WHAT’S ON TAP

Searching for their first win in North-east-10 Conference play, the Chargers continue a four-game homestand on Tuesday night when they welcome Adelphi to the Hazell Athletic Center for the final NE10 game in the 2023 portion of the schedule. A win for either team would snap a four-game skid, however the Panthers lone win on the year came against an NE10 opponent, a home win over AIC (63-58).

SCOUTING NEW HAVEN

Sophomore Lindsay Hogan has filled the void left by the loss of two of the top three scorers from a year ago as she is averaging 16.7 points across the first six games of the year, including a career-high 30 points in the season opener against Wilmington. Graduate student Aurora Deshaies has also picked up where she left off last season, averaging 10.7 points per game and just shy of a double double with 9.7 rebounds to her credit. The addition of transfers Makaela Johnson (Saint Rose) and Nayeli Dowding (Hartford) has also paid off for the Chargers with Johnson averaging 6.7 points and 5.0 rebounds, while Dowding is adding 6.8 points per game. In the back-court, fifth-year head coach Debbie Buff turned to the experience of senior Gabrielle Stickle to run the offense and she hasn’t disappointed as she has dished out 22 assists, 10th most in the NE10, including a career-high eight in the win over Goldey-Beacom, while scoring a season-high 11 last time out against Pace. Despite losses in its last four games, New Haven is outscoring opponents by an average of 6.7 points per game, scoring 80+ in the first two games of the season, after hitting that scoring mark just once all of last season. All combined, the Chargers are shooting 40.7 percent (140-344) as a team, led by Hogan who is shooting 53 percent from the field (37-70).

SCOUTING ADELPHI

The Panthers enter Tuesday night looking to snap a four-game skid, the last three against NE10 opponents, including a home loss to Bentley, 42-59, this past weekend. For the season, Adelphi is being outscored by its opponents at a clip of 6.4 points per game, mustung just 57.4 points as a team. Individually, two players average in double figures, led by Jenna Jordan with a 12.4 ppg average. Jordan also leads the team in rebounding at 7.9 per game. Following her in the scoring column is Rolanda Robinson at 11.6 ppg. Kaitlyn O’Connell marshals the Panthers offense, racking up 29 assists on the year, third most in the NE10.

SERIES HISTORY VS ADELPHI

- New Haven and Adelphi meet for the 50th time in the history of the two programs.
- New Haven holds a 27-22 record in the previous 49 games, including a sweep of the home-and-home series last season.
- The win in the first game last year broke a six-game win streak for the Panthers.
- The highlight in the series for New Haven came in the form of an 11-game win straight which spanned February 2005 through February 2010.

GAME 7: NEW HAVEN VS ADELPHI

NEXT TIME OUT

The penultimate game before the end of the 2023 calendar year continues a four-game homestand when the Chargers welcome the Georgian Court Lions to the Hazell Athletic Center on Sunday, December 10 at 1:00 p.m. All of the action in the non-conference game can be seen live on the Chargers Sports Network on NE10Now.tv

HONOR ROLL

After opening the season with an average of 26 points across the two games of the Goldey-Beacom Season Tip-Off Tournament, Lindsay Hogan picked up the first Northeast-10 Player of the Week accolades that were doled out by the league office.

HOGAN'S MY HERO

There will be no sophomore slump as Lindsay Hogan came out firing in 2023-24, opening up the season with a career-high 30 points in the win over Wilmington and following that up with 22 more against Goldey-Beacom to average 26 points across the opening week-end sweep. It wasn't a laboring effort for Hogan as she connected on 72 percent of her field goal attempts (18-of-25), including 82 percent from outside the arc (9-of-11), while also going a perfect 7-of-7 from the free throw line. In addition, she added seven rebounds, two assists, a block and four steals.

ASCENDING THE PEAK

Graduate forward Aurora Deshaies entered the season with a milestone mark on her radar and she hit a bullseye becoming the 22nd player all-time to break the 1,000 point plateau, doing so in the first half of the NE10 opener at Bentley. Deshaies will continue to climb the ranks as with just 99 more points she will break into the top-20 all-time. Deshaies became the most recent Charger to join the list since Micah Wormack who closed out her career with 1,022 points.

