THE LEAD

Taking the court one more time before the Holiday hiatus, the New Haven men’s basketball welcomes Georgian Court to West Haven for the final game of a three-game homestand. New Haven looks to build off of home win over Adelphi that broke a six-game skid, while the Lions are searching to break a skid of their own, this one lasting five games.

SCOUTING NEW HAVEN

Nine games into the season and head coach Ted Hotaling continues to search for the right recipe of players with a multitude of new faces among the ingredients to choose from. Starting to find his groove, senior Davontrey Thomas, the leading returner from last season, has scored in double figures the past six games and eight of the nine games on the year. With his season-high 19 points against Adelphi, Thomas extended his team-lead in the scoring column with an average of 14.2 points per game. More than half of his field goals (22-of-42 total FG made) have come from outside the arc as he continues to move up the all-time lists for three pointers made and total points, becoming the newest member of the 1,000-point club during the Chargers post season run to the Elite Eight. One additional player joins him with double figures in the scoring column with freshman Jah’Likai King adding 12.8 ppg after putting up his second 25+ point performance last time out against Adelphi. King is also among the leaders with 17 assists and 14 steals on the year.

SCOUTING GEORGIAN COURT

Making their first return to the court in 10 days time, the Lions are looking to snap a five-game skid when they step onto the hardwood in West Haven, with their last win coming back on November 18 against Kutztown. For the season, Georgian Court is averaging just 66.0 points per game and being outscored by an average of 21.6 ppg with their opponents averaging 87.6 ppg. Individually, two players average in double figures with Clint Wright, Jr. leading the team at 18.3 ppg, shooting 53% on the year with more than half (25) of his 44 field goals coming from long range. Additionally, he is among the leaders with 16 assists. Following him in the scoring column is Amari Jones who leads the team from the field at 54.7% (29-of-53) with an average of 10.0 ppg.

SERIES HISTORY VS GCU

- New Haven and Georgian Court meet for the fourth time in the history of the two programs.
- New Haven has never lost to the Lions, entering Tuesday night with a 3-0 record.
- The series began with a home-and-home series spanning the 2015-16 and 2016-17 seasons, with New Haven winning those two meetings by an average of 12.5 points.
- Last season, the Chargers took a 69-60 win over GCU on the Lions home court.

NEXT TIME OUT

New Haven will cap off the 2023 portion of their schedule with a pre-New Year’s matinee on the road at the College of Staten Island on Saturday, December 30. Tip off in the non-conference battle is scheduled for 2:00 p.m. from Staten Island’s Sports & Recreation Center.

KING OF OUR HEARTS

Freshman Jah’Likai King made his mark right out of the gates for the Blue and Gold, opening up his collegiate career with a monumental 35 point performance against Post University. In that game, he shot 14-of-21 from the field, including a pair of three pointers, and was 5-of-5 from the free throw line. Last season, just one player reached the 30 point mark and that came during the NCAA East Regionals when Ty Perry put up 30 against Pace. For the season, King has led the team in scoring three and is averaging a 12.8 points per game.

I’LL TAKE THAT THANK YOU VERY MUCH

Nine games into the season, the Chargers have proven there is no need to bring in an ophthalmologist as they are seeing the ball just fine, racking up 58 steals in the first nine games. Leading the efforts is Jah’Likai King who has grabbed 14 steals. Jojo Lingisi-Ombongo and Tyler Saint-Furcy follow him with 11 steals apiece. Overall, New Haven has scored 97 points off of their opponents turnovers.

A DISH HERE, A DISH THERE

As the Chargers continue to search for the right mix of players on the floor for 40 minutes, the continual adjustments has led to players being able to showcase how they can have the biggest impact. One of those ways has been in the assist column where junior college transfer guard Jojo Lingisi-Ombongo set the mark for the season coming off the bench at Assumption to dish out nine assists. He followed that performance up with eight at home against SNHU and leads the team with 27 assists on the year, followed by freshman Jah’Likai King who has 14 and Josh Hopson who has 11.

