1:00 p.m.

A game delayed by nearly two years kicks off on Saturday as the Chargers welcome Bowie State to DellaCamera Stadium to begin a home-and-home series, rehashing an all-time series that hasn't been played since 1995. The game also serves as the Harmony Classic, a partnership between UNH, Bowie State and the NAACP Connecticut Chapter which strives to Celebrate Diversity and Racial Harmony.

INSIDE THE SERIES

- New Haven and Bowie State meet for the fourth time in the history of the two programs.
- New Haven holds a perfect 3-0 record against the Bulldogs with all three games coming in successive years starting in 1993.
- Overall in the three previous meetings, New Haven has outscored Bowie State 138-25, including a 34-0 shutout in the most recent meeting on Nov. 4, 1995, which also took place in West Haven.

A WIN OVER BOWIE STATE WOULD...

- be the first season New Haven opened the year with back-to-back victories since 2012 when they rattled off 10 straight to open the year.
- keep the Chargers undefeated against Bowie State with three previous meet-
- be the sixth-straight win for New Haven dating back to a season-ending fourgame win streak in 2019.
- be the 257th overall victory in the 42plus year history of Charger Football.
- be the 226th victory since the Chargers began playing at the Division II level first DII season was 1982.

GAME DAY FORECAST

New Haven and Bowie State will have a fantastic day when it comes to the forecast, which calls for partly skies with a high temperature of 80 degrees. The low for the day is predicted at 67 degrees while there is a 24% chance of precipitation and a 76% humidity level. Winds on Saturday will be

BY THE NUMBERS

For the second straight season, New Haven entered the year as the preseason No. 1 pick to win the Northeast-10 Conference title in a poll of the league's head coach. Overall, the Chargers picked up six of the nine first place votes.

Seasons since the Chargers have opened a season with back-to-back victories, not having completed that feat since the 2012 campaign when they began the year with 10 straight wins.

SCOUTING THE CHARGERS

New Haven provided a balanced offensive attack in its season opener against Franklin Pierce, racking up over 500 total yards on offense, with 188 on the ground and 320 in the air. The ground game had a familiar face leading the way with the 2019 NE10 Rookie of the Year Shamar Logan starting off exactly where he left off adding another 100-yard game for his career. Overall, Logan picked up 104 net yards, averaging 5.2 per attempt with a game-high long pickup of 30 yards. The passing game saw two new faces lead the way with quarterback Connor Degenhardt and receiver Dev Holmes proving to be a reliable duo. Overall, Degenhardt threw for 320 yards, completing 21-of-34 passes, three for TD's. Of his 21 completions, he targeted, and completed, Holmes the most, with Holmes hauling in eight catches for 149 yards and a pair of TD's. Degenhardt also added a rushing touchdown, scampering in from 26 yards out. Defensively, the Chargers provided another balanced look with eight different players dropping at least four tackles. Among the highlights was transfer Jason Dooling who had a pair of tackles, both of which were sacks that resulted in 12 yards lost.

SCOUTING THE BULLDOGS

With a senior quarterback leading the way, the Bowie State Bulldogs enter DellaCamera Stadium ranked No. 24 in the latest AFCA Top-25 poll. A transfer from Virginia-Wise, Ja'rome Johnson has completed 41-of-64 pass attempts in two games this season for 543 total yards and six touchdowns. He has also thrown four picks. Overall, the Bulldogs enter with a 1-1 record, falling to Division I Delaware State in week 1 and defeating Saginaw Valley State this past weekend 28-19. As a team, the majority of the Bulldogs offense comes in its passing game where they are averaging 271.5 yards per game, while on the ground they average just 60 yards per game.

NEXT ON TAP

New Haven will close out a season-opening three-game homestand on Saturday, September 25 with the annual Battle of the Elm City when they host crosstown rival Southern Connecticut State. Coming into next weekend's game, New Haven has won 11 straight against the Owls, including the last 10 Elm City Trophy battles. Kickoff against Southern Connecticut is slated for 1:00 p.m.

HARMONY CLASSIC

The University of New Haven, Bowie State University and the Connecticut Chapter of the NAACP are excited to host the 2021 Harmony Classic. A week of activities will conclude with today's gridiron clash between the Chargers and Bulldogs. The Harmony Classic is an event that brings together UNH's initiatives for Diversity, Equity and Inclusion and the NAACP's mission to secure the political, educational, social, and economic equality of rights in order to eliminate race-based discrimination and ensure the health and well-being of all persons. The 2021 Harmony Classic is the second to be hosted on the UNH campus, and the sixth for the Connecticut Chapter of the NAACP. The Harmony Classic strives to Celebrate Diversity and Racial Harmony with a week of events.

