THE FIRST LOOK

Despite securing the 2021 Northeast-10 Championship last weekend against Bentley, there is still a lot on the table in the Week 11 rematch against Franklin Pierce. With the Chargers fourth in this week's regional rankings, a win over Franklin Pierce would likely cement the Blue and Gold at least one home game in the upcoming NCAA Division II Championship which begins on Saturday, November 20.

INSIDE THE SERIES

- New Haven and Franklin Pierce meet for just the second time in the history of the two programs.
- New Haven holds a 1-0 lead, winning the initial meeting in 2019 by a 63-0 margin, the first shutout for the New Haven defense since the 2016 campaign.
- That first meeting also took place at DelaCamera Stadium as the Chargers have never met Franklin Pierce on the Ravens home turf. That won't happen until the regular season finale on November 13.

A WIN OVER FRANKLIN PIERCE WOULD...

- keep New Haven undefeated all-time against the Ravens, with the Chargers 2-0 in the series that dates back to 2019.
- keep New Haven as the only undefeated team in NE10 action
- complete the third undefeated conference season for New Haven since joining the NE10 in 2009.
- be the 264th overall victory in the 42-plus year history of Charger Football.
- be the 233rd victory since the Chargers began playing at the Division II level - first DII season was 1982.

GAME DAY FORECAST

Saturday's forecast in Rindge, N.H. has begun to clear up a bit, with an early chance for rain now moved to an increased chance but after dark. The gametime temperature is forecasted to be 56 degrees under cloudy skies with peaks of sunshine. The low of the day will be 28 degrees, which will come in the early morning hours. Winds will come out of the south at six miles per hour with gusts as high as nine mph. Sunrise on Saturday is at 6:37 a.m. and the sun will set at 4:27 p.m.

BY THE NUMBERS

1 Undefeated team in NE10 play after New Haven defeated No. 9 Bentley last weekend in West Haven.

3 If New Haven earns their ninth victory this afternoon, they will have completed their 3rd undefeated season in NE10 play, having done so in 2011 and 2012.

8 Years since New Haven last won a Northeast-10 Conference Championship with the most recent in 2012.

8 With their 15 total interceptions, New Haven is currently eighth in the country in passes intercepted 19 the current rank of the Chargers in the AFCA Coaches Poll heading into Week 11. The ranking for the Blue and Gold is the first since ending the 2018 season among the top-25 in the nation.

43 Years of football at the University of New Haven. The inaugural season was in 1973.

260 loss yards accumulated by the Chargers in 63 tackles for loss, including 24 sacks for a total of 149 yards. The 24 sacks is second most in the NE10.

SCOUTING THE CHARGERS

Despite coming off the high of securing the first NE10 Championship since 2012, the Chargers need to come out like a championship team and not take any downs off. In last week's win over the Falcons, it was the Chargers defense and the offensive line that deserves much of the credit. Defensively, the Chargers held the Falcons to a measly 215 yards of total offense, while rattling off 394 yards of their own, including a season-high 286 rushing yards. The season-high on the ground should mostly be credited to the offensive line that opened up holes the titanic could've fit through. Leading the way defensively was senior Khalim Cisse who finished with a team-high seven tackles, including 2.5 sacks, which led to him being named NE10 Defensive Player of the Week. Offensively, the Chargers were led by senior Zach Mauro who racked up a career-high 175 rushing yards, while quarterback Connor Degenhardt benefited the most from that yardage with three rushing touchdowns, while also passing for one. Defensively, the Chargers also picked off a pair of Bentley passes, giving them 15 interceptions for the season, which stands among the top-10 in the nation for total INT's.

SCOUTING THE RAVENS

Still winless on the season, Franklin Pierce averages just over 18 points per game, while surrendering nearly double that to their opponents. Despite that, the Ravens are not a team to overlook, having taken a pair of NE10 teams to overtime; Assumption and Pace. The majority of the Pierce offense comes from its running game where they are averaging 193.9 yards per game, with more than half of those yards coming from junior running back EJ Burgess who has racked up 1,154 net yards, which leads the Northeast-10. Burgess has also accounted for most of the Ravens touchdowns, with nine on the ground, while also catching one among his 23 receptions, which is second most on the team. In its passing game, the Ravens have relied on three different quarterbacks throughout the season, with sophomore Drew Campanale taking the majority of the snaps and passing for 682 total yards.

