WHAT'S ON TAP

Looking to lock in their postseason seeding, the New Haven women's basketball team welcomes Saint Anselm to West Haven for the 2022-23 regular season finale on Tuesday evening. Both the Chargers and Hawks have a lot riding on the regular season finale with New Haven likely to finish anywhere between fifth and seventh place, while the Hawks are looking to lock up a home game in the first round. Tip-off in the key NE10 battle is slated for 5:30 p.m. at Charger Gym.

SCOUTING NEW HAVEN

Looking to close out the regular season on a positive note, New Haven needs to continue to rely on a defense that is holding opponents to just 58.4 points per game, while keeping confidence in its shooting where it is currently 27th in NCAA Division II with its 43.8 percent from the field. Leading the way is Camryn DeBose who is averaging 15.7 points per game, fifth in the NE10, including a career-high 30 points in the season opener against Georgian Court. Her co-captain Aurora Deshaies has both offense and defense on her mind as she is second on the team averaging 13.0 ppg, while one of two players in the NE10 who is averaging a double double as she is pulling down a conference-best 10.7 rebounds per outing. In addition, Deshaies leads all NE10 players and is sixth in the nation with her 62% shooting percentage (147-of-237) with all of her points coming from inside the three-point arc. Rounding out the leading scorers for the Blue and Gold is senior point guard Kameryn King who is averaging 10.0 ppg, while leading the team with 113 assists, with her 4.7 assists per game average second in the conference and 28th best in the nation.

SCOUTING SAINT ANSELM

Looking to close out the regular season with back-to-back victories, the Hawks can lock up a first round home game with a victory, even if they end up tied with the Pace Setters. For the season, the Hawks are averaging 62.7 points per game, which stands sixth in the league, while still outscoring their opponents by 1.5 points per game. For the season, Saint Anselm has a trio of players who average double figures, led by Gabby Turco who is currently third in the NE10 with her average of 16.3 ppg. Joining her in leading the team with Melanie Hoyt (11.6 ppg) and Liv Robles (11.2 ppg), while Robles leads the team in the rebounding category with her 7.8 per game average.

SERIES HISTORY VS SAINT ANSELM

- New Haven and Saint Anselm meet for the 28th time in the history of the two programs.
- Saint Anselm holds a 15-12 record in the previous 27 games, including wins in eight of the first 10 matchups, all prior to New Haven joining the NE10
- New Haven saw a string of success when they won five straight and eight-of-10 from 2013-19.
- The Hawks have seen much of the most recent success, winning the last four matchups, including a 60-51 win in the first meeting earlier this season.

LAST TIME VS THE HAWKS

Senior Aurora Deshaies put up a then season-best 21 points in a 60-51 loss to open up a two-game road trip at Saint Anselm. Deshaies was one of two players in double figures for the Chargers with point guard Kameryn King joining her with 11 points. Among the two leading scorers, Deshaies led the way, shooting 9-of-12 from the field, while pulling down seven boards. Leighanna Lister, making her second consecutive start, led New Haven with 10 boards, while as a team New Haven finished with a 36-27 rebounding advantage. For the game, New Haven outshot the Hawks, making 21 field goals in 47 attempts, while Saint Anselm also finished with 21 buckets, there's coming on 54 attempts. The Hawks had four of their field goals come from outside the three point arc, while New Haven was held without a long range bucket, while the Hawks held the advantage in the free throw column going a perfect 14-of-14, while New Haven was 9-of-17.

NEXT TIME OUT

The Chargers will await the official release of the Northeast-10 Conference Championship bracket to see who they will face in the opening round of the playoffs on Friday, February 24. That opening round game for New Haven will come on its home court with a tip-off time to be determined. All of the postseason playoff action be available live on NE10 NOW.

DESHAIES DIPS INTO WEEKLY HONORS

After helping lead the Chargers to their sixth and seventh straight victories, senior co-captain Aurora Deshaies found herself collecting her first honors of the season, named NE10 Player of the Week as announced by the league office. Deshaies averaged 19.5 points and 11.5 rebounds as the Chargers opened the final month of the regular season with a pair of home wins over Saint Rose and American International. The Syracuse, N.Y. native has been a force inside the three point arc all season and this week was no different as she shot an impressive 76 percent from the field (19-of-25), extending her league leading field goal percentage.