RHYTHYM AND REPITITION

Junior college transfer Keith Warren took a few games but now seems to have found his rhythm with the Blue and Gold, scoring in double figures in each game over a five-game stretch that moved him up the scoring column and is now third on the team with 9.4 ppg. His first time hitting double figures came in the NE10 opener at Bentley where he scored 15 points, while he set his career-high in the non-conference road game at Dominican with 27 points. Warren is a threat from the front court and the back court as 16 of his 30 field goals have come from outside the three point arc, second most on the team. Additionally, he has eight assists and six steals to his credit.

HONOR ROLL

After redshirting the 2022-23 season, sophomore Ethan Simmon began his collegiate career with back-to-back nights in double figures, setting his early career-high with 17 points in the season opener against Post. Overall, he averaged 14 points in the two games at the Golden Knights Invitational, earning NE10 Rookie of the Week honors following the first week of action.

HONOR ROLL PART DEUX

Following his second 25+ performance of the year, Jah’Likai King has picked up his first collegiate honor when he was named NE10 Rookie of the Week after leading the Chargers with 26 points in the home win over Adelphi. His team-high in the scoring column came on 9-of-17 from the field, with one from outside the arc, while he was a perfect 7-of-7 at the free throw line. In addition to his scoring, he added five rebounds, six assists and three steals.

HEIGHT RESTRICTION

One of the major losses for New Haven this season is that of Majur Majak, the 7-1 center that dominated in the key for the Blue and Gold. In just two short seasons with New Haven, Majak swatted 190 shots, third most in school history. Included was a school record 105 blocks last season.

CLIMB THE MOUNTAIN

In the midst of the Chargers magical run to the NCAA Division II Elite Eight, senior Davontrey Thomas set a milestone mark when he surpassed the 1,000 point plateau, becoming the 39th player in school history to reach the feat. Currently with 1,155 career points, Thomas will continue to vault up the all-time list, including moving up four positions with his 15 points against SNHU. With 95 more points Thomas will hit 1,250 for his career, moving him into the top-25 all-time.

FROM DISTANCE

In addition to climbing the all-time scoring ladder, senior Davontrey Thomas also finds himself climbing the top-10 for career three-point field goals made, entering Tuesday night with 208 which places him in fifth place all-time. He can now begin to turn his attention to fellow teammate Elijah Bailey who stands in fourth all-time with 213, while he stands 88 shy of reaching the pinnacle of the list with Justin Exum (2010-14) currently at the top of the mountain with 294.

AT THE HELM

Head coach Ted Hotaling enters his 13th season strolling the sidelines alongside his Chargers. With 196 career victories, Hotaling stands second among nine head coaches in the history of the New Haven men’s basketball program and with four more wins would become just the second coach in program history to win 200 career games. Named the ninth head coach in program history on March 31, 2010, Hotaling led the Chargers to the NCAA Division II Elite Eight for the first time in program history in 2022-23. Overall, Hotaling’s teams have earned five bids to the NCAA Division II National Tournament.

PRESEASON POLL

Fresh off of its first ever NCAA East Region title, the New Haven men’s basketball team was predicted to finish fifth in the Northeast-10 Conference according to a poll of the league’s 12 head coaches. Bentley was selected to win the conference title with 113 points and four first place votes, narrowly edging out reigning NE10 Champion Saint Anselm who finished with 109 points and five of the 12 first place votes. Southern Connecticut (2) and Pace (1) each added first place tallies, with the Owls selected to finish third and Pace slotted sixth.

TED HOTALING
HEAD COACH
TWELFTH SEASON
ALBANY '95

In 12 seasons at the helm of the New Haven men's basketball program, the ninth head coach in the history of UNH basketball Ted Hotaling has taken the Chargers to new heights, reaching the NCAA Division II Elite Eight for the first time in program history in 2023. The Chargers historic run through the NCAA East Region Championship included wins over Pace, Caldwell and Bentley en route to the programs first ever trip to Evansville, Ind. and the Ford Center, home to the Division II National Championship.