NEXT ON TAP

The Chargers will now await a potential postseason bid for the 2021 NCAA Division II Championship, with seven teams earning the honor from Super Region 1. The NCAA Selection show will take place on Sunday, November 14 at 5:00 p.m. and can be seen live on NCAA.com. Following the selection show, check NewHavenChargers.com for more information on the Blue and Gold's next opponent.

TRIPLE THREAT

For the a now third straight week, and the fifth time this season, a Charger took home an NE10 weekly honor with senior Khalim Cisse earning Defensive Player of the Week accolades as announced by the conference office. The distinction comes after leading the Chargers defense with seven tackles, including 2.5 sacks in a 31-14 win over Bentley to secure the 2021 NE10 title, the first for New Haven since the 2012 campaign.

HONOR ROLL

For the second straight week and the fourth time this season, a Charger took home an NE10 weekly honor with graduate running back Zach Mauro earning Offensive Player of the Week distinction. Mauro led the Chargers on a rainy Saturday at DellaCamera Stadium, racking up 133 rushing yards on 25 carries, including a seven yard touchdown haul that put the Chargers ahead 14-3 early in the third quarter. His longest run of the day went for 15 yards while his offensive line assisted in providing an extra yard or two on a number of occasions. He also played a key role late in the game with the Chargers running the clock down, including securing a couple of late downs to extend the drive for New Haven.

NATIONALLY NOTICED

Following its win over Bentley, the Chargers jumped five spots in the most recent AFCA Coaches Poll released on Monday. New Haven stands at No. 19 in the week 10 poll. Overall, the Chargers were one of two ranked teams to upset a higher ranked opponent last weekend. The first appearance for New Haven in week nine was the first time since the final poll following the 2018 season that the New Haven football team was nationally ranked. In addition to the AFCA poll, the Chargers also made their first appearance of the season in the D2 media poll which was released on Tuesday, entering the top-25 in that poll at No. 23.

GETTING THE JUMP ON YOU

Freshman Giye Jenkins was quick out of the chute at Stonehill, blocking a pair of Skyhawk punts that each resulted in seven points for the Chargers. His first blocked punt came mid-way through the first quarter with the punt taking place at the Stonehill 21 yard line. That first block was recovered by Kasi Hazzard at the 10 yard line and run back for the touchdown. On the Skyhawks opening drive of the second half, Jenkins struck again as he penetrated off the right side, this time with Marty Lee-Mitchell corralling the block at the Stonehill five yard line setting up the short field for his offense. Jenkins also added an interception and four tackles on the day, all leading to him earning NE10 Rookie of the Week honors as announced by the conference office.

STICKY FINGERS

New Haven's defense has been impressive all season long and ranks among some of the best in the NCAA coming into this weekend's match-up with Franklin Pierce. The biggest of those numbers comes in the fashion of 15 interceptions, including a season-high six against Saint Anselm in week six. The six against the Hawks is the most by any team in a single game this season in all of NCAA DII, while the 15 total is eighth most in all of Division II. two of the 15 interceptions have been returned for TD's, both against Saint Anselm, the first by Khyon Fitzpatrick for 58 yards and the second by freshman Christian Ais for 63 yards.

BEHIND THE LINE

Another area where New Haven's defense has made its way onto the national radar is with its ability to drop their opponents behind the line of scrimmage. For the year, the Chargers have racked up 260 loss yards on 63 tackles for loss, with the average 7.0 TFL per game the best in the NE10 and ranked 37th in the nation. Among those 60 TFL are 24 sacks for 149 loss yards. The Chargers 2.7 sacks per game ranks 45th in the nation. Additionally, the Chargers 14.3 points per game allowed leads the NE10 in total defense and is ranked 10th best in the country.

AIRING IT OUT

The 4,168 fans at DellaCamera Stadium on Family Weekend finally had a chance to see the full potential of Connor Degenhardt's arm as he threw for 355 total yards, completing 14-of-21 passes, including four that ended in the end zone. Among those 14 passes were a pair of long range missiles, the first to Javon Turner for 70 yards and the second to Dev Holmes for 93 yards. The latter of those two passes was the longest play from scrimmage for the Chargers since October of 2000.

