THE LEAD

After spending its last two games at home, the Chargers are heading on the road for a quick one-game road trip as they head to the Granite State to take on the Franklin Pierce Ravens on Wednesday night. The match-up between the Chargers and Ravens was originally scheduled for Tuesday night but was rescheduled due to expected inclement weather.

SCOUTING NEW HAVEN

New Haven looks to get back into the win column after suffering back-to-back home losses at the hands of Southern Connecticut and Saint Anselm. For much of the season thus far it has been youth that has led the way for the Chargers with two of the top three scorers in their first season of eligibility. Leading the way is true freshman Jah’Likai King who will enter Wednesday night averaging 15.0 ppg. The rookie guard, who also leads the team with 36 assists and 29 steals, has scored 20+ in the last two games and five times total this season. Additionally, he has scored in double figures in each of the last four games. The other rookie that has made an impact this season is redshirt sophomore Ethan Simmon who is third on the team averaging 11.6 ppg, while he is second overall in rebounding at 4.1 rebounds per game. Sandwiched between the two rookie is senior guard Davontrey Thomas who has scored in double figures in the last 13 straight games and 14 of the 15 games this season. For the year, Thomas is averaging 14.4 ppg and leads the team from beyond the arc with 39 three pointers as he continues to streak up the all-time scoring and all-time three pointer career record lists.

SCOUTING FRANKLIN PIERCE

Easily the deepest bench in the NE10 with 20 players having played in at least two of the 15 games on the season, Franklin Pierce enters Wednesday night looking to break a six-game losing skid with its last win coming back on December 9. Despite scoring 75.2 ppg as a team, the Ravens are surrendering 85.0 ppg to their opponents while they are also being outrebounded by 4.4 rebounds per game. Individually, Sean Trumper leads the Ravens on the year averaging 18.9 ppg which is the fifth highest in the NE10, while he also leads the team in rebounding with an average of 7.9 rebounds per game. Following him in the scoring column is Ugo Nwachukwu who is averaging 13.0 ppg.

SERIES HISTORY VS FRANKLIN PIERCE

- New Haven and Franklin Pierce meet for the 52nd time in the history of the two programs.
- After splitting the home-and-home series last season, the Ravens hold a slight 26-25 advantage in the previous 51 meetings.
- Last year’s series split came with each team taking the victory on the others home court.

NEXT TIME OUT

The Chargers won’t be away from West Haven very long as they return to the the Jeffery P. Hazell Athletic Center for the second of three-straight Saturday’s with a home game as they welcome the Saint Rose Golden Knights to West Haven on Saturday, January 20. Tip off in the NE10 contest with the Golden Knights is scheduled for 3:30 p.m., following the women’s game, with all of the action available live on the Chargers Sports Network on NE10Now.tv

KING OF HEARTS

Freshman Jah’Likai King made his mark right out of the gates for the Blue and Gold, opening up his collegiate career with a monumental 35 point performance against Post University. In that game, he shot 14-of-21 from the field, including a pair of three pointers, and was 5-of-5 from the free throw line. Last season, just one player reached the 30 point mark and that came during the NCAA East Regional’s when Ty Perry put up 30 against Pace. For the season, King has scored 25+ on three occasions and now leads the team in scoring, averaging a 15.0 points per game.

I’LL TAKE THAT THANK YOU VERY MUCH

Fifteen games into the season, the Chargers have proven there is no need to bring in an ophthalmologist as they are seeing the ball just fine, racking up 99 steals in the first 15 games. Leading the efforts is Jah’Likai King who has grabbed 29 steals. Tyler Saint-Furcy and Davontrey Thomas follow with 16 steals apiece,while two other players also have double figure steals on the year. Overall, New Haven has scored 185 points off of their opponents turnovers.

A DISH HERE, A DISH THERE

As the Chargers continue to search for the right mix of players on the floor for 40 minutes, the continual adjustments has led to players being able to showcase how they can have the biggest impact. One of those ways has been in the assist column where junior college transfer guard Jojo Lingisi-Ombongo set the mark for the season coming off the bench at Assumption to dish out nine assists. He followed that performance up with eight at home against SNHU and is second on the team with 35 assists on the year, with freshman Jah’Likai King leading the team with 36. In the last nine games alone, Lingisi-Ombongo has dished out 26 of his 35 assists.

