receptions and three TDs, while the next closest player has 13 catches. On the ground, Vincent Wagner leads the team with 190 rushing yards with the Hawks averaging 85 yards per game as a team. Defensively, Will Klein leads the team with 43 tackles, nearly 20 more than the next player, with 10 of his 43 tackles going for loss which leads all NE10 players.

NEXT ON TAP

After taking a week off to rest and recover in the NE10 bye week, the Chargers will close out the month of October, a month where they will play all of their games on the friendly confines of DellaCamera Stadium, New Haven will return to action on Saturday, October 28 when they host the Assumption Greyhounds, the only NE10 team to hand the Chargers a loss in 2022. Kickoff against the Greyhounds is set for 1:00 p.m. with all of the action available live on NE10NOW.TV.

RUNNING THROUGH THE AWARDS

Coming off his first 100+ rushing game of the season, graduate Hunter Cobb picked up Northeast-10 Offensive Player of the Week accolades, the second-straight week New Haven has earned the distinction and third-straight week a Charger has been honored by the league office. Overall, Cobb finished the week with 113 yards on 25 carries with just one for loss and a season-high for all players of three rushing touchdowns. His three scores came from six, 16 and six yards, respectively, while he was the lone rusher to top 100 yards.

DYNAMIC DUO

Three straight weeks, three straight awards for the New Haven football team, this time around as a pair of Chargers garnered Offensive and Defensive Player of the Week honors from the Northeast-10. Offensively it was transfer quarterback Daelen Menard whose 258 yards, four touchdown performance at Franklin Pierce earned the distinction. On the other side of the ball it was Devin O'Malley's 80-yard interception TD leading to his first collegiate honor. In addition to the INT, O'Malley finished with five tackles, including one for loss, a pass breakup and a QB hurry.

HONOR ROLL SQUARED

For the second straight week, JR DB Giye Jenkins has taken home the NE10's Defensive Player of the Week, once again adding an interception to go along with his game-high 10 tackles against the crosstown rival Owls. For the season, Jenkins has now picked off on pass in all three games and is tied for second in the country in INT per game. With his 10 tackles he also vaulted himself into the number two slot on the team with 19 tackles.

GAME 7: NEW HAVEN VS SAINT ANSELM

WE'VE GOT AN EYE ON YOU

Ahead of the 2023 season, D2Football.com released its annual Division II Elite 100 Watch List and the Chargers Dev Holmes is among those to keep an eye on in 2023, one of eight wide receivers to make the cut. A First Team All-Conference and All-New England choice last season, Holmes Led the team and the Northeast-10 Conference in total yards with 825 which came on 40 receptions for an average of 20.6 yards per catch and 75.0 yards per game. He also led all league receivers with nine touchdowns, three more than any other player. His 825 yards and 75 ypg ranked him 36th best in all of NCAA Division II, while his 20.62 yards per catch was the 14th best in the nation.

OFF TO THE RACES

Graduate wide receiver Dev Holmes was off to the races at American International when he returned a Yellow Jackets punt 45 yards to the house for the first punt return TD since Springfield native Ju'an Williams did so against Franklin Pierce (62 yards) on November 2, 2019. Holmes is one of four players in the Northeast-10 who have returned a punt for six points.

20/20 VISION

The Chargers defense has proven there is no need to bring in an ophthalmologist as they are seeing the ball with 20/20 vision, picking off 13 passes on the year which is currently the tied for the most in all of NCAA Division II with Harding and Central Missouri. Leading the way is JR DB Giye Jenkins who has three interceptions, one in each of the first three games of the year, retuning one of those for a TD. Overall, three of the 13 INTs have been returned for touchdowns with Jalen Fisher (30 yards) and Devin O'Malley (80 yards) each returning one to the house. O'Malley's 80 yard return was one of a season-high four TD's in the road win at Franklin Pierce.

LEAVE IT ALL ON THE LINE

The offensive line has always been a key piece of the equation for the Chargers and 2023 should prove to be no different. Four of the Chargers five starters on the O-Line are returning, including graduate right guard Xavier Bryson and sophomore left tackle who are both coming off of NE10 All-Conference honors last season. As a unit in 2022, the Chargers O-Line led the offense to an average of 34.5 points per game, and a total offense (380.7 yards pe game) that was top-60 in the nation. In addition, the Chargers were eighth in the nation for fewest interceptions allowed with just five total on the year, while the Chargers rushing offense was once again in the top-50 at 171.0 yards per game. So far this season, the O-Line hasn't let up and to their credit, the Chargers are currently sixth in the nation in tackles for loss allowed, surrendering just 3.5 per game. Harding currently leads the nation at 3.00 TFL allowed per game.