NO ONE SHALL ENTER

Against its crosstown rival, the Chargers defense stood tall, not just holding the Owls to nine points but keeping the SCSU offense from scoring a touchdown on any of their 12 drives. Included in the defensive stronghold were three red zone stands that all resulted in field goal attempts by the Owls. Included in those three red zone opportunities was a goal-line stand when the Owls were set up with first and goal at the two yard line but were forced back six yards and eventually held to a 24-yard field goal.

DUST OFF THE SHELF

Quarterback Connor Degenhardt needs to make more room on his shelves, adding a second NE10 Offensive Player of the Week honors to his credit after this weekend's win over Saint Anselm. This comes after earning the same honor following the NE10 opener against SCSU in which he threw for 355 yards and four TDs. This past weekend against the Hawks, Degenhardt finished with 199 yards and had a hand in all five offensive TD's, passing for three and rushing for a pair.

DOUBLE DIPPING

Freshman Christian Ais made it a pair of honors for the Chargers following the week-six win over Saint Anselm as he was tabbed the NE10's Rookie of the Week as announced by the league. In addition to one tackle, Ais picked off a pair of passes from the Hawks, including returning one of those 63 yards for a touchdown.

ONE DEGREE ISN'T ENOUGH

With a master's program in sport management, an MBA program and a renowned school of criminal justice it is no wonder so many students call New Haven home when it comes to postgraduate degrees. This season is no different as the Chargers boast 27 grad students on the roster, which according to a new release from the National Football Foundation is the most in Division II. A total of 296 schools responded to a request for information regarding graduate students on current rosters. Two-hundred seventy-nine of those schools listed at least one graduate student and all combined a total of 3,284 collegiate football players will take the field despite having already earned an undergraduate degree.

BOOSTING THE NUMBERS

Without needing to prepare for an opponent since November of 2019, there has been plenty of time for the Chargers coaching staff to find and recruit the next generation of New Haven players and they took full advantage of that extra time, inviting 125 players for the start of preseason camp in early August. Of the 125 total invitees to camp, 103 will enter today's game as members of the Chargers travel party. Included in that number are 32 letterman returning from the 2019 team and within that number, 14 are listed as starters for the season opener against Franklin Pierce.

THREE-TIME NORTHEAST-10 CHAMPIONS (2010, 2011, 2012)

GAME 10: NEW HAVEN AT FRANKLIN PIERCE

HARDWARE HERO

A native of Brooklyn, N.Y. Shamar Logan returns to the gridiron for just the second time as a Charger and it comes after earning some impressive hardware in 2019 when he was named the Northeast-10's Rookie of the Year. Logan finished his first season wearing Blue and Gold with 1,000 net rushing yards which ranks as the seventh most in a single season at New Haven. Those 1,000 yards came on 164 carries and included eight touchdown runs. In addition he added 13 catches for 90 yards and one touchdown. Overall in 2019, Logan finished five games with 100+ yards and three games with a pair of touchdowns. His best outing of the season came on the road at Saint Anselm where he rushed for 175 yards and picked up 21 yards on a pair of catches.

LEADERSHIP TRIO

Following the Chargers three-week pre-season, head coach Chris Pincince announced a trio of players that will make up the leadership corps for 2021; defensive lineman Affiz Din-Gabisi, wide receiver Brett Huber and offensive lineman Mike Zecchin. In addition to the three, a weekly game captain will be named, joining the trio for the on-field coin toss and other game-day responsibilities. All three returned to the Charger football program to extend their collegiate career after earning undergraduate degrees from the University and losing their 2020 seasons due to the CoVID-19 pandemic.

FAMILIAR FACES ON THE SIDELINES

This season, New Haven welcomes a total of eight new faces who were not on the sidelines the last time the Chargers took the field in 2019. Among the new additions are two former Chargers, 2020 graduate Zach Cofrancesco who will coach the defensive back and 1987 graduate Frank Forcucci, a catcher and third baseman on the baseball team, who will lead the linebackers. In addition to be an alum, Forcucci brings a wealth of experience to the New Haven staff serving in a number of different collegiate coaching rolls since 1994, including as the head coach at Becker from 2016-2020. Also among the new additions is Beau Bell, a former linebacker at UNLV who was drafted by the Cleveland Browns in the fourth round of the NFL Draft in 2008. After being waived by the Browns, Bell would go on to win a pair of Arena Bowl Championships with the Philadelphia Soul in 2016 and 2017.