ONE DEGREE ISN'T ENOUGH

With a master's program in sport management, an MBA program and a renowned school of criminal justice it is no wonder so many students call New Haven home when it comes to postgraduate degrees. This season is no different as the Chargers boast 27 grad students on the roster, which according to a new release from the National Football Foundation is the most in Division II. A total of 296 schools responded to a request for information regarding graduate students on current rosters. Two-hundred seventy-nine of those schools listed at least one graduate student and all combined a total of 3,284 collegiate football players will take the field despite having already earned an undergraduate degree.

BOOSTING THE NUMBERS

Without needing to prepare for an opponent since November of 2019, there has been plenty of time for the Chargers coaching staff to find and recruit the next generation of New Haven players and they took full advantage of that extra time, inviting 125 players for the start of preseason camp in early August. Of the 125 total invitees to camp, 103 will enter today's game as members of the Chargers travel party. Included in that number are 32 letterman returning from the 2019 team and within that number, 14 are listed as starters for the season opener against Franklin Pierce.

LEAVE IT ALL ON THE LINE

Over the last handful of years, the Chargers offensive line has always been the biggest challenge for opponents defensive strategies and 2021 should prove to be no different. Last season, the Chargers O-Line helped lead the offense to an average of 378 total yards per game, the fourth most among the entire NE10. Included in that number is an average of 188 rushing yards which was the third most in the conference. A year prior (2018), the Chargers O-Line contributed to 4,827 total yards on offense, the most in the NE10, which included just shy of 2,000 rushing yards. Additionally, the O-Line allowed opponents to sack quarterback Ajee Patterson just three times through the 10-game regular season in 2018.

HARDWARE HERO

A native of Brooklyn, N.Y. Shamar Logan returns to the gridiron for just the second time as a Charger and it comes after earning some impressive hardware in 2019 when he was named the Northeat-10's Rookie of the Year. Logan finished his first season wearing Blue and Gold with 1,000 net rushing yards which ranks as the seventh most in a single season at New Haven. Those 1,000 yards came on 164 carries and included eight touchdown runs. In addition he added 13 catches for 90 yards and one touchdown. Overall in 2019, Logan finished five games with 100+ yards and three games with a pair of touchdowns. His best outing of the season came on the road at Saint Anselm where he rushed for 175 yards and picked up 21 yards on a pair of catches.

paign, the Chargers return four. Highlighting the group is the 2019 Rookie of the Year outlined above, Shamar Logan. On the offensive side of the ball he is joined by returning center Mike Zecchin who was named to the NE10 Second Team. A pair of defensive players also return after earning Second Team accolades; linebacker Ryan Hodgins and defensive back Shawn Tafe. Combined, the pair were third and fourth on the team in total tackles with 62 and 50, respectively.

LEADERSHIP TRIO

Following the Chargers three-week preseason, head coach Chris Pincince announced a trio of players that will make up the leadership corps for 2021; defensive lineman Affiz Din-Gabisi, wide receiver Brett Huber and offensive lineman Mike Zecchin. In addition to the three, a weekly game captain will be named, joining the trio for the on-field coin toss and other game-day responsibilities. All three returned to the Charger football program to extend their collegiate career after earning undergraduate degrees from the University and losing their 2020 seasons due to the CoVID-19 pandemic.

FAMILIAR FACES ON THE SIDELINES

This season. New Haven welcomes a total of eight new faces who were not on the sidelines the last time the Chargers took the field in 2019. Among the new additions are two former Chargers, 2020 graduate Zach Cofrancesco who will coach the defensive back and 1987 graduate Frank Forcucci, a catcher and third baseman on the baseball team, who will lead the linebackers. In addition to be an alum, Forcucci brings a wealth of experience to the New Haven staff serving in a number of different collegiate coaching rolls since 1994, including as the head coach at Becker from 2016-2020. Also among the new additions is Beau Bell, a former linebacker at UNLV who was drafted by the Cleveland Brown in the fourth round of the NFL Draft in 2008. After being waived by the Browns, Bell would go on to win a pair of Arena Bowl Championships with the Philadelphia Soul in 2016 and 2017.