Overall, New Haven finished its 2022-23 campaign with a 23-11 record, with the 34 games played the most ever in a single season at New Haven. With the 23 wins this past season, Hotaling now stands just four wins shy of becoming just the second coach at UNH to coach the Blue and Gold to 200 wins, currently standing at 196-148 with the 57.0 winning percentage the third best in school history.

Also among the highlights in 2022-23 for Hotaling and the Chargers was Majur Majak who won back-to-back major conference awards as he took home NE10 Defensive Player of the Year again this past season after leading the conference with 105 blocks, the second most in all of NCAA DII. In addition, he was third in the nation with 3.09 blocks per game, while also leading the nation with 408 total rebounds and 9.74 defensive rebounds per game. Overall, Majak was one of three Chargers honored by the NE10 following the season with graduate guard Quashawn Lane on the All-Conference First Team and senior forward Ty Perry on the All-Conference Third Team. Lane also added All-Region honors from both the National Association of Basketball Coaches and the Division II Conference Commissioners Association.

Named the ninth head coach in program history on March 31, 2010, Hotaling has led the Chargers to back-to-back appearances in the Northeast-10 Conference Championship game, a trio of 10 total appearances in the conference tournament under his tutelage. In addition, Hotaling's teams have earned five bids to the NCAA Division II National Tournament, including the last two seasons.

Highlighting his 196 career victories was a 79-68 win over crosstown rival Southern Connecticut State University on February 15, 2016 which earned Hotaling his 100th career victory at the helm of the Blue and Gold, becoming the fourth coach at New Haven to reach the century mark. Three years later, to the day, Hotaling earned his 150th career victory when the Chargers posted a 72-61 home win over American International. In addition to his .570 winning percentage ranking third in program history, his record of 55-45 through his first 100 contests was the best since 1995.

Under his guidance, Hotaling has led a host of Chargers to postseason accolades and career records marks. Leading that list is Eric Anderson '15, a two-time All-American (2014, 2015), three-time Northeast-10 Defensive Player of the Year, two-time All-Region and four-time All-Conference performer. Anderson closed out his career at New Haven 14th all-time in scoring (1,551 points) while he also set a school record with 238 career blocks, passing Herb Watkins (191; 1984-88). Overall during his tenure, seven Chargers have joined the ranks of the 1,000 point club, the highest of which is Elijah Bailey who graduated eighth all-time with 1,780 career points. In 2022-23 alone, three Chargers joined the elite group with Lane doing so on New Year's Eve against Le Moyne and junior Davontrey Thomas reaching the feat in the NCAA regionals against Caldwell.

Anderson is one of 11 different players who all-totaled hauled in 17 All-Northeast-10 Conference honors under Hotaling. In addition, Hotaling's players have collected six major NE10 distinctions, and five different players have received All-Region honors during his tenure.

In 2021-22 Hotaling led the Chargers back to the NCAA Division II Championship for the fourth time in his tenure, advancing to the East Region semifinal round for the second time in as many appearances. Overall, New Haven closed out the 2021-22 season with an 18-9 overall record and a mark of 13-6 in the Northeast-10, finishing second in the Southwest Division.

Among the individual highlights was Majak's first NE10's Defensive Player of the Year honor after leading the team, the NE10 and all of NCAA Division II in blocks per game with an average of 3.1, as he closed out the season with a New Haven single season record of 85 blocks. In addition to Majak, Lane also earned a spot on the NE10 All-Conference Second Team.

In the Chargers return to the court following the CoVID-19 pandemic shutdown, Hotaling led the Chargers to their second-straight appearance in the NE10 Championship game, wrapping up the 2019-20 campaign with a 15-15 record. As the fifth seed in the Southwest Division, the Chargers were road warriors throughout the tournament, with the highlight of the championship coming in the semifinals when New Haven outlasted Stonehill in an instant three overtime thriller 101-100.

The season prior (2018-19), the Chargers finished with a 21-10 record, their third 20+ win season under Hotaling, after earning an at-large bid to their eighth NCAA Tournament appearance. New Haven's postseason run came to an end against eventual regional champion Saint Anselm, but not before tying their highest win total under Hotaling which was previously set in 2013-14.

