THE FIRST LOOK

Coming off of a convincing victory over Southern Connecticut in the NE10 opener in which the Chargers held the Owls out of the end zone, the Blue and Gold look to remain unbeaten in league action when they hit the road for the first time in 2021 to take on the Pace Setters.

A WIN OVER PACE WOULD...

- keep head coach Chris Pincince undefeated against the Setters at 7-0
- be the 258th overall victory in the 42-plus year history of Charger Football.
- be the 227th victory since the Chargers began playing at the Division II level - first DII season was 1982.

defensively, the Chargers kept SCSU out of the end zone forcing them to try four field goals, of which they converted three. Quarterback Connor Degenhardt showed off his arm against the Owls, airing out TD passes of 70 and 93 yards, part of four passing TD's and a total of 355 yards. For the season, the transfer QB has 852 yards, completing 58% of his passes. His main target for the year has been transfer Dev Holmes who has 17 catches for 385 yards and four touchdowns. On the ground, the Blue and Gold rely heavily on 2019 Rookie of the Year Shamar Logan who has 208 net yards on 46 attempts for the year. Defensively, Ryan Hodgins leads the Chargers with 25 tackles, while Khalim Cisse joins him with 20+, registering 21 total on the season. All combined, New Haven's defense has 27 TFL's to their credit for a total of 108 yards, including eight sacks for 62 yards.

SCOUTING THE SETTERS

The Setters enter Saturday following a much needed bye week to reset after opening the year 0-3, including a 32-21 loss in their NE10 opener at Assumption. As a team, the Setters are averaging 22.3 points per game, while surrendering 35.7 ppg, while splitting their offense evenly with 437 net rushing yards and 596 passing yards. Defensively, the Setters need to find a way to stop the run game where opponents are averaging 288.3 yards against them, while also averaging 240 yards in the passing game. Marshalling the Setters offense is quarterback Carlton Aiken who has racked up 563 passing yards and five touchdowns, while he also leads the way on the ground with 228 rushing yards.

NEXT ON TAP

New Haven returns to West Haven for Homecoming when the host the Saint Anselm Hawks on Saturday, October 9. The Chargers look to avenge a road loss to the Hawks from the last time these two teams met in 2019. Kickoff from DellaCamera Stadium is scheduled for 1:00 p.m. with all of the action available live on the Charger Sports Network on NE10 NOW.

AIRING IT OUT

The 4,168 fans at DellaCamera Stadium finally had a chance to see the full potential of Connor Degenhardt's arm last weekend as he threw for 355 total yards, completing 14-of-21 passes, including four that ended in the end zone. Among those 14 passes were a pair of long range missiles, the first to Javon Turner for 70 yards and the second to Dev Holmes for 93 yards. The latter of those two passes was the longest play from scrimmage for the Chargers since October of 2000.

NO ONE SHALL ENTER

New Haven's defense stood tall on Saturday against its crosstown rival, not just holding the Owls to nine points but keeping the SCSU offense from scoring a touchdown on any of their 12 drives. Included in the defensive stronghold for New Haven were three red zone stands that all resulted in field goal attempts by the Owls. Included in those three red zone opportunities was a goal-line stand when the Owls were set up with first and goal at the two yard line but were forced back six yards and eventually held to a 24-yard field goal.

RIGHT WHERE HE LEFT OFF

DUST OFF THE SHELF

Quarterback Connor Degenhardt's 355 yards and four touchdowns against the Owls led to the first weekly honor of the season for the Blue and Gold when he was tabbed the NE10's Offensive Player of the Week. Degenhardt's offensive POTW honor is the first time a player has earned that distinction since Ajee Patterson picked it up twice during the 2018 campaign that ended with him being named the NE10's MVP.

ONE DEGREE ISN'T ENOUGH

With a master's program in sport management, an MBA program and a re-owned school of criminal justice it is no wonder so many students call New Haven home when it comes to postgraduate degrees. This season is no different as the Chargers boast 27 grad students on the roster, which according to a new release from the National Football Foundation is the most in Division II. A total of 296 schools responded to a request for information regarding graduate students on current rosters. Two-hundred seventy-nine of those schools listed at least one graduate student and all combined a total of 3,284 collegiate football players will take the field despite having already earned an undergraduate degree.