WHAT D2FOOTBALL.COM IS PREDICTING FOR WEEK 1 (PAUL FALEWICZ)

Huge non-conference game. Bowie State won their first game of the season last weekend, 28-19 over Saginaw Valley. The Bulldogs used a strong passing game and plenty of defensive pressure to win their home opener. They will bring a big, physical, ranked team north this weekend. For Bowie State to win the game, they will need to move the ball through the air like their first two games. The defense will need to get stops on third down and not let the crowd motivate the New Haven offense. New Haven is coming off a bye week after an opening weekend victory over Franklin Pierce, 30-14. The Chargers were able to move the ball on offense with a balanced attack. The defense was able to get stops when they needed to, and an extra week of preparation should help them. For New Haven to win the game, they will need to slow down the passing attack of Bowie State

PRESEASON PROPS

Returning to the field for the first time since November 2019, the New Haven football team will enter the 2021 season as the preseason favorite to win the NE10 Conference championship in a poll of the league's nine head coaches. This is the second straight season (2019) that the Chargers have been the top choice of coaches in the preseason. New Haven racked up a total of 62 points and six of the nine possible first place votes, finishing seven points ahead of the Bentley Falcons who scored the remaining three first place tallies.

BUILDING FOR THE FUTURE

If you haven't visited North Campus recently you haven't seen the construction taking place adjacent to Charger Gymnasium. The site is the future home of the Peterson Performance Center, a state of the art facility that will house strength and condition, sports medicine, a new football locker room and meetings space with the ability to be tailored for the many different needs of all 18 varsity Charger athletic teams. The entire facility will measure 7,000 square feet and house 20 Olympic style weightlifting racks and a 60-yard turf agility and conditioning area. To learn more visit ChargerAthleticsFund. com.

CHRIS PINCINCE
HEAD COACH
SEVENTH SEASON
BOSTON UNIVERSITY '94

Chris Pincince takes the helm of the New Haven Chargers football team for his seventh season in 2021. Named the 10th head coach at the University of New Haven in February 2014, Pincince brought more than 20 years of collegiate coaching experience to the sidelines, including many at the NCAA Division I level.

In six seasons leading the Chargers, Pincince has collected 42 wins and led the Blue and Gold to the NCAA Championship Second Round (2018) for the first time since 2012. Overall in six seasons, 11 players have received All-American accolades while offensive lineman Zach Voytek was a three-time NE10 Offensive Lineman of the Year while also signing as an undrafted free agent with the Buffalo Bills. Additionally, 47 different players have been named All-Conference, while 11 have garnered All-Region honors.

In the most recent season prior to the CoVID-19 shutdown, the Chargers finished tied with Bentley with a 6-2 record in Northeast-10 Conference play. Among the highlights for Pincince's squad was Shamar Logan garnering NE10 Rookie of the Year accolades as he was one of 16 Chargers to earn NE10 postseason distinction. Logan would go on to earn All-Region honors along with Markel Johnson and Ju'an Williams, the latter of which was named the regions Special Teams Player of the Year.

In 2018, Pincince coached a pair of record breakers in quarterback Ajee Patterson and Williams. Patterson graduated as arguably the best quarterback in New Haven history, the first to throw for more than 10,000 yards while racking up 80 touchdowns, second most in program history. The NE10 MVP and First Team All-Conference selection, Patterson closed out his collegiate campaign with a career-high 2,878 yards and 29 touchdowns, leading his squad to the NCAA Championship for the first time since 2012. Williams, a Don Hanson Honorable Mention All-American, registered a single season school record 1,171 receiving yards which came on 65 catches while completing 11 for touchdowns. Joining Williams in earning All-American accolades was Dan lannone who anchored an offensive line that contributed to 4,827 total yards on offense, the most in the NE10, which included just shy of 2,000 yards rushing. In addition, the O-Line protection was impeccable, allowing Patterson to be sacked just three times through the 10-game regular season.

Voytek was one of two Chargers named All-American in 2016, joining linebacker Tyler Condit. Together, the pair were part of nine total players who received NE10 All-Conference honors following a 7-4 season that included a pair of wins over crosstown rival Southern Connecticut State University, representing eight straight season New Haven has maintained the Elm City Trophy. On the field, Condit set a pair of records, becoming the all-time leading tackler at New Haven as well as in the Northeast-10. He finished his collegiate career with 117 tackles as a senior, becoming just the second player in school history to finish with at least 100 stops in three seasons.