STICK WITH STICKLE

After spending the last two seasons as a role player off the bench, senior point guard Gabrielle Stickle had her number called to start the new season and she proved her worth early on. The Glastonbury, Conn. native has dished out 22 assists on the season, putting up five or more in the first two games of the year, including a career-high eight in the win over Goldey-Beacom on Saturday.

QUADTASTIC

In the 47-year history of New Haven women's basketball three players have surpassed 1,000 career rebounds and this season Aurora Deshaies has the chance to become just the fourth ever to reach the feat. Entering Tuesday night against Adelphi, Deshaies stands at 819 career rebounds with an average of 9.8 per game. She also just recently joined the top-10 in program history and with six more will take over sixth place all-time from Tristan Jackson who pulled down 824 boards from 2003-07.

PROTECT THE ROCK

The most damaging thing for a team's offense is turning over the ball. Early in the 2023-24 season, the Chargers are doing a fantastic job of protecting the rock, averaging just 14.5 turnovers across the first six games, including a season-low of nine against Goldey-Beacom. On the flip side, the Chargers are forcing their opponents into 14.3 turnovers per game and taking advantage of those miscues by scoring 75 points off of those turnovers, while surrendering just 78 points off of their miscues.

TRANSFER POTENTIAL

Head Coach Debbie Buff added a pair of transfers to bolster the Chargers roster in 2023-24 with the addition on Makaela Johnson and Nayeli Dowding. Johnson comes to New Haven from fellow NE10 opponent Saint Rose after averaging 10.6 points and 4.9 rebounds last season. Dowding makes the transition from Hartford where, as a sophomore last season, she averaged 8.3 points and 2.5 rebounds per game.

ALWAYS ON TARGET

Graduate forward Aurora Deshaies has been ascending the all-time scoring ranks mostly due in part to her uncanny ability to score the rock. The Syracuse, N.Y. native enters this season shooting .570 for her career (429-752) after posting a career-high 60.3 shooting percentage last season which ranked sixth best in all of NCAA Division II. Had Deshaies not returned for her fifth year, she would've graduated as the all-time leader in field goal percentage with Amanda Freeman currently leading that category at 52.1% (351-674) from 2002-06.

LEADER THRU AND THRU

Head coach Debbie Buff recently announced the Chargers solo captain for the 2023-24 season with graduate forward Aurora Deshaies earning the distinction for the second-straight season. Last season, Deshaies shared the honor with Camryn DeBose.

BEST OF THE BEST

After a decorated career on the court at New Haven, Camryn DeBose continues to make headlines for the New Haven women’s basketball team. Named the Northeast-10’s Woman of the Year at the annual awards banquet last June, DeBose has been named as one of the Top-30 finalists for the NCAA Woman of the Year award which will be announced at the NCAA’s annual convention in January in Arizona.

NEW FACES OF THE PROGRAM

In addition to the two transfers (Johnson & Dowding) head coach Debbie Buff welcomes four freshman and a community college transfer to the ranks. Sabira Ahayeva will join New Haven as a junior academically after transferring to West Haven from Dawson Community College. Joining her as true freshman are Eveani Okwuosa (North Haven, Conn.), Katelyn Simpson (Baldwin, N.Y.), Sytlianna Mantzouris (Albany, N.Y.) and Merit Innocent (Delta State, Nigeria).

PRESEASON POLL

In a poll of the league’s 12 head coaches, the New Haven women’s basketball team was selected to finish eighth after finishing the 2022-23 campaign with a 17-10 overall record and a 12-8 record in the NE10 that left them in fifth place in the league standings. 2023 NE10 champion Assumption was selected as the preseason favorite, earning eight of the 12 possible first place votes.

BOLD DENOTES 2023-24 OCCURENCE

DEBBIE BUFF

HEAD COACH
FIFTH SEASON
CORTLAND

Debbie Buff enters her fifth season at the helm of the Blue and Gold in 2023-24, coming to New Haven prior to the 2018-19 campaign following a seven-year stint at Wheeling Jesuit University (Wheeling, W.V.), which included back-to-back Mountain East Conference Championships and NCAA Division II tournament appearances.