The 2017-18 season saw Hotaling lead the Chargers New Haven to the Northeast-10 Conference Championship for a second-straight season and the sixth time in program history. The Chargers earned a bye through the first round before falling to Merrimack in the quarterfinals. Overall, New Haven finished the 2017-18 season with a 17-10 record, the sixth time in the last seven years Hotaling has led New Haven to a winning season.

The Chargers made their fifth appearance in the NE10 Championship under Hotaling in the 2016-17 campaign, closing out the year 15-14 overall. New Haven earned a first round victory over Merrimack 84-58. During the 2015-16 season, Hotaling coached the Chargers to arguably the biggest win in program history when New Haven knocked off crosstown rival Southern Connecticut State. The Blue and Gold led the Owls for all but six minutes as they defeated the No. 2 ranked team, according to the NABC Coaches Poll, 79-66.

In 2014-15, Hotaling led the Chargers to their fourth-straight winning season, closing out the year with a 15-12 overall record. Among the highlights was senior Eric Anderson who was named Northeast-10 Defensive Player of the Year for a third-straight season, the first time in NE10 history a player has earned the top defensive accolades three years in a row. Anderson was also a repeat member of the NE10 All-Conference First Team and stands as the only Charger to earn first team honors. In addition, Anderson was named a Daktronics/Division II Conference Commissioners Association Third Team All-American and signed a contract to play with the Gladiators Trier in Germany's Basketball Bundesliga ProA League following the season.

Statistically, Anderson led NCAA Division II in rebounds per game (13.1) and defensive rebounds per game (9.85). He was also among the top-10 in the nation in double doubles (8th) and total rebounds (5th).

Hotaling's 2012-13 and 2013-14 teams finished with back-to-back 20-win seasons for the first time since 2002-03 and 2003-04, while also earning back-to-back appearances in the NCAA postseason tournament. Hotaling's 21-9 record in 2013-14 stands as the most wins in a single season under his leadership, while the Chargers' 14-6 record in the NE-10 that season was the second-best since joining the conference in 2008-09. That squad led the nation in personal fouls per game (13.6), while the Chargers ranked second in Division II in fewest turnovers per game (8.9). New Haven also ranked in the top 10 nationally in scoring defense (6th) and field goal percentage defense (9th).

Individually, Hotaling mentored Anderson to NE10 Defensive Player of the Year and All-America Honorable mention recognition - the first such mention for New Haven in 24 years. Anderson finished his junior season leading the Northeast-10 Conference and second in Division II in defensive rebounds per game (8.97). He also ranked third in the nation with 20 double-doubles.

In 2012-13, Hotaling led the Chargers to a 20-9 record - their first 20-win campaign since 2003-04. New Haven reached the NCAA postseason for the first time since 2004 and earned its first win on the national stage since 2003 with a victory over Dominican in the NCAA Division II East Region Quarterfinals.

That season, Hotaling's Chargers led the NE10 and ranked 10th nationally in fewest turnovers committed per game (11.0) and slotted at 13th in the country in scoring defense with an NE10-leading 61.1 points per game allowed. New Haven also finished second in the conference and 38th in Division II in free throw percentage (74.3). Individually, Anderson earned his first NE10 Defensive Player of the Year honor, finishing second in the nation with 18 double-doubles while ranking third with 12.0 rebounds per game and ninth in blocked shots at 2.45 per game.

Hotaling led the Chargers to a 15-13 record in 2011-12 - a seven-win improvement from the previous campaign and the club's first winning season since 2004-05. New Haven also qualified for the Northeast-10 Conference Championship, winning a First Round contest at Pace before falling in a 54-51 heartbreaker at Adelphi in the Quarterfinals.

In his first season as head coach, the Chargers posted an 8-18 overall mark and a 6-16 record in the Northeast-10 Conference. Throughout the season, New Haven ranked among the top three-point shooting teams in Division II. Freshman Justin Exum concluded the season ranked 17th nationally in three-point field goals per game. He was also the highest ranked freshman in that category. As a team, UNH ranked 31st in three-point field goal percentage and 32nd in three-point field goals per game.