In just his second season leading the Chargers, Pincince led the Blue and Gold to the N10 Championship game, finishing the year with a 7-4 record. Among the highlights were a pair of record setting performances from junior running back Andre Anderson and Condit. Anderson broke a 22 year old record set by Roger Graham when he rushed for 319 yards in the regular season finale against Saint Anselm. In that same game, Condit shattered a 29 year old record when he finished with 25 tackles, giving him 153 for the season, which surpassed the previous record of 134 by Erik Lesinski. Anderson and Condit were two of four Chargers who received NE10 Player of the Year accolades at their respective positions, with Anderson earning Most Valuable Player accolades.

In his first season strolling the sideline at New Haven, Pincince led the Chargers to a 6-5 overall record, including a string of six straight victories in Northeast-10 Conference action. Among the highlights from Pincince's first season was Condit who was named a USA College Football All-America Honorable Mention. A pair of Chargers were also honored among the major awards from the Northeast-10 Conference with Voytek named co-Offensive Lineman of the Year and freshman running back Lemar Thomas named Rookie of the Year. In total, 10 players were named to NE10 All-Conference squads.

With two previous stints as an assistant at New Haven, Pincince began his career with the Chargers in 1995 as an assistant for UNH Athletics Hall of Famer and former NFL coach Tony Sparano. He spent three additional seasons with the Chargers from 1999 to 2001 under Darren Rizzi, current special teams' coordinator for the New Orleans Saints.

Prior to his most recent position as offensive coordinator at NCAA Division I Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) member Elon University in North Carolina, Pincince was the offensive coordinator at the University of Rhode Island and the College of the Holv Cross.

At Elon, Pincince was the offensive coordinator as well as the guarterbacks and running backs coach for three seasons. In his first year Elon's offense led the Southern Conference and ranked 14th nationally with 281 passing yards per game. Pincince's offensive scheme was anchored by All-America wide receiver Aaron Mellette, who led all of FCS in receptions per game (10.27) and receiving yards per game (149). His season totals also set new school and conference records in 2011. Quarterback Thomas Wilson also led the conference and ranked 14th nationally in total offense. In his second season at Elon, the offense ranked 12th in the FCS in passing yards per game (296), with Mellette again earning All-America honors. The receiver became the first Elon player invited to the Senior Bowl and was later selected in the seventh round of the NFL draft by the Baltimore Ravens. In Pincince's final season at Elon, the Phoenix ranked second in the conference in passing yards per game (231) and averaged over 350 total yards per contest.

During the three seasons prior to arriving at Elon, Pincince was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Rhode Island. While at URI, Pincince installed the spread offense, and the Rams ranked fifth in the Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) in passing offense in his first season.

Association (CAA) in passing offense in his first season.

Pincince also spent four years at the College of the Holy Cross, including two seasons as the Crusaders' offensive coordinator. In 2007, the Holy Cross offense led the Patriot League in scoring (35.9 ppg), passing (335 ypg), total offense (463 ypg) and first downs (272). Crusaders quarterback Dominic Randolph led the league in passing (3,604 yards), touchdown passes (30) and total offense (340 ypg) and finished 12th in the balloting for the Walter Payton Award. Pincince's first two seasons at Holy Cross were spent as the wide receivers coach.

Prior to his tenure at Holy Cross, Pincince served as the offensive coordinator at Ursinus College in 2003. The season before, Pincince was the quarterbacks coach at Brown University. He also spent two seasons at Fairfield University.

He also spent two seasons at Fairfield University.

During his five previous seasons at New Haven, the Chargers combined for a 32-18-1 record and advanced to the NCAA Division II quarterfinal round in 1995. The Chargers finished the regular season undefeated and earned a 27-12 victory over Edinboro in the opening round of the NCAA playoffs. In his second stint, the Chargers averaged over 30 points and 350 yards per game during his three-season stretch.

A native of Woonsocket, R.I., Pincince earned his bachelor's degree from Boston University in 1994. He was a member of the Terriers' 1993 Yankee Conference Championship team and played on two NCAA Division I-AA (now FCS) playoff teams. He and his wife, Jennifer, have two sons, Zachary and Owen, and a daughter, Emma.