Buff (67-47, .573) has led the Blue and Gold to an appearance in the Northeast-10 Conference tournament in each of her four seasons, which includes back-to-back 18-win campaigns in each of her first two seasons.

Last season, Buff led the Chargers to a 17-10 overall record and a first-round home game against Franklin Pierce in the NE10 Championship. Leading the way for Buff was the co-captain duo over graduate guard Camryn DeBose and senior Aurora Deshaies, both of whom earned a spot on Northeast-10 All-Conference teams. DeBose, an NE10 First Team and All-Defensive Team selection was also tabbed the NE10's Woman of the Year, the third Chargers to earn the distinction since the Blue and Gold joined the league.

After returning from the CoVID-19 shutdown, Buff led the Chargers to a 10-16 overall record led by DeBose and DeShaies who combined to averaged over 25 points per game. DeBose also capped off the season as one of three Chargers who were named to the NE10 Academic All-Conference Teams following the winter seasons.

During her second season in 2019-20, Buff led the Chargers to an 18-9 record. New Haven finished the season ninth in the nation in Division II in scoring defense, holding opponents to just 53.7 points per game. NE10 All-Rookie selection Aurora Deshaies led the conference in field goal pct. (.565), senior Micah Wormack earned Second Team All-NE10 honors, and DeBose was named to the Northeast-10 All-Academic Team.

In her first campaign with the Chargers in 2018-19, Buff led New Haven to an 18-12 record, an improvement of six wins over the season prior to her arrival. The season culminated with a trip to the NE10 semifinals for the first time since 2016 following a road victory over Stonehill in the NE10 quarterfinals. Buff also helped mentor Alexandria Kerr, a First Team All-NE10 honoree and three-time CoSIDA First Team Academic All-District selection.

Prior to New Haven, Buff took over the Wheeling Jesuit program in 2011 and in five years led her first full recruiting class to the first of back-to-back Mountain East Conference Championships in 2015-16. The Cardinals finished that season with a 27-6 overall record, which tied the school record for most victories in a single season.

The Cardinals followed that up with a second-straight 25-win season, Mountain East Championship and subsequent trip to the NCAA Division II regional championship. Over her seven years in West Virginia, Buff collected a 111-93 overall record for a .544 winning percentage. Over her seven years, the Cardinals finished with a plus-.500 record on four occasions.

Prior to Wheeling Jesuit, Buff spent two seasons at Endicott College where she led the Gulls to the most wins in school history with a 23-6 record in 2008-09 and an appearance in the championship game of the Commonwealth Coast Conference. In her two seasons at Endicott, she compiled an overall record of 42-14.

Her first stint as a head coach came at the Rochester Institute of Technology where her five-plus year career was highlighted by Empire 8 Coach of the Year accolades in 2006-07 when she led the Tigers to the most victories in the history of the RIT women's basketball program and the program's first ever appearance in the Empire 8 and ECAC Championships.

Prior to her collegiate head coaching career, Buff served as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at fellow Northeast-10 opponent College of Saint Rose where she helped lead the Golden Knights to the 2000 NCAA Division II Northeast Region Championship, a 34-1 record and a national ranking as high as No. 1 in the country.

Previous to joining a college program, Buff spent 14 years as the head coach at Bishop Maginn High School in Albany. In her time there, she recorded 203 wins and 57 losses while capturing five Big 10 Conference Championships, a Section II title, a regional title and a New York State Class A title. A Hall of Famer at Bishop Maginn, Buff was named the New York State Coach of the Year following the team's 1996 state title run.

A graduate from the State University of New York College at Cortland with a Bachelor of Science degree in physical education, she also holds a Master's Degree in health education from Russell Sage College. During her time at Cortland, she competed three years for the women's basketball team before turning her attention to training for the Skylon International Marathon in New York. In addition to Skylon, Buff has competed in seven triathlons, most notably the Lake Placid Olympic Tour triathlon.

Outside of her coaching and triathlon experiences, Buff has donated countless hours of volunteer time with the Alzheimer's Association and the Make A Wish foundation, both causes near and dear to her heart.