RHYTHYM AND REPITITION

Junior college transfer Keith Warren took a few games but now seems to have found his rhythm with the Blue and Gold, scoring in double figures in each game over a five-game stretch that moved him up the scoring column and is now fifth on the team with 7.3 ppg. His first time hitting double figures came in the NE10 opener at Bentley where he scored 15 points, while he set his career-high in the non-conference road game at Dominican with 27 points. Warren is a threat from the front court and the back court as 19 of his 38 field goals have come from outside the three point arc, third most on the team. Additionally, he has 13 assists and seven steals to his credit.

HONOR ROLL

After redshirting the 2022-23 season, sophomore Ethan Simmon began his collegiate career with back-to-back nights in double figures, setting his early career-high with 17 points in the season opener against Post. Overall, he averaged 14 points in the two games at the Golden Knights Invitational, earning NE10 Rookie of the Week honors following the first week of action.

HONOR ROLL PART DEUX

Following his second 25+ performance of the year, Jah’Likai King has picked up his first collegiate honor when he was named NE10 Rookie of the Week after leading the Chargers with 26 points in the home win over Adelphi. His team-high in the scoring column came on 9-of-17 from the field, with one from outside the arc, while he was a perfect 7-of-7 at the free throw line. In addition to his scoring, he added five rebounds, six assists and three steals.

HONOR ROLL X2

Following back-to-back double figure games, including a career-high 27 points against Georgian Court, redshirt freshman Ethan Simmon picked up his second NE10 Rookie of the Week honor just before the holiday break. In the final game before the break, Simmon led three players in double digits, shooting 9-of-13 overall, including 7-of-10 from beyond the arc as the Chargers cruised past Georgian Court. In addition, he added nine rebounds, a block and a steal.

HONOR ROLL HAT TRICK

For the second-straight week, Ethan Simmon is the top rookie in the Northeast-10, earning back-to-back NE10 Conference Rookie of the Week accolades to close out the 2023 portion of the schedule. Simmon’s third honors comes following his third-straight game in double figures and his second-straight with 20+ in the scoring column, finishing the come-from-behind road win at Staten Island with an even 20 points. For the game, Simmon finished 4-of-7 from the field, with all four buckets from outside the three-point arc, while also going a perfect 8-of-8 at the free throw line. One of his four field goals came from just inside the midcourt stripe as time expired at the end of the first half. In addition to his 20 points, he also added an assist and a pair of steals.

KING SQUARED

Following a week of averaging 22 points per game, FR Jah’Likai King secured his second NE10 Rookie of the Week honor. The honor for King is the fifth of the season for New Haven, earning the distinction in all but three of the eight weeks it has been presented. For the week, King was one of four players to average in double figures, finishing with a team-high 22 points, including his third 25+ game of the year. Overall, KING shot 56.3 percent from the field, connecting on 18-of-32 with a pair of three pointers while also going 6-of-10 at the free throw line. In addition to his scoring, he added nine rebounds, six assists and six steals combined across the two games.

HEIGHT RESTRICTION

One of the major losses for New Haven this season is that of Majur Majak, the 7-1 center that dominated in the key for the Blue and Gold. In just two short seasons with New Haven, Majak swatted 190 shots, third most in school history. Included was a school record 105 blocks last season.

CLIMB THE MOUNTAIN

In the midst of the Chargers magical run to the NCAA Division II Elite Eight, senior Davontrey Thomas set a milestone mark when he surpassed the 1,000 point plateau, becoming the 39th player in school history to reach the feat. Currently with 1,243 career points, Thomas will continue to vault up the all-time list, including moving up four positions with his 15 points against SNHU. With seven more points Thomas will hit 1,250 for his career, moving him into the top-25 all-time.

FROM DISTANCE

In addition to climbing the all-time scoring ladder, senior Davontrey Thomas also finds himself climbing the top-10 for career three-point field goals made, entering Wednesday night with 221 which moves him above former teammate Elijah Bailey for fourth all-time. He stands 73 shy of reaching the pinnacle of the list with Justin Exum (2010-14) currently at the top of the mountain with 294.

AT THE HELM

In his 13th season strolling the sidelines alongside his Chargers, head coach Ted Hotaling recorded his 200th career victory all-time and stands second among nine head coaches in the history of the New Haven men’s basketball program. He is just the second coach in program history to win 200 career games. Named the ninth head coach in program history on March 31, 2010, Hotaling led the Chargers to the NCAA Division II Elite Eight for the first time in program history in 2022-23. Overall, Hotaling’s teams have earned five bids to the NCAA Division II National Tournament.