GAME 7: NEW HAVEN VS SAINT ANSELM

BEAT THE FLASH

Junior running back Christopher Ais returns to the backfield after one of the most successful seasons in recent memory, racking up 1,105 rushing yards which makes him just the eighth player in school history to run for 1,000+ yards in a single season. The Stoughton, Mass. native earned First Team All-Conference after leading all NE10 backs on the ground. For the season, Ais averaged 100.5 yards per game, 5.8 yards per carry and led the Chargers run game with seven touchdowns.

ON THE LINE

Entering 2023, the Chargers have won 18-straight home games against another NE10 team, regular or postseason. Last year the Chargers were 4-0 at home against an NE10 opponent, while in 2021 they were 6-0 with two of those wins against Bentley. The most recent loss at home against an NE10 team came on November 11, 2017, the final game of the season, a 31-21 loss to Merrimack who is one of two teams to have left the conference in recent years. With a win over SCSU so far this season, that streak now stands at 19 straight home wins over a conference opponent.

RETURNING ROYALTY

Seven Chargers returned to the gridiron after racking up postseason honors after the 2022 campaign. Highlighting the group is junior running back Christopher Ais who in addition to earning First Team All-NE10 was an All-New England and All-Super Region 1 selection. Joining him on the All-New England roster was graduate receiver Dev Holmes. In addition to Ais and Holmes, four additional players were NE10 First Team Selections - tight end Kevin Foelsch, offensive lineman Xavier Bryson, defensive lineman Jack Quander and defensive back Damon Burton, Jr. Rounding out the returning award winners is offensive lineman Justin Cesaire who earned a spot on the All-Rookie squad.

ONE DEGREE ISN'T ENOUGH

With a master's program in sport management, an MBA program and a renowned school of criminal justice it is no wonder so many students call New Haven home when it comes to postgraduate degrees. This season is no different, as 35 Chargers who have already earned an undergraduate degree are among the active roster for this weekend, while there are 36 total players on the roster who are pursuing a postgraduate degree. With the recent release from the National Football Foundation, the Chargers are officially No. 1 in the nation with its 35 graduate student-athletes among the 2,949 total players across all divisions who are playing this season with an undergrad degree already secured.

ON THE RADAR

Following a third appearance, in the last four seasons, in the NCAA Division II playoffs last year, the Chargers are garnering attention right out of the gates as one of 38 teams listed among those receiving votes in the preseason coaches poll presented by the American Football Coaches Association. The AFCA poll is voted on by select coaches representing each of Division II's eight Super Regions and is updated weekly.

LEADERSHIP TRIO

Following the Chargers three-week pre-season, head coach Chris Pincince announced a trio of players that will make up the leadership corps for 2023; defensive lineman Jack Quander, wide receiver Dev Holmes and tight end Kevin Foelsch. All three played incredibly important roles last season and will be looked on to continue that success while also leading the next generation of Chargers to another NE10 Championship and deep run into the postseason.

THE SCHEDULE

The New Haven football team will play six home games as part of a 10-game schedule in 2023. Included in that slate are three non-conference games, the first also the first ever game under the lights at Ralph F. DellaCamera Stadium as the Chargers host Frostburg for a rare Thursday night match-up. Following that will be the first of two meetings against conference foe Bentley, with the first serving as a non-conference match-up. Finally, the Chargers will welcome another newbie to the D2 scene in Lincoln University (Calif.) to West Haven to start the month of October. The seven-game Northeast-10 Conference schedule will kick off with the annual Battle for the Elm City against Crosstown rival Southern Connecticut State University and will be the first time on the year that the Charger look to defend a home-turf streak that includes 18-straight wins against a conference opponent. NCAA postseason play kicks off on November 18 with the top seven teams in Super Region 1 battling for a spot in the national semifinals.

PRESEASON PROPS

For the fourth straight season, the New Haven football team will enter the year as the team to beat according to a poll of the Northeast-10 Conference's eight head coaches. New Haven racked up a total of 48 points and six of the eight possible first place votes in the poll, finishing five points ahead of the Assumption Greyhounds who garnered the two remaining first place votes after earning the league title last season with a head-to-head win over the Chargers.