WE WENT STREAKING

The Chargers nine-game win streak came to a close in its road game at Assumption, but there are plenty of takeaways from the rally. The set of nine straight wins is the longest such streak under the leadership of head coach Debbie Buff, with the previous a seven-game streak during her inaugural season at the helm, 2018-19. It is also the longest since the Chargers won nine-straight back in 2014-15, a season where they finished 26-6 overall and advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight. In the nine game win streak, the Chargers outscored their opponents by 9.0 ppg and out rebounded them by 9.0 per game, while shooting 46%, 211-of-456.

SLAYING THE DRAGON

New Haven may have entered the Dana Center as the underdog in its conference matchup against NE10 leading Bentley, a team that has garnered regional and national attention from those voting in weekly polls, but the Chargers proved that they are not a team to take lightly. It wasn't a fluke that New Haven came away with the buzzer-beating victory over the Falcons as they led for nearly 25 of the 40 minutes in the game. Overall, the contest featured 12 lead changes and eight ties, but the 51-49 final score is all that mattered as the Chargers held a Bentley team that averaged 14 points more than their opponents to a season-low 49 points and limited their leading scorers, who average more than 30 points per game combined, to just 16 total points among the top-three scorers.

OFFENSIVE EFFICIENCY

Going into the non-conference match-up against Staten Island, the New Haven women's basketball team currently leads all NE10 teams and is 27th in all of NCAA Division II with their 43.8 percent shooting average, connecting on 584-1,333 total attempts. Leading the way individually is senior Aurora Deshaies who leads the NE10 and is sixth in the nation at 62% (147-of-237). Included among the Chargers 584 total field goals are 126 three pointers, on 381 attempts, for a 33.1 percent average which is fifth best in the NE10. Currently, Camryn DeBose leads the team with 52 three pointers, but keep an eye on freshman Lindsay Hogan who found her groove against Dominican when she went 7-of-9 from beyond the arc and now provides an efficient option off the bench for the Blue and Gold.

KEEP YOUR HEAD UP

Part of the reason the New Haven women's basketball team has a top-30 field goal percentage in all of D2 is because they have done a great job in finding the open player. For the season, New Haven has 327 assists with their 13.08 assist per game average fifth best in the NE10. Senior point guard Kameryn King leads the team with 113 assists, with her 4.70 average second in the league and 28th best in all of NCAA Division II.

DOUBLING UP

Senior forward, and captain, Aurora Deshaies opened up the season with four straight double doubles, averaging 14.8 points and 13.8 rebounds in that stretch. At the time she was the only player in the NE10 to average a double double. In that same stretch, Deshaies was also scoring at a 69% clip, making 27-of-39 field goal attempts, including two games at 70% or better. She is one of two Chargers to record a double double so far this season, has 12 total on the year, seven in NE10 play, and currently has 26 for her career.

HOT START
 After just one game this season, graduate guard Camryn DeBose has already made a statement in the Northeast-10 Conference, setting a career-high 30 points in the season opener to earn NE10 Player of the Week. DeBose surpassed her previous career-high of 24 points to earn the first 30-plus performance of her career against the Georgian Court Lions on Saturday night. The Wellington, Fla. native finished the day shooting 8-of-18 from the field with a three pointer, while impressive at the free throw line where she finished 13-of-14. In addition, DeBose hauled in five rebounds, dished out a pair of assists and picked off three steals.

NATIONAL NUMBERS
 Senior forward Aurora Deshaies doesn't just lead the Northeast-10 Conference in a few categories, she is also Top-6 in the nation in field goal percentage and top-8 in rebounds per game and top-18 in double doubles. Heading into Tuesday's regular season finale against Saint Anselm, Deshaies is shooting 62.0 percent (147-of-237), with the national leader, Annie Roshak from Ashland shooting 69.6. On the rebounding front, she is currently averaging 10.7 per game, with the national leader (Alisha Willson) pulling down an average of 14.9 rebounds per game. Finally, she stands second in the NE10 with 12 double doubles, which is 18th most in the nation. The national leader, Jami Tham from Tusculum has an impressive 24 total on the year.