TED HOTALING

HEAD COACH

TWELFTH SEASON

ALBANY '95

In 12 seasons at the helm of the New Haven men's basketball program, the ninth head coach in the history of UNH basketball Ted Hotaling has taken the Chargers to new heights, reaching the NCAA Division II Elite Eight for the first time in program history in 2023. The Chargers historic run through the NCAA East Region Championship included wins over Pace, Caldwell and Bentley en route to the programs first ever trip to Evansville, Ind. and the Ford Center, home to the Division II National Championship.

Overall, New Haven finished its 2022-23 campaign with a 23-11 record, with the 34 games played the most ever in a single season at New Haven. With the 23 wins this past season, Hotaling now stands just four wins shy of becoming just the second coach at UNH to coach the Blue and Gold to 200 wins, currently standing at 196-148 with the 57.0 winning percentage the third best in program history.

Also among the highlights in 2022-23 for Hotaling and the Chargers was Majur Majak who won back-to-back major conference awards as he took home NE10 Defensive Player of the Year again this past season after leading the conference with 105 blocks, the second most in all of NCAA DII. In addition, he was third in the nation with 3.09 blocks per game, while also leading the nation with 408 total rebounds and 9.74 defensive rebounds per game. Overall, Majak was one of three Chargers honored by the NE10 following the season with graduate guard Quashawn Lane on the All-Conference First Team and senior forward Ty Perry on the All-Conference Third Team. Lane also added All-Region honors from both the National Association of Basketball Coaches and the Division II Conference Commissioners Association.

Named the ninth head coach in program history on March 31, 2010, Hotaling has led the Chargers to back-to-back appearances in the Northeast-10 Conference Championship game, a trio of 10 total appearances in the conference tournament under his tutelage. In addition, Hotaling's teams have earned five bids to the NCAA Division II National Tournament, including the last two seasons.

Highlighting his 196 career victories was a 79-68 win over crosstown rival Southern Connecticut State University on February 15, 2016 which earned Hotaling his 100th career victory at the helm of the Blue and Gold, becoming the fourth coach at New Haven to reach the century mark. Three years later, to the day, Hotaling earned his 150th career victory when the Chargers posted a 72-61 home win over American International. In addition to his .570 winning percentage ranking third in program history, his record of 55-45 through his first 100 contests was the best since 1995.

Under his guidance, Hotaling has led a host of Chargers to postseason accolades and career records marks. Leading that list is Eric Anderson '15, a two-time All-American (2014, 2015), three-time Northeast-10 Defensive Player of the Year, two-time All-Region and four-time All-Conference performer. Anderson closed out his career at New Haven 14th all-time in scoring (1,551 points) while he also set a school record with 238 career blocks, passing Herb Watkins (191; 1984-88). Overall during his tenure, seven Chargers have joined the ranks of the 1,000 point club, the highest of which is Elijah Bailey who graduated eighth all-time with 1,780 career points. In 2022-23 alone, three Chargers joined the elite group with Lane doing so on New Year's Eve against Le Moyne and junior Davontrey Thomas reaching the feat in the NCAA regionals against Caldwell.

Anderson is one of 11 different players who all- totaled hauled in 17 All-Northeast-10 Conference honors under Hotaling. In addition, Hotaling's players have collected six major NE10 distinctions, and five different players have received All-Region honors during his tenure.

In 2021-22 Hotaling led the Chargers back to the NCAA Division II Championship for the fourth time in his tenure, advancing to the East Region semifinal round for the second time in as many appearances. Overall, New Haven closed out the 2021-22 season with an 18-9 overall record and a mark of 13-6 in the Northeast-10, finishing second in the Southwest Division.

Among the individual highlights was Majak's first NE10's Defensive Player of the Year honor after leading the team, the NE10 and all of NCAA Division II in blocks per game with an average of 3.1, as he closed out the season with a New Haven single season record of 85 blocks. In addition to Majak, Lane also earned a spot on the NE10 All-Conference Second Team.

In the Chargers return to the court following the CoVID-19 pandemic shutdown, Hotaling led the Chargers to their second-straight appearance in the NE10 Championship game, wrapping up the 2019-20 campaign with a 15-15 record. As the fifth seed in the Southwest Division, the Chargers were road warriors throughout the tournament, with the highlight of the championship coming in the semifinals when New Haven outlasted Stonehill in an instant three overtime thriller 101-100.