WHAT D2FOOTBALL.COM IS PREDICTING FOR WEEK 11 (PAUL FALEWICZ)

Upset special? New Haven won the regular season NE10 title with a 31-14 victory over Bentley last weekend. The Chargers were strong for 60 minutes and left no doubt that they are the top team in the league. They were on a mission to win the league and the team focused on that goal the entire season. For New Haven to win the game, they will need to play like the game is for the NE10 title. They will need to come out strong and take care of business on both sides of the ball. Franklin Pierce fell on the road to Stonehill 34-7. The Ravens were never able to establish their running game and had trouble slowing down the running game of Stonehill. They have one final shot to grab their first NE10 victory before time runs out. For Franklin Pierce to win the game, they will need to play a game like they have not played in 2021. The offense will need to be perfect, and the defense will need to be in the right place all game long. New Haven will have a small hangover from last Saturday but will quickly take control of the game.

Prediction: New Haven 38, Franklin Pierce 13

PRESEASON PROPS

Returning to the field for the first time since November 2019, the New Haven football team will enter the 2021 season as the pre-season favorite to win the NE10 Conference championship in a poll of the league's nine head coaches. This is the second straight season (2019) that the Chargers have been the top choice of coaches in the preseason. New Haven racked up a total of 62 points and six of the nine possible first place votes, finishing seven points ahead of the Bentley Falcons who scored the remaining three first place tallies.

CHRIS PINCINCE HEAD COACH SEVENTH SEASON BOSTON UNIVERSITY '94

Chris Pincince takes the helm of the New Haven Chargers football team for his seventh season in 2021. Named the 10th head coach at the University of New Haven in February 2014, Pincince brought more than 20 years of collegiate coaching experience to the sidelines, including many at the NCAA Division I level.

In six seasons leading the Chargers, Pincince has collected 42 wins and led the Blue and Gold to the NCAA Championship Second Round (2018) for the first time since 2012. Overall in six seasons, 11 players have received All-American accolades while offensive lineman Zach Voytek was a three-time NE10 Offensive Lineman of the Year while also signing as an undrafted free agent with the Buffalo Bills. Additionally, 47 different players have been named All-Conference, while 11 have garnered All-Region honors.

In the most recent season prior to the CoVID-19 shutdown, the Chargers finished tied with Bentley with a 6-2 record in Northeast-10 Conference play. Among the highlights for Pincince's squad was Shamar Logan garnering NE10 Rookie of the Year accolades as he was one of 16 Chargers to earn NE10 postseason distinction. Logan would go on to earn All-Region honors along with Markel Johnson and Ju'an Williams, the latter of which was named the regions Special Teams Player of the Year.

In 2018, Pincince coached a pair of record breakers in quarterback Ajee Patterson and Williams. Patterson graduated as arguably the best quarterback in New Haven history, the first to throw for more than 10,000 yards while racking up 80 touchdowns, second most in program history. The NE10 MVP and First Team All-Conference selection, Patterson closed out his collegiate campaign with a career-high 2,878 yards and 29 touchdowns, leading his squad to the NCAA Championship for the first time since 2012. Williams, a Don Hanson Honorable Mention All-American, registered a single season school record 1,171 receiving yards which came on 65 catches while completing 11 for touchdowns. Joining Williams in earning All-American accolades was Dan Iannone who anchored an offensive line that contributed to 4,827 total yards on offense, the most in the NE10, which included just shy of 2,000 yards rushing. In addition, the O-Line protection was impeccable, allowing Patterson to be sacked just three times through the 10-game regular season.

Voytek was one of two Chargers named All-American in 2016, joining linebacker Tyler Condit. Together, the pair were part of nine total players who received NE10 All-Conference honors following a 7-4 season that included a pair of wins over crosstown rival Southern Connecticut State University, representing eight straight season New Haven has maintained the Elm City Trophy. On the field, Condit set a pair of records, becoming the all-time leading tackler at New Haven as well as in the Northeast-10. He finished his collegiate career with 117 tackles as a senior, becoming just the second player in school history to finish with at least 100 stops in three seasons.