NATIONAL NUMBERS PART DEUX
 Deshaies isn't the only Charger in the top-25 in the nation as fellow classmate Kameryn King is currently 28th in the country with her conference-best 4.7 assists per game average. The Old Saybrook native leads the Chargers with 113 assists through the 25 games this season, which is the most in a single season since the 2012-13 season (Anh-Dao Tran 116).

THE BEST OF THE BEST
 With her 15 first half points against Franklin Pierce on Saturday, December 3, graduate guard Camryn DeBose, and team captain, became the 21st player in New Haven women's basketball history to score 1,000 points, joining an elite club of Chargers. She is the first player to reach the plateau since Micah Wormack did in 2020. At her current rate of 16.0 ppg, DeBose is quickly climbing the all-time scoring list and will graduate among the top-15 in program history. With 1,275 points heading into today's game, DeBose stands 15th all-time and needs 36 more points to take over 14th all-time.

NO MOUNTAIN TOO HIGH
 After seeing her teammate join the 1,000 point club earlier this season, Deshaies is currently on the hunter be the next member of that prestigious club as she now stands just 66 points shy of becoming the 22nd player all-time. In addition, she could become just the third player ever to hit 1,000 in both points and rebounds as she currently has 738 rebounds. Additionally, she is close to joining the top-10 in school history in rebounds with the No. 10 spot all-time sitting at 785.

HELPING HAND
 As much as senior guard Kameryn King has scoring the rock on her mind, the Old Saybrook, Conn. native knows that one of her primary rolls this season is to find the open player and set up uncontested shots. She has been doing that job supremely, entering Saturday afternoon with 113 assists. She is currently second in the NE10 with her 4.7 assists per game average, which is also 28th best in all of NCAA D2. Among her 113 assists was a career-high nine in a non-conference double OT game vs Dominican, while she has dished out five or more in 14 games, including 11 of the last 15.

LAST ONE STANDING

Senior forward Aurora Deshaies was one of just three players in the Northeast-10 last season to average a double double, putting up 12.4 ppg (20th in the NE10) and 11.1 rpg (t-2nd in the NE10). In addition to being just one of three players, she is the only of the three who returns for the 2022-23 season with the graduation of Meg Knollmeyer (SNHU) and Jessica Fressle (SCSU).

FINDING THE TARGET

Senior forward Aurora Deshaies wasn't just a leader in the scoring and rebounding column last season, the Empire State native also led the Northeast-10 in shooting, connecting on 54.2 percent of her field goal attempts. The post player made a team-high 141 field goals which came on 260 attempts, with all but one of those attempts coming from inside the three-point arc. She also added 29 points at the free throw line. So far this season, Deshaies is again leading all NE10 players, shooting 62.0 percent from the field (147-of-237).

LEADERSHIP DUO

Head coach Debbie Buff recently announced the Chargers two captains for the 2022-23 season with graduate student Camryn Debose and senior Aurora Deshaies earning the distinction. DeBose earns the honor for a consecutive season while Deshaies will serve as captain for the first time in her collegiate career.

NEW FACES OF THE PROGRAM

Head Coach Debbie Buff welcomes four new faces to the mix in 2022-23 with the addition of a pair of true freshmen and a pair of graduate transfers. One of the transfers is a familiar foe of the Chargers with the addition of Becca Townes who completed her undergrad work at Saint Rose where she averaged 11.0 points

BUILDING FOR THE FUTURE

If you haven’t visited North Campus recently you haven’t seen the construction taking place adjacent to Charger Gymnasium. The site is the future home of the Peterson Performance Center, a state-of-the-art facility that will house strength and conditioning, sports medicine, a new football locker room and meeting space with the ability to be tailored for the many different needs of all 20 varsity Charger athletic teams. The entire facility will measure 7,000 square feet and house 20 Olympic style weight-lifting racks and a 60-yard turf agility and conditioning area. Construction is scheduled to be completed during the fall with the building opening for the Spring 2023 semester.