The season prior (2018-19), the Chargers finished with a 21-10 record, their third 20+ win season under Hotaling, after earning an at-large bid to their eighth NCAA Tournament appearance. New Haven's postseason run came to an end against eventual regional champion Saint Anselm, but not before tying their highest win total under Hotaling which was previously set in 2013-14.

The 2017-18 season saw Hotaling lead the Chargers New Haven to the Northeast-10 Conference Championship for a second-straight season and the sixth time in program history. The Chargers earned a bye through the first round before falling to Merrimack in the quarterfinals. Overall, New Haven finished the 2017-18 season with a 17-10 record, the sixth time in the last seven years Hotaling has led New Haven to a winning season.

The Chargers made their fifth appearance in the NE10 Championship under Hotaling in the 2016-17 campaign, closing out the year 15-14 overall. New Haven earned a first round victory over Merrimack 84-58. During the 2015-16 season, Hotaling coached the Chargers to arguably the biggest win in program history when New Haven knocked off crosstown rival Southern Connecticut State. The Blue and Gold led the Owls for all but six minutes as they defeated the No. 2 ranked team, according to the NABC Coaches Poll, 66-66.

In 2014-15, Hotaling led the Chargers to their fourth-straight winning season, closing out the year with a 15-12 overall record. Among the highlights was senior Eric Anderson who was named Northeast-10 Defensive Player of the Year for a third-straight season, the first time in NE10 history a player has earned the top defensive accolades three years in a row. Anderson was also a repeat member of the NE10 All-Conference First Team and stands as the only Charger to earn first team honors. In addition, Anderson was named a Daktronics/Division II Conference Commissioners Association Third Team All-American and signed a contract to play with the Gladiators Trier in Germany's Basketball Bundesliga ProA League following the season.

Statistically, Anderson led NCAA Division II in rebounds per game (13.1) and defensive rebounds per game (9.85). He was also among the top-10 in the nation in double doubles (8th) and total rebounds (5th).

Hotaling's 2012-13 and 2013-14 teams finished with back-to-back 20-win seasons for the first time since 2002-03 and 2003-04, while also earning back-to-back appearances in the NCAA postseason tournament. Hotaling's 21-9 record in 2013-14 stands as the most wins in a single season under his leadership, while the Chargers' 14-6 record in the NE-10 that season was the second-best since joining the conference in 2008-09. That squad led the nation in personal fouls per game (13.6), while the Chargers ranked second in Division II in fewest turnovers per game (8.9). New Haven also ranked in the top 10 nationally in scoring defense (6th) and field goal percentage defense (9th).

Individually, Hotaling mentored Anderson to NE10 Defensive Player of the Year and All-America Honorable mention recognition - the first such mention for New Haven in 24 years. Anderson finished his junior season leading the Northeast-10 Conference and second in Division II in defensive rebounds per game (8.97). He also ranked third in the nation with 20 double-doubles.

In 2012-13, Hotaling led the Chargers to a 20-9 record – their first 20-win campaign since 2003-04. New Haven reached the NCAA postseason for the first time since 2004 and earned its first win on the national stage since 2003 with a victory over Dominican in the NCAA Division II East Region Quarterfinals.

That season, Hotaling's Chargers led the NE10 and ranked 10th nationally in fewest turnovers committed per game (11.0) and slotted at 13th in the country in scoring defense with an NE10-leading 61.1 points per game allowed. New Haven also finished second in the conference and 38th in Division II in free throw percentage (74.3). Individually, Anderson earned his first NE10 Defensive Player of the Year honor, finishing second in the nation with 18 double-doubles while ranking third with 12.0 rebounds per game and ninth in blocked shots at 2.45 per game.

Hotaling led the Chargers to a 15-13 record in 2011-12 - a seven-win improvement from the previous campaign and the club's first winning season since 2004-05. New Haven also qualified for the Northeast-10 Conference Championship, winning a First Round contest at Pace before falling in a 54-51 heartbreaker at Adelphi in the Quarterfinals.

In his first season as head coach, the Chargers posted an 8-18 overall mark and a 6-16 record in the Northeast-10 Conference. Throughout the season, New Haven ranked among the top three-point shooting teams in Division II. Freshman Justin Exum concluded the season ranked 17th nationally in three-point field goals per game. He was also the highest ranked freshman in that category. As a team, UNH ranked 31st in three-point field goal percentage and 32nd in three-point field goals per game.
