THE FIRST LOOK

There is a trophy on the line this weekend as New Haven puts its streak of 11-straight Elm City Championships on the line when they head across town to take on the Southern Connecticut State University Owls in the regular season finale at Jess Dow Field.

INSIDE THE SERIES

- New Haven and Southern Connecticut State meet for the 34th time in the history of the two programs.
- The Chargers hold a 26-6-1 record in the previous 33 meetings, with the all-time series dating back to 1981.
- In the 14 meetings since football returned to the Blue and Gold in 2009, the Chargers hold a 13-1 record, including winning the last 13 meetings.
- In the current streak of 13-straight wins, the Chargers have outscored the Owls by an average of two touchdowns, including a 48-9 rout in 2012 and a 38-9 rout last season in West Haven.
- Among the current 13 game win streak for New Haven is 11 straight Elm City

Trophy victories.

A WIN OVER SOUTHERN CONNECTICUT WOULD ...

- keep Head Coach Chris Pincince unbeaten against the Chargers crosstown rival.
- keep the Elm City trophy firmly planted in its current location which it has been in since October 9, 2010.
- be the 14th straight against the Owls.
- be the 273rd overall victory in the 43 plus year history of Charger Football.
- be the 243rd victory since the Chargers began playing at the Division II level - first DII season was 1982.

SCOUTING THE CHARGERS

There is one goal on Saturday, maintain control of the Elm City trophy for a 12th straight Battle of the Elm City. All season long, defense has been the name of the game for the Blue and Gold, forcing 12 turnovers (8 interceptions, 4 fumbles) over the past six games, including eight in the last four conference games. All combined over those 12 turnovers, the Chargers have scored 34 points off of their opponent's mistakes. Overall, for the season, David Onyemem leads the Chargers defense with 63 tackles, including 11 tackles for loss and a pair of fumble recoveries that he has returned for 105 combined yards. He has also forced two fumbles and broken up four passes. Offensively, it has been sophomore running back Christopher Ais who has put up three 100+ yard games this season, including back-to-back career high afternoons on the road at Bentley and Saint Anselm. For the season, Ais leads all NE10 running back with an average of 93.0 yards per game which ranks 33rd in all of NCAA Division II, while his 837 rushing yards is the 39th most in the nation. The man marshalling all of that offense for the Chargers is graduate quarterback Connor Degenhardt who enters this weekend against the Owls with 1,860 passing yards and 25 touchdowns, while adding three more touchdowns in the ground game. His 25 touchdowns is tied for the eighth most in a single season at New Haven.

SCOUTING THE OWLS

The Owls enter the regular season finale and Battle of the Elm City averaging 10 points less than their opponents, putting up just 18.5 points per game, while giving up 28.4 to their opponents. Southern has split its offense rather evenly, averaging 112.7 yards on the ground and 183.4 yards in the air, while their 296.1 total yards per game average is just shy of 100 yards less than their opponents. The Owls are also struggling to convert on third and fourth down, going just 46-of-143 (32%) on third down and 8-of-20 (40%) on fourth down. Leading the Owls offense is quarterback Marc Reali who enters Saturday with 1,183 yards on 91-of-174 passing, with eight touchdowns.

On the ground, the Owls have relied on 12 different backs, with Diante Wilson leading the team with 447 yards on 104 carries for an average of 5.3 yards per game. Defensively, the Owls are led by Hasan Dominick and Robert Nunez who have 73 and 71 yards, respectively.

NEXT ON TAP

Following today's regular season finale, New Haven will await word of a potential postseason at-large bid to the upcoming NCAA Division II Super Regional. The top seven teams in Super Region 1 will earn a bid to the postseason, with the top seed earning a bye and seeds 2, 3 and 4 all hosting first round games on Saturday, November 19.

