WHAT'S ON TAP

It's rivalry time again!!! It might be one day later than planned because of some snow, but the New Haven women's basketball looks for a little revenge as they head across town to take on the Southern Connecticut State University Owls on Wednesday evening. New Haven looks to build off of the momentum of a 29 point win over Saint Michael's, while individually graduate post player Aurora Deshaies is quickly approaching another milestone as she stands just 14 rebounds shy of becoming just the fourth player in program history to pull down at least 1,000 rebounds.

SCOUTING NEW HAVEN

A conference leading, and top-20 in the nation, 10 double doubles from graduate post player Aurora Deshaies and she is one of the key leaders for the Chargers, averaging 12.0 points and an NE10 leading 10.7 rebounds. Also on a hot streak is junior guard Charlotte Bassett who has scored in double figures in 11 of the last 16 games, including career-highs of 22 points against Georgian Court and 24 against Saint Michael's while adding her first double double (15 points, 10 rebounds) against Franklin Pierce and another against Saint Michael's. Her recent success has also moved her up the scoring column, currently second on the team with an average of 10.2 ppg. Rounding out the trio of top scorers is sophomore Lindsay Hogan who has helped fill the void left by the loss of two of the top three scorers from a year ago as she is averaging 10.0 points per game. The Chargers have relied on the experience of senior Gabrielle

Stickle to run the offense and she has not disappointed, dishing out 67 assists and is 7th in the NE10 with 3.2 per game. Included for Stickle is a pair of games with a career-high eight assists versus Goldey-Beacom and Georgian Court. As a team, New Haven is averaging 57.4 points per game, scoring 80+ in the first two games of the season, after hitting that scoring mark just once all of last season. All combined, the Chargers are shooting 39.3 percent (463-1,179) as a team, led by Aurora Deshaies who is shooting 49.5 percent from the field (109-220).

SCOUTING SOUTHERN CONNECTICUT

With its 10-7 overall record and five games left in the regular season, the Southern Connecticut Owls are pretty much locked into the middle of the NE10 standings which would have them hosting a first round game in the upcoming Northeast-10 Conference Championship. The Owls are riding back-to-back wins into Wednesday evening with a home victory against Pace and a road win over Saint Anselm. For the season, the Owls are averaging 58.2 points per game and outscoring their opponents by just over a point as they surrender 57.0 ppg. Individually, the Owls are led by Katie Williamson who leads the team in scoring and rebounding with her averages of 10.9 points- and 7.1 rebounds-per-game. Following her in the scoring column is Mackenzie Helms who stands at 9.9 ppg while she is second on the team with 69 assists.

SERIES HISTORY VS SCSU

- New Haven and Southern Connecticut meet for the 81st time

GAME 22: NEW HAVEN VS SOUTHERN CONNECTICUT

- in the history of the two programs, with SCSU the opponent New Haven has faced the most in its history.
- New Haven holds a 48-32 record in the previous 80 games, including a stretch of 13 straight victories that spanned the middle to late 80's.
 - In most recent memory, the Chargers have won six of the last eight meetings, including sweeping the home-and-home series in the 2018-19 and 2019-20 campaigns.
 - Last season, New Haven took the only game between the two teams.

NEXT TIME OUT

Looking to send off the seniors in style, New Haven will return back to the friendly confines of the Jeffery P. Hazell Athletic Center the next time they take the court when the American International Yellow Jackets visit West Haven on Saturday, February 17. Prior to the game, New Haven will honor five graduating seniors - Aurora Deshaies, Makaela Johnson, Mary Bacaliu, Gabby Stickle and Becca Townes. All of the action from the conference battle will be available live on NE10Now.tv

BASSETT IS A HOUND

Junior guard Charlotte Bassett has been sniffing out points as of late, scoring her first ever game in double figures against Southern New Hampshire and her first ever 20+ performance with a career-high 22 in the home win over Georgian Court. She then added her first ever double double against Franklin Pierce and since then has surpassed both of her career highs in scoring and rebounding when she finished with another double double against Saint Michael's (24 points, 11 rebounds). Over the last 14 games, which includes those two games, Bassett is averaging 12.8 points per game and shooting 49.1 percent on 79-of-161.

DEFENSE WINS TITLES

It has been said many times across the women's basketball landscape, offense doesn't win championships, defense does. New Haven knows that to be the case and are among the best in the nation defensively limiting opponents to just 56.3 points per game in the 21 games this season. That average is fifth lowest in the NE10 while it is 19th lowest in all of NCAA Division II.

SHADY'S BACK, BACK AGAIN

Following preseason injuries for both, New Haven welcomed back a pair of seasoned veterans in the home game against Saint Michael's with the return of graduate transfer guard Becca Townes and senior guard Mari-gona Bacaliu. Townes appearance against the Golden Knights was her first in a Blue and Gold uniform, while Bacaliu returns for the first time since January 18, 2023.

HONOR ROLL

After opening the season with an average of 26 points across the two games of the Goldey-Beacom Season Tip-Off Tournament, Lindsay Hogan picked up the first North-east-10 Player of the Week accolades that were doled out by the league office.