BOLD DENOTES 2022-23 OCCURENCE

DEBBIE BUFF
 HEAD COACH
 FOURTH SEASON
 CORTLAND

Debbie Buff enter her fourth season at the helm of the Blue and Gold in 2022-23, coming to New Haven prior to the 2018-19 campaign following a seven-year stint at Wheeling Jesuit University (Wheeling, W.V.), which included back-to-back Mountain East Conference Championships and NCAA Division II tournament appearances.

Buff (46-37, .554) has led the Blue and Gold to an appearance in the Northeast-10 Conference tournament in each of her three seasons, which includes back-to-back 18-win campaigns in each of her first two seasons.

After returning from the CoVID-19 shutdown, Buff led the Chargers to a 10-16 overall record led by senior Camryn DeBose and junior Aurora DeShaies who combined to averaged over 25 points per game. DeBose also capped off the season as one of three Chargers who were named to the NE10 Academic All-Conference Teams following the winter seasons.

During her second season in 2019-20, Buff led the Chargers to an 18-9 record. New Haven finished the season ninth in the nation in Division II in scoring defense, holding opponents to just 53.7 points per game. NE10 All-Rookie selection Aurora Deshaies led the conference in field goal pct. (.565), senior Micah Wormack earned Second Team All-NE10 honors, and DeBose was named to the Northeast-10 All-Academic Team.

In her first campaign with the Chargers in 2018-19, Buff led New Haven to an 18-12 record, an improvement of six wins over the season prior to her arrival. The season culminated with a trip to the NE10 semifinals for the first time since 2016 following a road victory over Stonehill in the NE10 quarterfinals. Buff also helped mentor Alexandria Kerr, a First Team All-NE10 honoree and three-time CoSIDA First Team Academic All-District selection.

Prior to New Haven, Buff took over the Wheeling Jesuit program in 2011 and in five years led her first full recruiting class to the first of back-to-back Mountain East Conference Championships in 2015-16. The Cardinals finished that season with a 27-6 overall record, which tied the school record for most victories in a single season.

The Cardinals followed that up with a second-straight 25-win season, Mountain East Championship and subsequent trip to the NCAA Division II regional championship. Over her seven years in West Virginia, Buff collected a 111-93 overall record for a .544 winning percentage. Over her seven years, the Cardinals finished with a plus-.500 record on four occasions.

Prior to Wheeling Jesuit, Buff spent two seasons at Endicott College where she led the Gulls to the most wins in school history with a 23-6 record in 2008-09 and an appearance in the championship game of the Commonwealth Coast Conference. In her two seasons at Endicott, she compiled an overall record of 42-14.

Her first stint as a head coach came at the Rochester Institute of Technology where her five-plus year career was highlighted by Empire 8 Coach of the Year accolades in 2006-07 when she led the Tigers to the most victories in the history of the RIT women's basketball program and the program's first ever appearance in the Empire 8 and ECAC Championships.

Prior to her collegiate head coaching career, Buff served as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at fellow Northeast-10 opponent College of Saint Rose where she helped lead the Golden Knights to the 2000 NCAA Division II Northeast Region Championship, a 34-1 record and a national ranking as high as No. 1 in the country.

Previous to joining a college program, Buff spent 14 years as the head coach at Bishop Maginn High School in Albany. In her time there, she recorded 203 wins and 57 losses while capturing five Big 10 Conference Championships, a Section II title, a regional title and a New York State Class A title. A Hall of Famer at Bishop Maginn, Buff was named the New York State Coach of the Year following the team's 1996 state title run.

A graduate from the State University of New York College at Cortland with a Bachelor of Science degree in physical education, she also holds a Master's Degree in health education from Russell Sage College. During her time at Cortland, she competed three years for the women's basketball team before turning her attention to training for the Skylon International Marathon in New York. In addition to Skylon, Buff has competed in seven triathlons, most notably the Lake Placid Olympic Tour triathlon.

Outside of her coaching and triathlon experiences, Buff has donated countless hours of volunteer time with the Alzheimer's Association and the Make A Wish foundation, both causes near and dear to her heart.