RUNNING AWAY WITH IT

Sophomore running back Christopher Ais has been a challenge to deal with for all of the Chargers opponents in 2022 and it will be no different this week against Southern Connecticut. The speedy Ais currently leads all Northeast-10 running backs and is 33rd in the nation with his average of 93.0 yards per game, with his longest rush of the season measuring 73 yards, which came against on the opening play of the game against Saint Anselm in Week 5. In addition to his speed, defenses also have to deal with his hurdling skills, as twice this year he has leapt over the defense to extend his runs. For the season, Ais has 837 net yards, averaging 5.5 per carry. Ais also has six rushing TD's to his credit.

RINSE & REPEAT

It's like deja vu as SO RB Christopher Ais was named the Northeast-10 Conference Offensive Player of the Week for the second straight week on October 3. Ais is coming off of a second-straight week with a career-high rushing performance, this time with 183 net yards, opening up the game with a 73-yard sprint to the house on the very first play of the afternoon as he found a hole in the middle of the line and broke free down the right side. Overall, he would carry the ball 21 times and lost just three yards total on the day. The game-opening touchdown was his first of two on the afternoon, the second being a receiving score as he hauled in pass for a 13-yard touchdown, his only reception of the afternoon.

GAME 10: NEW HAVEN AT SOUTHERN CONNECTICUT

DOUBLE TROUBLE

For the second-straight week, a pair of Chargers have doubled up the weekly conference awards with running back Christopher earning Offensive Player of the Week and defensive back David Onyemem named Defensive Player of the Week in the final awards for the month of September. Onyemem's award comes fresh off of his fourth quarter scoop and score where he sprinted 34 yards to the house to give the Chargers an eight point lead. He also added eight tackles, including one TFL, against the Falcons. Ais led the New Haven offense with a career-high 131 yards on 26 carries. The sophomore running back opened up his day with a hurdle that led to a 42-yard gain on the opening drive against the Falcons, setting up his one and only touchdown of the day which came a couple plays later as he went up the middle for the 10-yd TD.

DOUBLE TEAM

Following the Chargers NE10 opening win over American International, a pair of Chargers double teamed the weekly conference awards with quarterback Connor Degenhardt earning Offensive Player of the Week and wide receiver Terrell Ford named Special Teams Player of the Week. Ford's award comes fresh off of setting a single game school record for the most kickoff return yards (229) in a single game, including returning one 81 yards for a touchdown. In addition to his work on special teams, Ford also finished the day with three receptions for 53 yards and a touchdown, his first for the Blue and Gold as a receiver. Degenhardt led New Haven's offense with 247 passing yards and five touchdowns, the most in a single game since 2019. Overall, Degenhardt completed 19-of-32 pass attempts, while he also collected 18 net yards on the ground, including a 22-yard run on fourth down conversion.

WE'VE GOT EYES ON YOU

Heading into the 2022 season, a pair of Chargers are already in the spotlight with quarterback Connor Degenhardt and defensive back Khyon Fitzpatrick among the 475 players listed on the College Gridiron Small College Showcase Watch List, putting them square in the eyes of scouts across the country. The Watch List is composed by a panel of college and pro football experts and will be updated throughout the 2022 season.

DIAMOND IN THE ROUGH

A third Chargers is also among those who scouts will have their eye on throughout the year as defensive back Devonte Myles made his way on to the NFL Draft Diamond watch list over the summer. Myles certainly put-up numbers last year that should turn some heads and will continue to do the same damage this season. In 2021, Myles finished with 58 tackles, an interception, a fumble recovery and seven pass breakups.

DYNAMIC DUOS

The 2022 football roster includes two sets of siblings, including a pair of twin brothers, all of which will have an impact throughout the season. The twins come in the form of Christian and Christopher Ais, both of which are among the starting 11 on offense and defense. Christopher is the Chargers starting running back, who last week led the Blue and Gold carrying the ball 20 times for 17 yards. Christian is a starting defensive back who finished his rookie season with nine tackles and a pair of interceptions. The other pair of siblings on the roster hail from West Haven - Jake and Zack Conlan. Both Conlan brothers find themselves on the offensive side of the ball with Jake a running back and Zack a wide receiver. Last week, Jake carried the ball three times, while last season he finished with 688 yards and five touchdowns. Zack will see the majority of his time on special teams while also seeing a limited number of snaps as a wide out.