BOOSTING THE NUMBERS

Without needing to prepare for an opponent since November of 2019, there has been plenty of time for the Chargers coaching staff to find and recruit the next generation of New Haven players and they took full advantage of that extra time, inviting 125 players for the start of preseason camp in early August. Of the 125 total invitees to camp, 103 will enter today's game as members of the Chargers travel party. Included in that number are 32 letterman returning from the 2019 team and within that number, 14 are listed as starters for the season opener against Franklin Pierce.

LEAVE IT ALL ON THE LINE

Over the last handful of years, the Chargers offensive line has always been the biggest challenge for opponent's defensive strategies and 2021 should prove to be no different. Last season, the Chargers O-Line helped lead the offense to an average of 378 total yards per game, the fourth most among the entire NE10. Included in that number is an average of 188 rushing yards which was the third most in the conference. A year prior (2018), the Chargers O-Line contributed to 4,827 total yards on offense, the most in the NE10, which included just shy of 2,000 rushing yards. Additionally, the O-Line allowed opponents to sack quarterback Ajee Patterson just three times through the 10-game regular season in 2018.

HARDWARE HERO

A native of Brooklyn, N.Y. Shamar Logan returns to the gridiron for just the second time as a Charger and it comes after earning some impressive hardware in 2019 when he was named the Northeast-10's Rookie of the Year. Logan finished his first season wearing Blue and Gold with 1,000 net rushing yards which ranks as the seventh most in a single season at New Haven. Those 1,000 yards came on 164 carries and included eight touchdown runs. In addition he added 13 catches for 90 yards and one touchdown. Overall in 2019, Logan finished five games with 100+ yards and three games with a pair of touchdowns. His best outing of the season came on the road at Saint Anselm where he rushed for 175 yards and picked up 21 yards on a pair of catches.

AND THE OSCAR GOES TO

Among 16 players who were named to All-Conference teams following the 2019 campaign, the Chargers return four. Highlighting the group is the 2019 Rookie of the Year outlined above, Shamar Logan. On the offensive side of the ball he is joined by returning center Mike Zecchin who was named to the NE10 Second Team. A pair of defensive players also return after earning Second Team accolades; linebacker Ryan Hodgins and defensive back Shawn Tafe. Combined, the pair were third and fourth on the team in total tackles with 62 and 50, respectively.

LEADERSHIP TRIO

Following the Chargers three-week preseason, head coach Chris Pincince announced a trio of players that will make up the leadership corps for 2021; defensive lineman Affiz Din-Gabisi, wide receiver Brett Huber and offensive lineman Mike Zecchin. In addition to the three, a weekly game captain will be named, joining the trio for the on-field coin toss and other game-day responsibilities. All three returned to the Charger football program to extend their collegiate career after earning undergraduate degrees from the University and losing their 2020 seasons due to the CoVID-19 pandemic.

FAMILIAR FACES ON THE SIDELINES

This season, New Haven welcomes a total of eight new faces who were not on the sidelines the last time the Chargers took the field in 2019. Among the new additions are two former Chargers, 2020 graduate Zach Cofrancesco who will coach the defensive back and 1987 graduate Frank Forcucci, a catcher and third baseman on the baseball team, who will lead the linebackers. In addition to be an alum, Forcucci brings a wealth of experience to the New Haven staff serving in a number of different collegiate coaching rolls since 1994, including as the head coach at Becker from 2016-2020. Also among the new additions is Beau Bell, a former linebacker at UNLV who was drafted by the Cleveland Brown in the fourth round of the NFL Draft in 2008. After being waived by the Browns, Bell would go on to win a pair of Arena Bowl Championships with the Philadelphia Soul in 2016 and 2017.