HONOR ROLL PART DEUX

Following up her first collegiate double figure scoring game, North Haven, Conn. native Eveani Okwuosa nabbed her first collegiate award when she garnered NE10 Rookie of the week. Okwuosa, who earned a spot in the starting lineup to start the month of December, closed out the first double digit performance of her career with 10 points as the Chargers scored their second-straight victory, handing UDC its third-straight loss after starting the season 11-0. The freshman guard finished the game shooting 4-of-5 from the field, with a three pointer, and 1-of-2 at the line. In addition to her scoring, she added a pair of steals, a pair of blocks and pulled down a trio of rebounds.

HOGAN'S MY HERO

There will be no sophomore slump as Lindsay Hogan came out firing in 2023-24, opening up the season with a career-high 30 points in the win over Wilmington and following that up with 22 more against Goldey-Beacom to average 26 points across the opening week-end sweep. It wasn't a laboring effort for Hogan as she connected on 72 percent of her field goal attempts (18-of-25), including 82 percent from outside the arc (9-of-11), while also going a perfect 7-of-7 from the free throw line. In addition, she added seven rebounds, two assists, a block and four steals.

CLEAN UP THE GLASS

With the inside height of Aurora Deshaies leading the way (10.7 rpg) New Haven is among the best in rebounding, currently second in the NE10 and 35th in the nation in rebounding margin with an average of 5.8. Individually, Deshaies currently leads the NE10 and is 15th in the nation in rebounds per game with her 10.7 average. Much of the success has come on the offensive glass where the Chargers are averaging 12.6 per game while Deshaies leads the team and all of NCAA D2 at 4.9 offensive rebounds per game. As a team, New Haven has turned their 264 offensive rebounds into 220 second chance points.

ASCENDING THE PEAK

Graduate forward Aurora Deshaies entered the season with a milestone mark on her radar and she hit a bullseye becoming the 22nd player all-time to break the 1,000 point plateau, doing so in the first half of the NE10 opener at Bentley. Deshaies will continue to climb the ranks as with her seven points against Saint Michael's she stands 17th all-time. She now needs 31 points to move up another spot. Deshaies became the most recent Charger to join the list since Micah Wormack who closed out her career with 1,022 points.

STICK WITH STICKLE

After spending the last two seasons as a role player off the bench, senior point guard Gabrielle Stickle had her number called to start the new season and she proved her worth early on. The Glastonbury, Conn. native has dished out 67 assists on the season, putting up five or more in four games, including a career-high eight in the win over Goldey-Beacom. She then matched that career-high of eight just before the holiday break against Georgian Court. Her 3.2 assist per game average is currently 7th best in the Northeast-10.

DOUBLE TROUBLE

Currently leading the Northeast-10 in double doubles with 10, graduate post player Aurora Deshaies leads the NE10 with 10.7 rebounds per game, one of two players in the league to average a double double. Prior to the Chargers win at Saint Michael's, Deshaies was riding a streak of three-straight games with a double double, while seven of her 10 have come in NE10 play. The 10 double doubles for Deshaies is also 16th most in the nation.

QUADTASTIC

In the 47-year history of New Haven women's basketball three players have surpassed 1,000 career rebounds and this season Aurora Deshaies has the chance to become just the fourth ever to reach the feat. Entering Wednesday night at Southern Connecticut, Deshaies stands at 986 career rebounds with an average of 10.0 per game. She also just recently joined the top-5 in program history, moving into fourth all-time with her eight rebounds against Assumption on January 30.

TRANSFER POTENTIAL

Head Coach Debbie Buff added a pair of transfers to bolster the Chargers roster in 2023-24 with the addition on Makaela Johnson and Nayeli Dowding. Johnson comes to New Haven from fellow NE10 opponent Saint Rose after averaging 10.6 points and 4.9 rebounds last season. Dowding makes the transition from Hartford where, as a sophomore last season, she averaged 8.3 points and 2.5 rebounds per game.

GAME 22: NEW HAVEN VS SOUTHERN CONNECTICUT

ALWAYS ON TARGET

Graduate forward Aurora Deshaies has been ascending the all-time scoring ranks mostly due in part to her uncanny ability to score the rock. The Syracuse, N.Y. native enters this season shooting .570 for her career (429-752) after posting a career-high 60.3 shooting percentage last season which ranked sixth best in all of NCAA Division II. Had Deshaies not returned for her fifth year, she would've graduated as the all-time leader in field goal percentage with Amanda Freeman currently leading that category at 52.1% (351-674) from 2002-06.

LEADER THRU AND THRU

Head coach Debbie Buff recently announced the Chargers solo captain for the 2023-24 season with graduate forward Aurora Deshaies earning the distinction for the second-straight season. Last season, Deshaies shared the honor with Camryn DeBose.

BEST OF THE BEST

After a decorated career on the court at

New Haven, Camryn DeBose continues to make headlines for the New Haven women's basketball team. Named the Northeast-10's Woman of the Year at the annual awards banquet last June, DeBose has been named as one of the Top-30 finalists for the NCAA Woman of the Year award which will be announced at the NCAA's annual convention in January in Arizona.

