WHAT’S ON TAP

The women’s basketball team looks to keep building on a successful season-opening weekend sweep at the Gold-ey-Beacom Invitational when they head to Waltham, Mass. to open up Northeast-10 Conference play taking on the Bentley Falcons. Last season, New Haven went into Waltham and won on a buzzer beater as part of a doubleheader sweep with the men’s team at the Dana Center.

SCOUTING NEW HAVEN

Sophomore Lindsay Hogan easily filled the void left by the loss of two of the top three scorers from a year ago as she averaged 26.0 points across the two-games in Delaware this past weekend, including a career-high 30 points in the season opener. Graduate student Aurora Deshaies also picked up where she left off last season, averaging a double double for the weekend with 15.5 points and 13.5 rebounds to her credit. The addition of transfers Makaela Johnson (Saint Rose) and Nay-eli Dowding (Hartford) also paid off for the Chargers with Johnson averaging 13.5 points and 9.5 rebounds, while Dowding added 8.0 points per game. In the backcourt, fifth-year head coach Debbie Buff turned to the experience on senior Gabrielle Stickle to run the offense and she didn’t disappoint as she dished out 13 assists in the first two games, including a career-high eight in the win over Goldey-Beacom. As a team, New Haven outscored its two opening opponents by an average of 44 points per game, scoring 80+ in both of the games this past weekend after hitting that scoring mark just once all of last season. All combined, the Chargers shot 51.7 percent (61-118) as a team, led by Hogan who finished the two games shooting 72 per-cent from the field (18-25).

SCOUTING BENTLEY

Picked to finish second in the NE10 according to a preseason poll of the head coaches, Bentley also enters with a pair of wins in its first two games over Daemen and Roberts Wesleyan at the Roberts Wesleyan Redhawks Classic. Through its first two games, Bentley is averaging 84 points per game and 25 points more than its two opponents. Overall, five different players are averaging in double figures including a pair of starters, Ella Thompson and Maggie Whitmore. Thompson leads all scorers with an average of 15.0 points per game, while dishing out a team-high eight assists. Whitmore follows her in the scoring column at 14.5 ppg. Kylie Ducharme is first off the bench for Bentley averaging 12.5 points per game while leading the teams rebounding efforts at 8.5 rebounds per game. She and Niya Morgan, who is just behind her at 12.0 ppg, are both shooting at a 75 percent clip (9-12). Rounding out the leading scorers is Brook Obar who in the one game she played, finished with 10 points. As a team, the Falcons are also outrebounding their oppo-nents substantially with a 40.5 -- 21.5 margin.

SERIES HISTORY VS BENTLEY

- New Haven and Bentley meet for the 40th time in the history of the two programs, which has been dominated by the Falcons.
- Bentley holds a 33-6 record in the previous 39 games, including a stretch of 23 straight victories that spanned beyond the full 90's and 00's.

GAME 3: NEW HAVEN AT BENTLEY

- In most recent memory, the Falcons have won two straight games before the Chargers scored at the buzzer to take a 51-49 decision in the lone meeting last season.

NEXT TIME OUT

For the first time this season, New Haven will make its debut at Charger Gymnasium when they welcome the Pace Setters to West Haven after taking the weekend to recuperate. New Haven and Pace will open up a double-header with the men's team on Tuesday, November 21 with opening tip in the conference battle slated for 5:30 p.m. All of the action will be available live on NE10Now.tv.

HONOR ROLL

After opening the season with an average of 26 points across the first two games of the season, Lindsay Hogan picked up the first Northeast-10 Player of the Week accolades that were dolled out on Monday by the league office.

HOGAN'S MY HERO

There will be no sophomore slump as Lindsay Hogan came out firing in 2023-24, opening up the season with a career-high 30 points in the win over Wilmington and following that up with 22 more against Goldey-Beacom to average 26 points across the opening weekend sweep. It wasn't a laboring effort for Hogan as she connected on 72 percent of her field goal attempts (18-of-25), including 82 percent from outside the arc (9-of-11), while also going a perfect 7-of-7 from the free throw line. In addition, she added seven rebounds, two assists, a block and four steals.