GAME 7: NEW HAVEN VS SAINT ANSELM

CHRIS PINCINCE
HEAD COACH
NINTH SEASON
BOSTON UNIVERSITY '94

NCAA Division I level. In eight seasons leading the Chargers, Pincince has collected 60 wins passing Mark Whipple as the all-time winningest coach in the storied history of the program, while leading the Blue and Gold to the NCAA Championship in three of the last four seasons and advancing to the Second Round in two of those appearances (2018 & 2021). Overall in eight seasons, 13 players have received All-American accolades while offensive lineman Zach Voytek was a three-time NE10 Offensive Lineman of the Year and signed as an undrafted free agent with the Buffalo Bills. Additionally, 59 different players have been named All-Conference, while 12 have garnered All-Region honors. This past season, Pincince led the Blue and Gold to an 8-3 overall record (6-1 in the NE10) and its second-straight appearance in the NCAA playoffs and third in the last four seasons. Highlighting the individual accolades was graduate quarterback Connor Degenhardt who was named the NE10's Offensive Player of the Year, one of 14 players to earn postseason honors from the league office. In addition to Degenhardt, 11 players earned First Team All-Conference distinction, the most among any conference team, with seven on offense and five on defense. Beyond Degenhardt's major conference honor, the Chargers had three players (RB Christopher Ais, WR Dev Holmes, RS Terrell Ford) earn All-New England status from the New England Football Writers Association and a trio pick up D2CCA All-Region distinction; Ais, OL William Ayers and LB David Onyemem. Rounding out all the postseason honors was Ford who picked up American Football Coaches Association All-America honors as a return specialist after picking off a pair of individual game records with 229 kick return yards against American International and a record 100-yard kickoff return against Franklin Pierce. After missing the 2020 season due to the CoVID-19 shutdown, the Chargers finished the 2021 campaign 10-2 overall, including an undefeated 8-0 record in Northeast-10 Conference play, securing the first NE10 Conference Championship since the 2012 season and earning the program's eighth trip to the NCAA Division II Championship. The Blue and Gold went on to defeat Bentley in the opening round of the national tournament, advancing to the regional semifinals for the second time in as many appearances. In addition to Pincince earning NE10 Coach of the Year accolades, he was also named the New England Football Writers Coach of the Year while graduate offensive lineman Mike Zecchin joined him with a major award as he was tabbed the NE10's Offensive Lineman of the Year. After finishing among the best defensive programs in the country, the Chargers were highlighted by junior defensive back Khyon Fitzpatrick who was named a second team All-American by the American Football Coaches of America. Overall, Fitzpatrick and Zecchin were part of 14 players who earned NE10 All-Conference honors while as a team, the Chargers finished 2021 ranked No.14 in the AFCA Coaches Poll. The Chargers closed out the 2019 season finished tied with Bentley with a 6-2 record in Northeast-10 Conference play. Among the highlights for Pincince's squad was Shamar Logan garnering NE10 Rookie of the Year accolades as he was one of 16 Chargers to earn NE10 postseason distinction. Logan would go on to earn All-Region honors along with Markel Johnson and Ju'an Williams, the latter of which was named the regions Special Teams Player of the Year. In 2018, Pincince coached a pair of record breakers in quarterback Ajee Patterson and Williams. Patterson graduated as arguably the best quarterback in New Haven history, the first to throw for more than 10,000 yards while racking up 80 touchdowns, second most in program history. The NE10 MVP and First Team All-Conference selection, Patterson closed out his collegiate campaign with a career-high 2,878 yards and 29 touchdowns, leading his squad to the NCAA Championship for the first time since 2012. Williams, a Don Hanson Honorable Mention All-American, registered a single season school record 1,171 receiving yards which came on 65 catches while completing 11 for touchdowns. Joining Williams in earning All-American accolades was Dan Iannone who anchored an offensive line that contributed to 4,827 total yards on offense, the most in the NE10, which included just shy of 2,000 yards rushing. In addition, the O-Line protection was impeccable, allowing Patterson to be sacked just three times through the 10-game regular season. Voytek was one of two Chargers named All-American in 2016, joining linebacker Tyler Condit. Together, the pair were part of nine total players who received NE10 All-Conference honors following a 7-4 season that included a pair of wins over crosstown rival Southern Connecticut State University, representing eight straight season New Haven has maintained the Elm City Trophy. On the field, Condit set a pair of records, becoming the all-time leading tackler at New