In just his second season leading the Chargers, Pincince led the Blue and Gold to the N10 Championship game, finishing the year with a 7-4 record. Among the highlights were a pair of record setting performances from junior running back Andre Anderson and Condit. Anderson broke a 22 year old record set by Roger Graham when he rushed for 319 yards in the regular season finale against Saint Anselm. In that same game, Condit shattered a 29 year old record when he finished with 25 tackles, giving him 153 for the season, which surpassed the previous record of 134 by Erik Lesinski. Anderson and Condit were two of four Chargers who received NE10 Player of the Year accolades at their respective positions, with Anderson earning Most Valuable Player accolades.

In his first season strolling the sideline at New Haven, Pincince led the Chargers to a 6-5 overall record, including a string of six straight victories in Northeast-10 Conference action. Among the highlights from Pincince's first season was Condit who was named a USA College Football All-America Honorable Mention. A pair of Chargers were also honored among the major awards from the Northeast-10 Conference with Voytek named co-Offensive Lineman of the Year and freshman running back Lemar Thomas named Rookie of the Year. In total, 10 players were named to NE10 All-Conference squads.

With two previous stints as an assistant at New Haven, Pincince began his career with the Chargers in 1995 as an assistant for UNH Athletics Hall of Famer and former NFL coach Tony Sparano. He spent three additional seasons with the Chargers from 1999 to 2001 under Darren Rizzi, current special teams' coordinator for the New Orleans Saints.

Prior to his most recent position as offensive coordinator at NCAA Division I Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) member Elon University in North Carolina, Pincince was the offensive coordinator at the University of Rhode Island and the College of the Holy Cross.

At Elon, Pincince was the offensive coordinator as well as the quarterbacks and running backs coach for three seasons. In his first year Elon's offense led the Southern Conference and ranked 14th nationally with 281 passing yards per game. Pincince's offensive scheme was anchored by All-America wide receiver Aaron Mellette, who led all of FCS in receptions per game (10.27) and receiving yards per game (149). His season totals also set new school and conference records in 2011. Quarterback Thomas Wilson also led the conference and ranked 14th nationally in total offense. In his second season at Elon, the offense ranked 12th in the FCS in passing yards per game (296), with Mellette again earning All-America honors. The receiver became the first Elon player invited to the Senior Bowl and was later selected in the seventh round of the NFL draft by the Baltimore Ravens. In Pincince's final season at Elon, the Phoenix ranked second in the conference in passing yards per game (231) and averaged over 350 total yards per contest.

During the three seasons prior to arriving at Elon, Pincince was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Rhode Island. While at URI, Pincince installed the spread offense, and the Rams ranked fifth in the Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) in passing offense in his first season.

Pincince also spent four years at the College of the Holy Cross, including two seasons as the Crusaders' offensive coordinator. In 2007, the Holy Cross offense led the Patriot League in scoring (35.9 ppg), passing (335 ypg), total offense (463 ypg) and first downs (272). Crusaders quarterback Dominic Randolph led the league in passing (3,604 yards), touchdown passes (30) and total offense (340 ypg) and finished 12th in the balloting for the Walter Payton Award. Pincince's first two seasons at Holy Cross were spent as the wide receivers coach.

Prior to his tenure at Holy Cross, Pincince served as the offensive coordinator at Ursinus College in 2003. The season before, Pincince was the quarterbacks coach at Brown University. He also spent two seasons at Fairfield University.

During his five previous seasons at New Haven, the Chargers combined for a 32-18-1 record and advanced to the NCAA Division II quarterfinal round in 1995. The Chargers finished the regular season undefeated and earned a 27-12 victory over Edinboro in the opening round of the NCAA playoffs. In his second stint, the Chargers averaged over 30 points and 350 yards per game during his three-season stretch.

A native of Woonsocket, R.I., Pincince earned his bachelor's degree from Boston University in 1994. He was a member of the Terriers' 1993 Yankee Conference Championship team and played on two NCAA Division I-AA (now FCS) playoff teams. He and his wife, Jennifer, have two sons, Zachary and Owen, and a daughter, Emma.