WHAT D2FOOTBALL.COM IS PREDICTING FOR WEEK 5 (PAUL FALEWICZ)

Is this the year? New Haven is fresh off a 38-9 victory over Southern Connecticut. The Chargers pulled away in the second half as they scored three times in a seven-minute span to keep the Elm City Trophy in their display case. They used the big play and the arm of Connor Degenhardt to win their NE10 opener. For New Haven to win on the road, they will need to play a complete game. It is their first road trip of the season, and they are playing a desperate team. They need to play 60 minutes and limit the mistakes. Pace had the weekend off after losing their third straight to open the season two weekends ago at Assumption. The Setters have had some time to fix the mistakes of the first three games as well as getting some injuries time to heal. For Pace to win the game, they will need to start strong. They have struggled out of the gates and then played from behind. New Haven will control the tempo of the game and keep its winning streak intact.

Prediction: New Haven 38, Pace 22

PRESEASON PROPS

Returning to the field for the first time since November 2019, the New Haven football team will enter the 2021 season as the preseason favorite to win the NE10 Conference championship in a poll of the league's nine head coaches. This is the second straight season (2019) that the Chargers have been the top choice of coaches in the preseason. New Haven racked up a total of 62 points and six of the nine possible first place votes, finishing seven points ahead of the Bentley Falcons who scored the remaining three first place tallies.

BUILDING FOR THE FUTURE

If you haven't visited North Campus recently you haven't seen the construction taking place adjacent to Charger Gymnasium. The site is the future home of the Peterson Performance Center, a state of the art facility that will house strength and condition, sports medicine, a new football locker room and meetings space with the ability to be tailored for the many different needs of all 18 varsity Charger athletic teams. The entire facility will measure 7,000 square feet and house 20 Olympic style weightlifting racks and a 60-yard turf agility and conditioning area.

CHRIS PINCINCE HEAD COACH SEVENTH SEASON BOSTON UNIVERSITY '94

Chris Pincince takes the helm of the New Haven Chargers football team for his seventh season in 2021. Named the 10th head coach at the University of New Haven in February 2014, Pincince brought more than 20 years of collegiate coaching experience to the sidelines, including many at the NCAA Division I level.

In six seasons leading the Chargers, Pincince has collected 42 wins and led the Blue and Gold to the NCAA Championship Second Round (2018) for the first time since 2012. Overall in six seasons, 11 players have received All-American accolades while offensive lineman Zach Voytek was a three-time NE10 Offensive Lineman of the Year while also signing as an undrafted free agent with the Buffalo Bills. Additionally, 47 different players have been named All-Conference, while 11 have garnered All-Region honors.

In the most recent season prior to the CoVID-19 shutdown, the Chargers finished tied with Bentley with a 6-2 record in Northeast-10 Conference play. Among the highlights for Pincince's squad was Shamar Logan garnering NE10 Rookie of the Year accolades as he was one of 16 Chargers to earn NE10 postseason distinction. Logan would go on to earn All-Region honors along with Markel Johnson and Ju'an Williams, the latter of which was named the regions Special Teams Player of the Year.

In 2018, Pincince coached a pair of record breakers in quarterback Ajee Patterson and Williams. Patterson graduated as arguably the best quarterback in New Haven history, the first to throw for more than 10,000 yards while racking up 80 touchdowns, second most in program history. The NE10 MVP and First Team All-Conference selection, Patterson closed out his collegiate campaign with a career-high 2,878 yards and 29 touchdowns, leading his squad to the NCAA Championship for the first time since 2012. Williams, a Don Hanson Honorable Mention All-American, registered a single season school record 1,171 receiving yards which came on 65 catches while completing 11 for touchdowns. Joining Williams in earning All-American accolades was Dan Iannone who anchored an offensive line that contributed to 4,827 total yards on offense, the most in the NE10, which included just shy of 2,000 yards rushing. In addition, the O-Line protection was impeccable, allowing Patterson to be sacked just three times through the 10-game regular season.

Voytek was one of two Chargers named All-American in 2016, joining linebacker Tyler Condit. Together, the pair were part of nine total players who received NE10 All-Conference honors following a 7-4 season that included a pair of wins over crosstown rival Southern Connecticut State University, representing eight straight season New Haven has maintained the Elm City Trophy. On the field, Condit set a pair of records, becoming the all-time leading tackler at New Haven as well as in the Northeast-10. He finished his collegiate career with 117 tackles as a senior, becoming just the second player in school history to finish with at least 100 stops in three seasons.