ONE DEGREE ISN'T ENOUGH

With a master's program in sport management, an MBA program and a renowned school of criminal justice it is no wonder so many students call New Haven home when it comes to postgraduate degrees. This season is no different, and for the second year in a row the Chargers have the most graduate students on the active roster in all of Division II. With 28 grad students on the opening day roster, the Chargers also have the most among all teams at all divisions, with Nebraska next in line with 26 grads in their program. According to the annual update from the National Football Foundation, 3,067 student-athletes across all divisions will be competing after having received an undergraduate degree. Of that total, 262 players from 31 Division II schools are among those pursuing graduate degrees.

ON THE RADAR

Ahead of the 2022 season opener at Bowie State, the New Haven football team entered the year ranked among the Top-25 teams in the country in three different coaches' polls. Highlighting those preseason rankings was the American Football Coaches Association poll which had the Chargers ranked 16th in the country. The first poll to be released was the College Football America yearbook which had the Blue and Gold 14th, while D2Football.com listed the Chargers 18th.

LEAVE IT ALL ON THE LINE

Over the last handful of years, the Chargers offensive line has always been the biggest challenge for opponents' defensive strategies and 2022 will be no different. Last season, the Chargers O-Line helped lead the offense to an average of 346 total yards per game and a 30.3 points per game average which led all Northeast-10 teams. Additionally, the O-Line held strong, limiting opponents defense to just 14 sacks allowed, while also leaving passing lanes wide open to the point of opponents picking off just four passes all season, which was sixth best in all of NCAA Division II.

LEADERSHIP TRIO

Following the Chargers three-week pre-season, head coach Chris Pincince announced a trio of players that will make up the leadership corps for 2022; quarterback Connor Degenhardt, defensive back Khyon Fitzpatrick and offensive lineman Will Ayers. All three played incredibly important roles last season and will be looked on to continue that success while also leading the next generation of Chargers to a repeat NE10 Championship and a deep run into the postseason.

WHAT D2FOOTBALL.COM IS PREDICTING FOR WEEK 11 (PAUL FALEWICZ - NE10 WEEKLY UPDATE)

Elm City Trophy is on the line. New Haven easily defeated Franklin Pierce 50-6 last weekend. The Chargers came out and asserted their offense early by throwing the ball downfield. The defense did its job and limited the Ravens. For New Haven to win on the road, they will need to be focused and don't let the distractions of the playoffs interfere. They need to move the ball on offense and not allow the Owls to make the ball when they have it. Southern Connecticut took care of business with Post by the score of 44-7. The Owls have now won three of their last four games as they have established their running game. For Southern Connecticut to win on its Senior Day, it will need to jump out of the gates quickly. They need to create turnovers and capitalize on all of the Chargers' mistakes. New Haven will dominate in the trenches and win this game. Prediction: New Haven 34, Southern Connecticut 14

PRESEASON PROPS

Returning to the field for the first time after winning the 2021 Northeast-10 Conference Championship, going undefeated in league play, the University of New Haven football team will enter the 2022 season as the preseason favorite to win the Northeast-10 Conference championship in a poll of the league's eight head coaches. New Haven racked up a

BUILDING FOR THE FUTURE

If you haven't visited North Campus recently you haven't seen the construction taking place adjacent to Charger Gymnasium. The site is the future home of the Peterson Performance Center, a state of the art facility that will house strength and conditioning, sports medicine, a new football locker room and meeting space with the ability to be tailored for the many different needs of all 20 varsity Charger athletic teams. The entire facility will measure 7,000 square feet and house 20 Olympic style weightlifting racks and a 60-yard turf agility and conditioning area. Construction is scheduled to be completed during the fall with the building opening for the Spring 2023 semester.