ASCENDING THE PEAK

Graduate forward Aurora Deshaies entered the season with a milestone mark on her radar as she approaches the 1,000 point plateau. Heading into Wednesday night at Bentley, Deshaies needs just eight points and she will become the 22nd player all-time to reach that mark. The most recent Charger to join the list was Micah Wormack who closed out her career with 1,022 points.

STICK WITH STICKLE

After spending the last two seasons as a role player off the bench, senior point guard Gabrielle Stickle had her number called to start the new season and she proved her worth early on. The Glastonbury, Conn. native dished out 13 assists in the first two games, putting up five or more in both outings, including a career-high eight in the win over Goldey-Beacom on Saturday.

QUADTASTIC

In the 47 year history of New Haven women's basketball three players have surpassed 1,000 career rebounds and this season Aurora Deshaies has the chance to become just the fourth ever to reach the feat. Entering Wednesday night at Bentley, Deshaies stands at 783 career rebounds with an average of 9.8 per game. She is also just two shy of joining the top-10 in program history with Niketa Harris currently in that spot with 785.

PROTECT THE ROCK

The most damaging thing for a team's offense is turning over the ball. Early in the 2023-24 season, the Chargers are doing a fantastic job of protecting the rock, averaging just 11 turnovers across the first two games, including a season-low of nine against Goldey-Beacom. On the flip side, the Chargers are forcing their opponents into 19 turnovers per game and taking advantage of those miscues by scoring 43 points off of those turnovers, while surrendering just 11 points off of their miscues.

TRANSFER POTENTIAL

Head Coach Debbie Buff added a pair of transfers to bolster the Chargers roster in 2023-24 with the addition on Makaela Johnson and Nayeli Dowding. Johnson comes to New Haven from fellow NE10 opponent Saint Rose after averaging 10.6 points and 4.9 rebounds last season. Dowding makes the transition from Hartford where, as a sophomore last season, she averaged 8.3 points and 2.5 rebounds per game.

ALWAYS ON TARGET

Graduate forward Aurora Deshaies has been ascending the all-time scoring ranks mostly due in part to her uncanny ability to score the rock. The Syracuse, N.Y. native enters this season shooting .570 for her career (429-752) after posting a career-high 60.3 shooting percentage last season which ranked sixth best in all of NCAA Division II. Had Deshaies not returned for her fifth year, she would've graduated as the all-time leader in field goal percentage with Amanda Freeman currently leading that category at 52.1% (351-674) from 2002-06.

LEADER THRU AND THRU

Head coach Debbie Buff recently announced the Chargers solo captain for the 2023-24 season with graduate forward Aurora Deshaies earning the distinction for the second-straight season. Last season, Deshaies shared the honor with Camryn DeBose.

BEST OF THE BEST

After a decorated career on the court at New Haven, Camryn DeBose continues to make headlines for the New Haven women's basketball team. Named the Northeast-10's Woman of the Year at the annual awards banquet last June, DeBose has been named as one of the Top-30 finalists for the NCAA Woman of the Year award which will be announced at the NCAA's annual convention in January in Arizona.

NEW FACES OF THE PROGRAM

In addition to the two transfers (Johnson & Dowding) head coach Debbie Buff welcomes four freshman and a community college transfer to the ranks. Sabira Ahayeva will join New Haven as a junior academically after transferring to West Haven from Dawson Community College. Joining her as true freshman are Eveani Okwuosa (North Haven, Conn.), Katelyn Simpson (Baldwin, N.Y.), Sytlianna Mantzouris (Albany, N.Y.) and Merit Innocent (Delta State, Nigeria).

PRESEASON POLL

In a poll of the league's 12 head coaches, the New Haven women's basketball team was selected to finish eighth after finishing the 2022-23 campaign with a 17-10 overall record and a 12-8 record in the NE10 that left them in fifth place in the league standings. 2023 NE10 champion Assumption was selected as the preseason favorite, earning eight of the 12 possible first place votes.

BOLD DENOTES 2023-24 OCCURENCE

DEBBIE BUFF

HEAD COACH
FIFTH SEASON
CORTLAND

Debbie Buff enters her fifth season at the helm of the Blue and Gold in 2023-24, coming to New Haven prior to the 2018-19 campaign following a seven-year stint at Wheeling Jesuit University (Wheeling, W.V.), which included back-to-back Mountain East Conference Championships and NCAA Division II tournament appearances.