In just his second season leading the Chargers, Pincince led the Blue and Gold to the N10 Championship game, finishing the year with a 7-4 record. Among the highlights were a pair of record setting performances from junior running back Andre Anderson and Condit. Anderson broke a 22 year old record set by Roger Graham when he rushed for 319 yards in the regular season finale against Saint Anselm. In that same game, Condit shattered a 29 year old record when he finished with 25 tackles, giving him 153 for the season, which surpassed the previous record of 134 by Erik Lesinski. Anderson and Condit were two of four Chargers who received NE10 Player of the Year accolades at their respective positions, with Anderson earning Most Valuable Player accolades.

In his first season strolling the sideline at New Haven, Pincince led the Chargers to a 6-5 overall record, including a string of six straight victories in Northeast-10 Conference action. Among the highlights from Pincince's first season was Condit who was named a USA College Football All-America Honorable Mention. A pair of Chargers were also honored among the major awards from the Northeast-10 Conference with Voytek named co-Offensive Lineman of the Year and freshman running back Lemar Thomas named Rookie of the Year. In total, 10 players were named to NE10 All-Conference squads.

With two previous stints as an assistant at New Haven, Pincince began his career with the Chargers in 1995 as an assistant for UNH Athletics Hall of Famer and former NFL coach Tony Sparano. He spent three additional seasons with the Chargers from 1999 to 2001 under Darren Rizzi, current special teams' coordinator for the New Orleans Saints.

Prior to his most recent position as offensive coordinator at NCAA Division I Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) member Elon University in North Carolina, Pincince was the offensive coordinator at the University of Rhode Island and the College of the Holy Cross.

At Elon, Pincince was the offensive coordinator as well as the quarterbacks and running backs coach for three seasons. In his first year Elon's offense led the Southern Conference and ranked 14th nationally with 281 passing yards per game. Pincince's offensive scheme was anchored by All-America wide receiver Aaron Mellette, who led all of FCS in receptions per game (10.27) and receiving yards per game (149). His season totals also set new school and conference records in 2011. Quarterback Thomas Wilson also led the conference and ranked 14th nationally in total offense. In his second season at Elon, the offense ranked 12th in the FCS in passing yards per game (296), with Mellette again earning All-America honors. The receiver became the first Elon player invited to the Senior Bowl and was later selected in the seventh round of the NFL draft by the Baltimore Ravens. In Pincince's final season at Elon, the Phoenix ranked second in the conference in passing yards per game (231) and averaged over 350 total yards per contest.

During the three seasons prior to arriving at Elon, Pincince was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Rhode Island. While at URI, Pincince installed the spread offense, and the Rams ranked fifth in the Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) in passing offense in his first season.

Pincince also spent four years at the College of the Holy Cross, including two seasons as the Crusaders' offensive coordinator. In 2007, the Holy Cross offense led the Patriot League in scoring (35.9 ppg), passing (335 ypg), total offense (463 ypg) and first downs (272). Crusaders quarterback Dominic Randolph led the league in passing (3,604 yards), touchdown passes (30) and total offense (340 ypg) and finished 12th in the balloting for the Walter Payton Award. Pincince's first two seasons at Holy Cross were spent as the wide receivers coach.

Prior to his tenure at Holy Cross, Pincince served as the offensive coordinator at Ursinus College in 2003. The season before, Pincince was the quarterbacks coach at Brown University. He also spent two seasons at Fairfield University.

During his five previous seasons at New Haven, the Chargers combined for a 32-18-1 record and advanced to the NCAA Division II quarterfinal round in 1995. The Chargers finished the regular season undefeated and earned a 27-12 victory over Edinboro in the opening round of the NCAA playoffs. In his second stint, the Chargers averaged over 30 points and 350 yards per game during his three-season stretch.

A native of Woonsocket, R.I., Pincince earned his bachelor's degree from Boston University in 1994. He was a member of the Terriers' 1993 Yankee Conference Championship team and played on two NCAA Division I-AA (now FCS) playoff teams. He and his wife, Jennifer, have two sons, Zachary and Owen, and a daughter, Emma.