CHRIS PINCINCE
HEAD COACH
 EIGHTH SEASON
 BOSTON UNIVERSITY '94

The 2021 Northeast-10 Conference Coach of the year, Chris Pincince was named the 10th head coach at the University of New Haven in February 2014, bringing more than 20 years of collegiate coaching experience to the sidelines, including many at the NCAA Division I level.

In seven seasons leading the Chargers, Pincince has collected 52 wins passing Mark Whipple as the all-time winningest coach in the storied history of the program, while leading the Blue and Gold to the NCAA Championship Second Round in each of the last two appearances in the national playoffs (2018 & 2021).

Overall in seven seasons, 12 players have received All-American accolades while offensive lineman Zach Voytek was a three-time NE10 Offensive Lineman of the Year and signed as an undrafted free agent with the Buffalo Bills. Additionally, 59 different players have been named All-Conference, while 12 have garnered All-Region honors.

This past season, the Chargers finished the year 10-2 overall, including an undefeated 8-0 record in Northeast-10 Conference play, earning the program's eighth trip to the NCAA Division II Championship. The Blue and Gold went on to defeat Bentley in the opening round to advance to the regional semifinals for the second time in as many appearances. In addition to Pincince earning NE10 Coach of the Year accolades, he was also named the New England Football Writers Coach of the Year while graduate offensive lineman Mike Zecchin joined him with a major award as he was tabbed the NE10's Offensive Lineman of the Year.

After finishing among the best defensive programs in the country, the Chargers were highlighted by junior defensive back Khyon Fitzpatrick who was named a second team All-American by the American Football Coaches of America. Overall, Fitzpatrick and Zecchin were part of 14 players who earned NE10 All-Conference honors while as a team, the Chargers finished 2021 ranked No.14 in the AFCA Coaches Poll.

After missing the 2020 season due to the COVID-19 shutdown, the Chargers closed out the 2019 season finished tied with Bentley with a 6-2 record in Northeast-10 Conference play. Among the highlights for Pincince's squad was Shamar Logan garnering NE10 Rookie of the Year accolades as he was one of 16 Chargers to earn NE10 postseason distinction. Logan would go on to earn All-Region honors along with Markel Johnson and Ju'an Williams, the latter of which was named the regions Special Teams Player of the Year.

In 2018, Pincince coached a pair of record breakers in quarterback Ajee Patterson and Williams. Patterson graduated as arguably the best quarterback in New Haven history, the first to throw for more than 10,000 yards while racking up 80 touchdowns, second most in program history. The NE10 MVP and First Team All-Conference selection, Patterson closed out his collegiate campaign with a career-high 2,878 yards and 29 touchdowns, leading his squad to the NCAA Championship for the first time since 2012. Williams, a Don Hanson Honorable Mention All-American, registered a single season school record 1,171 receiving yards which came on 65 catches while completing 11 for touchdowns. Joining Williams in earning All-American accolades was Dan Iannone who anchored an offensive line that contributed to 4,827 total yards on offense, the most in the NE10, which included just shy of 2,000 yards rushing. In addition, the O-Line protection was impeccable, allowing Patterson to be sacked just three times through the 10-game regular season.

Voytek was one of two Chargers named All-American in 2016, joining linebacker Tyler Condit. Together, the pair were part of nine total players who received NE10 All-Conference honors following a 7-4 season that included a pair of wins over crosstown rival Southern Connecticut State University, representing eight straight season New Haven has maintained the Elm City Trophy. On the field, Condit set a pair of records, becoming the all-time leading tackler at New Haven as well as in the Northeast-10. He finished his collegiate career with 117 tackles as a senior, becoming just the second player in school history to finish with at least 100 stops in three seasons.