Haven as well as in the Northeast-10. He finished his collegiate career with 117 tackles as a senior, becoming just the second player in school history to finish with at least 100 stops in three seasons. In just his second season leading the Chargers, Pincince led the Blue and Gold to the N10 Championship game, finishing the year with a 7-4 record. Among the highlights were a pair of record setting performances from junior running back Andre Anderson and Condit. Anderson broke a 22 year old record set by Roger Graham when he rushed for 319 yards in the regular season finale against Saint Anselm. In that same game, Condit shattered a 29 year old record when he finished with 25 tackles, giving him 153 for the season, which surpassed the previous record of 134 by Erik Lesinski. Anderson and Condit were two of four Chargers who received NE10 Player of the Year accolades at their respective positions, with Anderson earning Most Valuable Player accolades. In his first season strolling the sideline at New Haven, Pincince led the Chargers to a 6-5 overall record, including a string of six straight victories in Northeast-10 Conference action. Among the highlights from Pincince's first season was Condit who was named a USA College Football All-America Honorable Mention. A pair of Chargers were also honored among the major awards from the Northeast-10 Conference with Voytek named co-Offensive Lineman of the Year and freshman running back Lemar Thomas named Rookie of the Year. In total, 10 players were named to NE10 All-Conference squads. With two previous stints as an assistant at New Haven, Pincince began his career with the Chargers in 1995 as an assistant for UNH Athletics Hall of Famer and current Minnesota Vikings offensive line coach Tony Sparano. He spent three additional seasons with the Chargers from 1999 to 2001 under Darren Rizzi, current Assistant Head Coach and special teams' coordinator for the Miami Dolphins. Prior to his most recent position as offensive coordinator at NCAA Division I Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) member Elon University in North Carolina, Pincince was the offensive coordinator at the University of Rhode Island and the College of the Holy Cross. At Elon, Pincince was the offensive coordinator as well as the quarterbacks and running backs coach for three seasons. In his first year Elon's offense led the Southern Conference and ranked 14th nationally with 281 passing yards per game. Pincince's offensive scheme was anchored by All-America wide receiver Aaron Mellette, who led all of FCS in receptions per game (10.27) and receiving yards per game (149). His season totals also set new school and conference records in 2011. Quarterback Thomas Wilson also led the conference and ranked 14th nationally in total offense. In his second season at Elon, the offense ranked 12th in the FCS in passing yards per game (296), with Mellette again earning All-America honors. The receiver became the first Elon player invited to the Senior Bowl and was later selected in the seventh round of the NFL draft by the Baltimore Ravens. In Pincince's final season at Elon, the Phoenix ranked second in the conference in passing yards per game (231) and averaged over 350 total yards per contest. During the three seasons prior to arriving at Elon, Pincince was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Rhode Island. While at URI, Pincince installed the spread offense, and the Rams ranked fifth in the Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) in passing offense in his first season. Pincince also spent four years at the College of the Holy Cross, including two seasons as the Crusaders' offensive coordinator. In 2007, the Holy Cross offense led the Patriot League in scoring (35.9 ppg), passing (335 ypg), total offense (463 ypg) and first downs (272). Crusaders quarterback Dominic Randolph led the league in passing (3,604 yards), touchdown passes (30) and total offense (340 ypg) and finished 12th in the balloting for the Walter Payton Award. Pincince's first two seasons at Holy Cross were spent as the wide receivers coach. Prior to his tenure at Holy Cross, Pincince served as the offensive coordinator at Ursinus College in 2003. The season before, Pincince was the quarterbacks coach at Brown University. He also spent two seasons at Fairfield University. During his five previous seasons at New Haven, the Chargers combined for a 32-18-1 record and advanced to the NCAA Division II quarterfinal round in 1995. The Chargers finished the regular season undefeated and earned a 27-12 victory over Edinboro in the opening round of the NCAA playoffs. In his second stint, the Chargers averaged over 30 points and 350 yards per game during his three-season stretch. A native of Woonsocket, R.I., Pincince earned his bachelor's degree from Boston University in 1994. He was a member of the Terriers' 1993 Yankee Conference Championship team and played on two NCAA Division I-AA (now FCS) playoff teams. He and his wife, Jennifer, have two sons, Zachary and Owen, and a daughter, Emma.