NEW FACES OF THE PROGRAM

In addition to the two transfers (Johnson & Dowding) head coach Debbie Buff welcomes four freshman and a community college transfer to the ranks. Sabira Ahayeva will join New Haven as a junior academically after transferring to West Haven from Dawson Community College. Joining her as true freshman are Eveani Okwuosa (North Haven, Conn.), Katelyn Simpson (Baldwin, N.Y.), Sytlianna Mantzouris (Albany, N.Y.) and Merit Innocent (Delta State, Nigeria).

BOLD DENOTES 2023-24 OCCURENCE

DEBBIE BUFF

HEAD COACH
FIFTH SEASON
CORTLAND

Debbie Buff enters her fifth season at the helm of the Blue and Gold in 2023-24, coming to New Haven prior to the 2018-19 campaign following a seven-year stint at Wheeling Jesuit University (Wheeling, W.V.), which included back-to-back Mountain East Conference Championships and NCAA Division II tournament appearances.

Buff (67-47, .573) has led the Blue and Gold to an appearance in the Northeast-10 Conference tournament in each of her four seasons, which includes back-to-back 18-win campaigns in each of her first two seasons.

Last season, Buff led the Chargers to a 17-10 overall record and a first-round home game against Franklin Pierce in the NE10 Championship. Leading the way for Buff was the co-captain duo over graduate guard Camryn DeBose and senior Aurora Deshaies, both of whom earned a spot on Northeast-10 All-Conference teams. DeBose, an NE10 First Team and All-Defensive Team selection was also tabbed the NE10's Woman of the Year, the third Chargers to earn the distinction since the Blue and Gold joined the league.

After returning from the CoVID-19 shutdown, Buff led the Chargers to a 10-16 overall record led by DeBose and DeShaies who combined to averaged over 25 points per game. DeBose also capped off the season as one of three Chargers who were named to the NE10 Academic All-Conference Teams following the winter seasons.

During her second season in 2019-20, Buff led the Chargers to an 18-9 record. New Haven finished the season ninth in the nation in Division II in scoring defense, holding opponents to just 53.7 points per game. NE10 All-Rookie selection Aurora Deshaies led the conference in field goal pct. (.565), senior Micah Wormack earned Second Team All-NE10 honors, and DeBose was named to the Northeast-10 All-Academic Team.

In her first campaign with the Chargers in 2018-19, Buff led New Haven to an 18-12 record, an improvement of six wins over the season prior to her arrival. The season culminated with a trip to the NE10 semifinals for the first time since 2016 following a road victory over Stonehill in the NE10 quarterfinals. Buff also helped mentor Alexandria Kerr, a First Team All-NE10 honoree and three-time CoSIDA First Team Academic All-District selection.

Prior to New Haven, Buff took over the Wheeling Jesuit program in 2011 and in five years led her first full recruiting class to the first of back-to-back Mountain East Conference Championships in 2015-16. The Cardinals finished that season with a 27-6 overall record, which tied the school record for most victories in a single season.

The Cardinals followed that up with a second-straight 25-win season, Mountain East Championship and subsequent trip to the NCAA Division II regional championship. Over her seven years in West Virginia, Buff collected a 111-93 overall record for a .544 winning percentage. Over her seven years, the Cardinals finished with a plus-.500 record on four occasions.

Prior to Wheeling Jesuit, Buff spent two seasons at Endicott College where she led the Gulls to the most wins in school history with a 23-6 record in 2008-09 and an appearance in the championship game of the Commonwealth Coast Conference. In her two seasons at Endicott, she compiled an overall record of 42-14.

Her first stint as a head coach came at the Rochester Institute of Technology where her five-plus year career was highlighted by Empire 8 Coach of the Year accolades in 2006-07 when she led the Tigers to the most victories in the history of the RIT women's basketball program and the program's first ever appearance in the Empire 8 and ECAC Championships.

Prior to her collegiate head coaching career, Buff served as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at fellow Northeast-10 opponent College of Saint Rose where she helped lead the Golden Knights to the 2000 NCAA Division II Northeast Region Championship, a 34-1 record and a national ranking as high as No. 1 in the country.

Previous to joining a college program, Buff spent 14 years as the head coach at Bishop Maginn High School in Albany. In her time there, she recorded 203 wins and 57 losses while capturing five Big 10 Conference Championships, a Section II title, a regional title and a New York State Class A title. A Hall of Famer at Bishop Maginn, Buff was named the New York State Coach of the Year following the team's 1996 state title run.

A graduate from the State University of New York College at Cortland with a Bachelor of Science degree in physical education, she also holds a Master's Degree in health education from Russell Sage College. During her time at Cortland, she competed three years for the women's basketball team before turning her attention to training for the Skylon International Marathon in New York. In addition to Skylon, Buff has competed in seven triathlons, most notably the Lake Placid Olympic Tour triathlon.

Outside of her coaching and triathlon experiences, Buff has donated countless hours of volunteer time with the Alzheimer's Association and the Make A Wish foundation, both causes near and dear to her heart.