Buff (67-47, .573) has led the Blue and Gold to an appearance in the Northeast-10 Conference tournament in each of her four seasons, which includes back-to-back 18-win campaigns in each of her first two seasons.

Last season, Buff led the Chargers to a 17-10 overall record and a first-round home game against Franklin Pierce in the NE10 Championship. Leading the way for Buff was the co-captain duo over graduate guard Camryn DeBose and senior Aurora Deshaies, both of whom earned a spot on Northeast-10 All-Conference teams. DeBose, an NE10 First Team and All-Defensive Team selection was also tabbed the NE10's Woman of the Year, the third Chargers to earn the distinction since the Blue and Gold joined the league.

After returning from the CoVID-19 shutdown, Buff led the Chargers to a 10-16 overall record led by DeBose and DeShaies who combined to averaged over 25 points per game. DeBose also capped off the season as one of three Chargers who were named to the NE10 Academic All-Conference Teams following the winter seasons.

During her second season in 2019-20, Buff led the Chargers to an 18-9 record. New Haven finished the season ninth in the nation in Division II in scoring defense, holding opponents to just 53.7 points per game. NE10 All-Rookie selection Aurora Deshaies led the conference in field goal pct. (.565), senior Micah Wormack earned Second Team All-NE10 honors, and DeBose was named to the Northeast-10 All-Academic Team.

In her first campaign with the Chargers in 2018-19, Buff led New Haven to an 18-12 record, an improvement of six wins over the season prior to her arrival. The season culminated with a trip to the NE10 semifinals for the first time since 2016 following a road victory over Stonehill in the NE10 quarterfinals. Buff also helped mentor Alexandria Kerr, a First Team All-NE10 honoree and three-time CoSIDA First Team Academic All-District selection.

Prior to New Haven, Buff took over the Wheeling Jesuit program in 2011 and in five years led her first full recruiting class to the first of back-to-back Mountain East Conference Championships in 2015-16. The Cardinals finished that season with a 27-6 overall record, which tied the school record for most victories in a single season.

The Cardinals followed that up with a second-straight 25-win season, Mountain East Championship and subsequent trip to the NCAA Division II regional championship. Over her seven years in West Virginia, Buff collected a 111-93 overall record for a .544 winning percentage. Over her seven years, the Cardinals finished with a plus-.500 record on four occasions.

Prior to Wheeling Jesuit, Buff spent two seasons at Endicott College where she led the Gulls to the most wins in school history with a 23-6 record in 2008-09 and an appearance in the championship game of the Commonwealth Coast Conference. In her two seasons at Endicott, she compiled an overall record of 42-14.

Her first stint as a head coach came at the Rochester Institute of Technology where her five-plus year career was highlighted by Empire 8 Coach of the Year accolades in 2006-07 when she led the Tigers to the most victories in the history of the RIT women's basketball program and the program's first ever appearance in the Empire 8 and ECAC Championships.

Prior to her collegiate head coaching career, Buff served as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at fellow Northeast-10 opponent College of Saint Rose where she helped lead the Golden Knights to the 2000 NCAA Division II Northeast Region Championship, a 34-1 record and a national ranking as high as No. 1 in the country.

Previous to joining a college program, Buff spent 14 years as the head coach at Bishop Maginn High School in Albany. In her time there, she recorded 203 wins and 57 losses while capturing five Big 10 Conference Championships, a Section II title, a regional title and a New York State Class A title. A Hall of Famer at Bishop Maginn, Buff was named the New York State Coach of the Year following the team's 1996 state title run.

A graduate from the State University of New York College at Cortland with a Bachelor of Science degree in physical education, she also holds a Master's Degree in health education from Russell Sage College. During her time at Cortland, she competed three years for the women's basketball team before turning her attention to training for the Skylon International Marathon in New York. In addition to Skylon, Buff has competed in seven triathlons, most notably the Lake Placid Olympic Tour triathlon.

Outside of her coaching and triathlon experiences, Buff has donated countless hours of volunteer time with the Alzheimer's Association and the Make A Wish foundation, both causes near and dear to her heart.