In just his second season leading the Chargers, Pincince led the Blue and Gold to the N10 Championship game, finishing the year with a 7-4 record. Among the highlights were a pair of record setting performances from junior running back Andre Anderson and Condit. Anderson broke a 22 year old record set by Roger Graham when he rushed for 319 yards in the regular season finale against Saint Anselm. In that same game, Condit shattered a 29 year old record when he finished with 25 tackles, giving him 153 for the season, which surpassed the previous record of 134 by Erik Lesinski. Anderson and Condit were two of four Chargers who received NE10 Player of the Year accolades at their respective positions, with Anderson earning Most Valuable Player accolades.

In his first season strolling the sideline at New Haven, Pincince led the Chargers to a 6-5 overall record, including a string of six straight victories in Northeast-10 Conference action. Among the highlights from Pincince's first season was Condit who was named a USA College Football All-America Honorable Mention. A pair of Chargers were also honored among the major awards from the Northeast-10 Conference with Voytek named co-Offensive Lineman of the Year and freshman running back Lemar Thomas named Rookie of the Year. In total, 10 players were named to NE10 All-Conference squads.

With two previous stints as an assistant at New Haven, Pincince began his career with the Chargers in 1995 as an assistant for UNH Athletics Hall of Famer and NFL Head Coach for the Miami Dolphins and Oakland Raiders (Interim) Tony Sparano (1961-2018). He spent three additional seasons with the Chargers from 1999 to 2001 under Darren Rizzi, current Assistant Head Coach and Special Teams Coordinator for the New Orleans Saints.

Prior to his most recent position as offensive coordinator at NCAA Division I Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) member Elon University in North Carolina, Pincince was the offensive coordinator at the University of Rhode Island and the College of the Holy Cross.

At Elon, Pincince was the offensive coordinator as well as the quarterbacks and running backs coach for three seasons. In his first year Elon's offense led the Southern Conference and ranked 14th nationally with 281 passing yards per game. Pincince's offensive scheme was anchored by All-America wide receiver Aaron Mellette, who led all of FCS in receptions per game (10.27) and receiving yards per game (149). His season totals also set new school and conference records in 2011. Quarterback Thomas Wilson also led the conference and ranked 14th nationally in total offense. In his second season at Elon, the offense ranked 12th in the FCS in passing yards per game (296), with Mellette again earning All-America honors. The receiver became the first Elon player invited to the Senior Bowl and was later selected in the seventh round of the NFL draft by the Baltimore Ravens. In Pincince's final season at Elon, the Phoenix ranked second in the conference in passing yards per game (231) and averaged over 350 total yards per contest.

During the three seasons prior to arriving at Elon, Pincince was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Rhode Island. While at URI, Pincince installed the spread offense, and the Rams ranked fifth in the Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) in passing offense in his first season. Pincince also spent four years at the College of the Holy Cross, including two seasons as the Crusaders' offensive coordinator. In 2007, the Holy Cross offense led the Patriot League in scoring (35.9 ppg), passing (335 ypg), total offense (463 ypg) and first downs (272). Crusaders quarterback Dominic Randolph led the league in passing (3,604 yards), touchdown passes (30) and total offense (340 ypg) and finished 12th in the balloting for the Walter Payton Award. Pincince's first two seasons at Holy Cross were spent as the wide receivers coach.

Prior to his tenure at Holy Cross, Pincince served as the offensive coordinator at Ursinus College in 2003. The season before, Pincince was the quarterbacks coach at Brown University. He also spent two seasons at Fairfield University. During his five previous seasons at New Haven, the Chargers combined for a 32-18-1 record and advanced to the NCAA Division II quarterfinal round in 1995. The Chargers finished the regular season undefeated and earned a 27-12 victory over Edinboro in the opening round of the NCAA playoffs. In his second stint, the Chargers averaged over 30 points and 350 yards per game during his three-season stretch.

A native of Woonsocket, R.I., Pincince earned his bachelor's degree from Boston University in 1994. He was a member of the Terriers' 1993 Yankee Conference Championship team and played on two NCAA Division I-AA (now FCS) playoff teams. He and his wife, Jennifer, have two sons, Zachary and Owen, and a daughter, Emma.
